

The background of the entire image is a soft-focus photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, a river flows, its surface reflecting the light from the sky. The middle ground shows a wide, flat area, possibly a field or a dry riverbed, leading towards a range of mountains in the distance. The mountains are partially shrouded in mist or low clouds, giving the scene a dreamy, ethereal quality. The lighting is warm, suggesting either dawn or dusk, with a golden glow emanating from the upper right corner.

Reading the Water Mark Hume, 2022-05-10 A father shares the joys of fly fishing with his daughters. A heartfelt beautifully written celebration of the wonders of nature and comfort of family. Kirkus STARRED. Fishing was Mark Hume's passion since he was a young boy, a lifeline through a childhood marked by his family's frequent moves. When he became a father, he knew he wanted to pass on his love of water fishing and the natural world to his daughters. Most of all, he wanted to give them hope for their future even as they were coming of age during uncertain times. As soon as they were old enough, Mark taught his girls how to read the water and see the patterns in nature. He showed them how to cast, how to catch fish and release them, and only when needed, how to kill them. He discovered that fly fishing and fatherhood require many of the same skills: patience, flexibility, and the knowledge of when to reel in and when to let go. Illuminating and heartfelt, Reading the Water is a much-needed positive story about a father raising daughters and a meditation on finding faith in a deep connection with the natural world.

Through it all, CBC Radio 1's BC Almanac has documented BC life in all its various forms. British Columbia Almanac, written and compiled by host Mark Forsythe, provides a fun, informative, and captivating snapshot of the province and its habits. Chapters are devoted to each season of the year in BC. For example, Summer will include barbecue recipes, hidden hiker trails, cougar attack tales, best roadside diners, and favourite campsites. Winter will include recipes for soups and stews, skiing trivia, winter survival stories, and Christmas in BC anecdotes. There will be essays by regular BC Almanac contributors such as gardener Brian Minter, historian Jean Barman, and outdoors expert Jack Christie, all of them accomplished authors in their own right, as well as personal anecdotes and photographs from the program's listeners located in all parts of the province, reporting on life in their neck of the woods. Scattered throughout are various BC trivia and facts, as well as behind-the-scenes tales of the show itself, a fixture on CBC.
