Damascus Jamal Saeed, 2022-10-04 A lyrical extremely rich narrative of loss memory and trauma STARRED review Kirkus Reviews An extraordinary account of survival in Syria s most notorious military prisons that is written with brutal clarity and yet there is a poetic quality to the telling Frances Itani award winning author of Deafening and Remembering the Bones Jamal Saeed arrived as a refugee in Canada in 2016 In his native Syria as a young man his writing pushed both social and political norms For this reason as well as his opposition to the regimes of the al Assads he was imprisoned on three occasions for a total of 12 years In each instance he was held without formal charge and without judicial process My Road from Damascus not only tells the story of Saeed s severe years in Syria s most notorious military prisons but also his life during the country s dramatic changes Saeed chronicles modern Syria from the 1950s right up to his escape to Canada in 2016 recounting its descent from a country of potential to a pawn of cynical and corrupt powers He paints a picture of village life his youthful love affairs his rebellion as a young Marxist and his evolution into a free thinker living in hiding as a teenager for 30 months while being hunted by the secret police He recalls his brutal prison years his final release and his family s harrowing escape to Canada While many prison memoirs focus on the cruelty of incarceration My Road from Damascus offers a tapestry of Saeed s whole life It looks squarely at brutality but also at beauty and poetry hope and love Culture, Diaspora, and Modernity in Muslim Writing Rehana Ahmed, Peter Morey, Amina Yaqin, 2012 Fiction by writers of Muslim background forms one of the most diverse vibrant and high profile corpora of work being produced today from the trail blazing writing of Salman Rushdie and Hanif Kureishi which challenged political and racial orthodoxies in the 1980s to that of a new generation including Mohsin Hamid Nadeem Aslam and Kamila Shamsie This collection reflects the variety of those fictions Experts in English South Asian and postcolonial literatures address the nature of Muslim identity its response to political realignments since the 1980s its tensions between religious and secular models of citizenship and its manifestation of these tensions as conflict between generations In considering the perceptions of Muslims contributors also explore the roles of immigration class gender and national identity as well as the impact of 9 11 This volume includes essays on contemporary fiction by writers of Muslim origin and non Muslims writing about Muslims It aims to push beyond the habitual populist framing of Muslims as strangers or interlopers whose ways and beliefs are at odds with those of modernity exposing the hide bound conservative assumptions that underpin such perspectives While returning to themes that are of particular significance to diasporic Muslim cultures such as secularism modernity multiculturalism and citizenship the essays reveal that Muslim writing grapples with the same big questions as serve to exercise all writers and intellectuals at the present time How does one reconcile the impulses of the individual with the requirements of community How can one belong in the modern world What is the role of art in making sense of chaotic contemporary experience A Chronological and Geographical Introduction to the Life of Christ Edouard Caspari, 1876 A Chronological and Geographical Introduction to the Life of Christ ...
