River Town Two Years On The Yangtze:

River Town Peter Hessler, 2002 Records the author's experiences as a Peace Corps English teacher in the small Chinese city of Fuling during which time he witnessed such events as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the construction of the Three Gorges Dam

River Town Peter Hessler, 2001 When Peter Hessler went to China in the late 1990s he expected to spend a couple of peaceful years teaching English in the town of Fuling on the Yangtze River But what he experienced the natural beauty cultural tension and complex process of understanding that takes place when one is thrust into a radically different society surpassed anything he could have imagined Hessler observes firsthand how major events such as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the controversial construction of the Three Gorges Dam have affected even the people of a remote town like Fuling Poignant thoughtful and utterly compelling River Town is an unforgettable portrait of a place caught mid river in time much like China itself a country seeking to understand both what it was and what it will one day become

River Town Peter Hessler, 2006 In the heart of China's Sichuan province tucked away amid the terraced hills of the Yangtze River valley lies the remote town of Fuling Like many other small cities in this vast and ever evolving country Fuling is shifting gears and heading down a new path one of change and vitality tension and reform disruption and growth Its position at the crossroads came into sharp focus when the author arrived as a Peace Corps volunteer marking the first time in more than half a century that the city had an American resident The author taught English and American literature at the local college but it was his students who taught him about the ways of Fuling and about the complex process of understanding that takes place when one is immersed in a radically different society This book is a portrait of a city that much like China itself is seeking to understand both what it was and what it someday will be Back cover

The Colour of the Sky After Rain Tessa Keswick, 2020-01-09 An extraordinary memoir of one woman's experiences in China Tessa Keswick first travelled to China in 1982 and immediately fell in love with its history culture and landscape Over the next thirty years she travelled extensively in China visiting its temples and landmarks the sites of its most famous battles and the birthplaces of its best known poets and philosophers She also witnessed China's transformation as hundreds of millions were lifted out of poverty and the country emerged as an economic superpower in waiting Keswick's observations of life in China are perceptive and full of insight Her narrative is rich in microhistories of people encountered and places visited By presenting a colourfully woven tapestry of contrasting experiences and localities she allows the reader to glimpse the sheer diversity of China and its vast population A multi textured and revealing survey of the world's largest country as seen through one woman's eyes The Colour of the Sky After Rain offers a compelling portrait of China in an age of radical change and charts the key staging posts in its recent remarkable history Tessa Keswick provides joyous insights into her life with husband Sir Henry Keswick Sunday Times Keswick is an engaging lively guide and she is at her best when writing about the Chinese landscape Daily Mail At precisely the time that we need to understand China more than ever along comes a book that is incisive honest witty and beautifully written which explains the Chinese people and society to a Western audience superbly Impossible to categorize

The Colour of the Sky After Rain is part memoir part travelogue part history part thoughtful musing and packed with insights into the Chinese state and soul that forces us to look afresh at the world's thrusting new superpower Professor Andrew Roberts If you want an enthralling read about China and to learn a lot about that extraordinary country at the same time read Tessa Keswick's The Colour of the Sky After Rain I derived so much pleasure and excitement from the story that I hardly noticed all the history I was imbibing The Colour of the Sky After Rain is both serious and seriously entertaining It is strongly recommended Lady Antonia Fraser The Colour of the Sky After Rain made me want at once to leap on to a plane and travel to Zhongdian to Jiayuguan to Suzhou to Xinjiang and on and on I learnt a great deal from this book about the history of China over the millennia and especially over the last fifty years Neil MacGregor Academic Experiences of International Students in Chinese Higher Education Mei Tian, Fred Dervin, Genshu Lu, 2020-02-20 Since China proposed its Belt and Road Initiative in 2013 to boost its influence on international affairs and cultivate international contacts who are friendly toward China the number of foreign students in China has surge exponentially Yet global political changes have added tensions and challenges to the education of international students This book is one of the first works to discuss the educational experiences of international students in China Using survey research and qualitative studies to study participants in degree bearing and language programmes at regular universities and Sino foreign universities located in different parts of the country the book covers a variety of topics across education including international students intercultural experience teacher student classroom interaction learning and teaching Chinese as a foreign language academic adaptation and identity formation in higher educational contexts This book is essential for researchers practitioners and policy makers of international student education in China It can also benefit prospective international students considering pursuing higher education in China Library Lin's Curated Collection of Superlative Nonfiction Linda Maxie, 2022-05-05 Trust a librarian to help you find books you'll want to read Library Lin's Curated Collection of Superlative Nonfiction is a librarian's A list of nonfiction books organized by subject area just like a library Linda Maxie Library Lin combed through 65 best books lists going back a century She reviewed tens of thousands of books sorted them according to the Dewey Decimal Classification system and selected an entire library's worth for you to browse without leaving home Here you'll find Summaries of outstanding titles in every subject Suggestions for locating reading material specific to your needs and interests In this broad survey of all the nonfiction categories you will find titles on everything from the A bomb to Zen Buddhism You might find yourself immersed in whole subject areas that you never thought you'd be interested in The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy Xin Zhang, Xiaobin Jian, 2020-12-30 The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy presents the Third Space as a new frame through which foreign language pedagogy is conceptualized as a pedagogy of negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture The field of Chinese as a foreign language CFL in the past decades has been expanding rapidly at the beginning and intermediate levels yet it is lacking in scholarship on the true advanced level both in theory building and research supported curriculum and material development This book argues that it is time for CFL to go beyond merely satisfying the desire of gazing at the other whether it is curiosity about the other or superiority over the other to focusing on learning to work with the other It reimagines the field as co constructing a transcultural Third Space where learners are becoming experts in negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture It presents a range of research based CFL pedagogical scholarship and practices especially relevant to the advanced level and to the goal of enabling learners to go past fans or critics to become actors players in the game of cross lingual and intercultural cooperation

Writing Abroad Peter Chilson, Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2017-10-13 Tell me all about your trip It s a request that follows travelers as they head out into the world and one of the first things they hear when they return When we leave our homes to explore the wider world we feel compelled to capture the experiences and bring the story home But for those who don t think of themselves as writers putting experiences into words can be more stressful than inspirational Writing Abroad is meant for travelers of all backgrounds and writing levels a student embarking on overseas study a retiree realizing a dream of seeing China a Peace Corps worker in Kenya All can benefit from documenting their adventures whether on paper or online Through practical advice and adaptable exercises this guide will help travelers hone their observational skills conduct research and interviews choose an appropriate literary form and incorporate photos and videos into their writing Writing about travel is more than just safeguarding memories it can transform experiences and tease out new realizations With Writing Abroad travelers will be able to deepen their understanding of other cultures and write about that new awareness in clear and vivid prose

For Tibet, With Love Isabel Losada, 2011-06-06 Sometimes you just have to do something don t you Sometimes an injustice comes along and you think No this cannot be and rather than just turn off the TV you know it s time to act So begins Isabel Losada s extraordinary FOR TIBET WITH LOVE in which she explores whether it s possible for an ordinary person to change the world just a little and if something so serious can be achieved with joy in one s heart From visits to Nepal and Tibet to meetings with the Chinese ambassador and Tibetan awareness raising groups Isabel single handedly hatches a stunning PR coup involving Nelson s Column a 15 metre banner and a base jumping parachutist that captured headlines worldwide And then she meets the Dalai Lama Warm and funny moving and thought provoking the astonishing FOR TIBET WITH LOVE celebrates the fact that we can make a difference
