Real World Writing for Secondary Students Jessica Singer Early, Meredith DeCosta, 2014-01-01 One of the most important ways to scaffold a successful transition from high school to college is to teach real world gate opening writing genres such as college admission essays This book describes a writing workshop for ethnically and linguistically diverse high school students where students receive instruction on specific genre features of the college admission essay The authors present both the theoretical grounding and the concrete strategies teachers crave including an outline of specific workshop lessons teaching calendars and curricular suggestions This text encourages secondary teachers to think of writing as a vital tool for all students to succeed academically and professionally Appropriate for courses and teacher professional development this accessible book Reconceptualizes the ways in which writing can best serve marginalized students Examines research based curricular and teaching approaches for the secondary school classroom Provides a writing workshop framework for creating a college admissions essay complete with lesson planning materials activities handouts bibliographic resources and more Includes student perspectives and work samples offering insight into the lives and struggles of diverse adolescents In this important book Jessica Early and Meredith DeCosta describe a readily replicable set of activities that provides motivated meaningful opportunities for writing development and helps potential first generation higher education students gain university admission From the Foreword by Charles Bazerman Gevirtz Graduate School of Education University of California Santa Barbara This is a book about opening doors about demystifying writing tasks that can keep many students on the outside The authors take on a major writing challenge the college application essay and through careful instruction help students use their real life stories to master it It is teaching at its best and democracy at its best Thomas Newkirk University of New Hampshire This groundbreaking book has the best qualities of an exemplary research study while also providing us with a handbook of practical wisdom and engaging lessons for teaching writing to a diverse population of secondary students It is certain to inspire and instruct all English teachers and composition researchers who care about helping traditionally marginalized and underprepared students discover and demonstrate that they are qualified to enter college Sheridan Blau Teachers College Columbia University Resources in Education ,2001-04 Building Writing Center Assessments That Matter Ellen Schendel,William J. Macauley,2012-10-16 No less than other divisions of the college or university contemporary writing centers find themselves within a galaxy of competing questions and demands that relate to assessment questions and demands that usually embed priorities from outside the purview of the writing center itself Writing centers are used to certain kinds of assessment both quantitative and qualitative but are often unprepared to address larger institutional or societal issues In Building Writing Center Assessments that Matter Schendel and Macauley start from the kinds of assessment strengths already in place in writing centers and they build a framework that can help writing centers satisfy local needs and put them in useful dialogue with the larger needs of their institutions while staying rooted in writing assessment theory The authors begin from the position that tutoring writers is already an assessment activity and that good assessment practice rooted in the work of Adler Kassner O Neill Moore and Huot already reflects the values of writing center theory and practice They offer examples of assessments developed in local contexts and of how assessment data built within those contexts can powerfully inform decisions and shape the futures of local writing centers With additional contributions by Neal Lerner Brian Huot and Nicole Caswell and with a strong commitment to honoring on site local needs the volume does not advocate a one size fits all answer But like the modeling often used in a writing consultation examples here illustrate how important assessment principles have been applied in a range of local contexts Ultimately Building Writing Assessments that Matter describes a theory stance toward assessment for writing centers that honors the uniqueness of the writing center context and examples of assessment in action that are concrete manageable portable and adaptable Nonfiction Writing Power Adrienne Gear,2014-02-17 Writing nonfiction is a key skill that students will need throughout their school lives and beyond This remarkable book is designed to help teachers develop a writing program that will enable their students to harness all of their Nonfiction Writing Powers to Describe to Instruct to Compare to Persuade to Explain and to Report It illustrates ways to encourage students to write because they have something to say and to recognize that writing well means considering intent and purpose and choosing the best form of expression Ideal for teaching writing in the content areas the book includes guidance on linking writing forms to Science Social Studies and other subject areas Educating for Purposeful Life S. David Brazer,Michael B Matsuda,2023-10-12 A visionary blueprint for educational reform that envisions school systems as opportunity engines preparing young citizens for future workplace success civic engagement and fulfilling lives Educating for Purposeful Life documents positive change within the Anaheim Union High School District whose overarching mission is to prepare high school graduates who possess a clear sense of purpose and the capacity to achieve their goals Superintendent Michael Matsuda and education consultant David Brazer lay out the district s innovative approaches to organizing leading teaching and learning They demonstrate how education policy organization theory and external partnerships work together within this grades 7 12 district to scaffold student success resulting in greater high school graduation rates and four year college matriculation and persistence rates A rousing account of effective school reform this work illuminates the district s Career Preparedness Systems Framework which integrates affective and cognitive development opportunities trade and professional development programs and community engagement efforts Matsuda and Brazer show how this framework combined with a strengths based approach that recognizes and affirms students individual life experiences helps meet the educational needs of all students including those from traditionally underserved populations Presenting secondary education as a means to support democracy address employability gaps and elevate student voice and purpose this thought provoking work provides ample ideas for how other districts might engage in educating for purposeful life

Equity by Design Mirko Chardin,Katie Novak,2020-07-20 Our calling is to drop our egos commit to removing barriers and treat our learners with the unequivocal respect and dignity they deserve Mirko Chardin and Katie Novak When it comes to the hard work of reconstructing our schools into places where every student has the opportunity to succeed Mirko Chardin and Katie Novak are absolutely convinced that teachers should serve as our primary architects And by teachers they mean legions of teachers working in close collaboration After all it s teachers who design students learning experiences who build student relationships who ultimately have the power to change the trajectory of our students lives Equity by Design is intended to serve as a blueprint for teachers to alter the all too predictable outcomes for our historically under served students A first of its kind resource the book makes the critical link between social justice and Universal Design for Learning UDL so that we can equip students and teachers too with the will skill and collective capacity to enact positive change Inside you ll find Concrete strategies for designing and delivering a culturally responsive sustainable and equitable framework for all students Rich examples case studies and implementation spotlights of educators students including Parkland survivors and programs that have embraced a social justice imperative Evidence based application of best practices for UDL to create more inclusive and equitable classrooms A flexible format to facilitate use with individual teachers teacher teams and as the basis for whole school implementation Every student Mirko and Katie insist deserves the opportunity to be successful regardless of their zip code the color of their skin the language they speak their sexual and or gender identity and whether or not they have a disability Consider Equity by Design a critical first step forward in providing that all important opportunity
