Reading Writing Elizabeth Jolley Contemporary Approaches:

Reading and Writing Elizabeth Jolley Sandra McCowan,1995-01 Reading and Writing Elizabeth Jolley Contemporary Approaches introduces senior students of English to the writing of Elizabeth Jolley and to the study of texts in context through a varied range of approaches and learning strategies

Critical Survey of Drama: Victor Hugo - John Marston Carl Edmund Rollyson, Frank Northen Magill,2003 Combines updates and expands two earlier Salem Press reference sets Critical survey of drama Rev ed English language series published in 1994 and Critical survey of drama Foreign language series published in 1986 This new 8 vol set contains 602 essays of which 538 discuss individual dramatists and 64 cover broad overview topics The dramatist profiles contain more than 310 photographs and drawings

Australian Literary Studies ,2004 Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay,2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don t people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point

The Reality behind Barbara Pym's Excellent Women Robin R. Joyce,2023-02-20 This book analyses Barbara Pym s published and unpublished work through a new image that of the troublesome woman It details the political nature of her work highlighting her feminist ideas which are hidden in village like settings and revealed by troublesome women By exploring Pym s written work published and unpublished diaries and notebooks the book shows that this material gives credence to Hilary Pym s interpretation of her sister as a complex person

Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study International Books in Print ,1990 Darkness Subverted Katrin Althans,2010 English summary At the heart of the Gothic novel proper lies the discursive binary of self and other which in colonial literature was quickly filled with representations of the colonial master and his indigenous subject Contemporary black Australian artists have usurped this colonial Gothic discourse torn it to pieces and finally transformed it into an Aboriginal Gothic This study first develops the theoretical concept of an Aboriginal Gothic and then uses this term as a tool to analyse novels by Vivienne Cleven Mudrooroo Kim Scott Sam Watson and Alexis Wright as well as films directed by Beck Cole and Tracey Moffatt It centres on the question of how a genuinely European mode the Gothic can be permeated and thus digested by elements of indigenous Australian culture in order to portray the current situation of Aboriginal Australians and to celebrate a recovered cultural identity Australian National Bibliography ,1995

A Question of Commitment Susan Lever,2020-07-29 In the years since the Second World War Australia has seen a period of literary creativity which outshines any earlier period in the nation s literary history This creativity has its beginnings in the arguments and alignments which emerged at the end of the War and the changes in perceptions of art and society which occurred during the fifties and early sixties A Question of Commitment examines the attitudes of writers as diverse as James McAuley Frank Hardy Judith Wright Patrick White and A D Hope as they responded to a changing Australian society during the postwar years Through their work and that of many others it considers the debates about literary nationalism the artistic politics of the Cold War the threat of technology to art in the Atomic Age and the nature of the writer s role in the new society It documents the way in which the political commitments of some writers and the resistance to commitment of others were challenged by political and social changes of the late fifties Susan McKernan s lively exploration of Australia s writers in a time of innovation provides the reader with the context needed to understand the creative choices they made and in so doing introduces wider intellectual and cultural issues which remain relevant to this day
