Jo and Keely have written several textbooks for the IB diploma. They are also examiners and workshop leaders for the IB. Britain, 1846-1964 Martin Roberts, 2001 The aim of this book is to explain how Britain's circumstances changed between 1846-1964. Britain in 1846 was by far the richest nation in the world. In 1964 Britain was comparatively much less rich than the USA and though amongst the world's richest nations was losing ground to Japan and to Western Europe. Because of her wealth and her navy, Britain in 1846 was the most powerful nation in the world. Britain in 1964 was dwarfed by the superpowers of the USA and the USSR. The British Empire of the 1840s reflected Britain's power. By 1964 the Empire was collapsing. Only one in five men and no women could vote in the Britain of the 1840s. By 1964 Britain was fully democratic with all adults entitled to vote. In a period of a little over a century these were some of the changes to which Britain had to adapt. It was a period that marked a substantial fall in Britain's comparative power and prosperity in the world. Russia and Germany, 1871-1914 Sally Waller, Steve Waugh, Simon Peaple, 2009 Written to cover the AQA History A Level Unit 1 specification, HIS1K our student book provides a focused look at key events in Russian and German history during 1871-1914 and enables students to gain a greater understanding of the period and evaluate the key issues. Schwartzwald,2022-07-19 Between the years 1815 and 1945 Europe achieved unrivaled global dominance only to see it shattered by two world wars This frenetic rise and fall was attended by immense societal change In 1815 Europe remained largely agricultural and dependent upon horsepower By 1945 the power of the atom had been unleashed Two industrial revolutions occurred in the interim the first founded upon coal iron and steam the second upon oil steel electricity and internal combustion The implications for humanity were profound This concise yet comprehensive study is divided into three sections In section one the map of Europe emerges in its modern visage as unrestrained nationalist fervor gives rise to an assemblage of new nation states In section two the continent attains global hegemony as massive industrialization fuels a mad scramble for colonial markets and raw materials In section three a cauldron of national ethnic and class hatreds spawn the rise of totalitarianism and the overthrow of European hegemony in two calamitous world wars By tracing the events and undercurrents of this vital period in European history this book offers trenchant insights for the lay reader and the student of history alike
