Road To Disillusion From Critical Marxism To Post Communism In Eastern Europe:

The Road to Disillusion: From Critical Marxism to Post-communism in Eastern Europe Raymond C. Taras, 2015-02-24 The history of reform movements in postwar Eastern Europe is ultimately ironic inasmuch as the reformers successes and defeats alike served to discredit and demoralize the regimes they sought to redeem The essays in this volume examine the historic and present day role of the internal critics who whatever their intentions used Marxism as critique to demolish Marxism as ideocracy but did not succeed in replacing it Included here are essays by James P Scanlan on the USSR Ferenc Feher on Hungary Leslie Holmes on the German Democratic Republic Raymond Taras on Poland James Satterwhite on Czechoslovakia Vladimir Tismaneanu on Romania Mark Baskin on Bulgaria and Oskar Gruenwald on Yugoslavia In concert the contributors provide a comprehensive intellectual history and a veritable Who's Who of revisionist Marxism in Eastern Europe

The Road to Disillusion Ray Taras, 1992 In an overview and examinations of eight eastern European countries analysts show how reformers within Marxism have succeeded in demolishing both the philosophy and the regimes it served without being able to replace either Paper edition unseen 15 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Sociology and Post-Socialist Transformations in Eastern Europe Borut Rončević, Tamara Besednjak Valič, 2024-11-28 The volume offers a unique and comprehensive reflection on the role of sociology and sociologists in the transformation of post socialist Eastern European societies It provides detailed insight on the status of sociology in Eastern Europe its institutional development specifics of national sociological traditions the controversial and ambiguous relationship with the political system and importantly state of the art knowledge about the role of sociology as a discipline and sociologists as academics educators public intellectuals experts politicians or civil society activists in three decades of transformation The volume follows a cultural political economy approach and provides a series of national case studies that analyse the role of sociology in re imagining Eastern European societies This topical volume is of interest to a wide interdisciplinary readership in the social sciences especially students and researchers working on Eastern Europe and on post socialist societies

Unsettled 1968 in the Troubled Present Aleksandra Konarzewska, Anna Nakai, Michał Przeperski, 2019-10-14 Why does 1968 matter today The authors of this volume believe that it is a crucial point of reference for current developments especially the illiberal turn both in Europe and America If we want to understand it we need to look back into 1968 the year that founded the cultural and political order of today's world The book consists of the following four sections 1968 and transnationality 1968 and the transformation of meanings Artistic representations of 1968 and 1968 and the European contemporaneity This is followed by an afterword from the significant keynote speaker at the conference Unsettled 1968 Origins Myth Impact in June 2018 in Tübingen Germany Irena Grudzińska-Gross herself a Polish 68er reflects upon the conference and leaves remarks on her 50 years of engagement with what happened in 1968

Why Communism Did Not Collapse Martin K. Dimitrov, 2013-07-31 This volume brings together a distinguished group of scholars working to address the puzzling durability of communist autocracies in Eastern Europe and Asia which are the longest lasting type of non democratic regime to emerge after World War I The volume conceptualizes the communist universe as consisting of the ten regimes in Eastern Europe and Mongolia that eventually collapsed in 1989 91 and the five regimes that survived the fall of the Berlin Wall China Vietnam Laos North Korea and Cuba The essays offer a theoretical argument that emphasizes the importance of institutional adaptations as a foundation of communist resilience In particular the contributors focus on four adaptations of the economy of ideology of the mechanisms for inclusion of potential rivals and of the institutions of vertical and horizontal accountability The volume argues that when regimes are no longer able to implement adaptive change contingent leadership choices and contagion dynamics make collapse more likely Revolution and Change in Central and Eastern Europe Minton F.

Goldman,1997-01-15 A comprehensive analysis of the progress and problems of post communist development attending to aspects of transition in the region as a whole and to specific issues in Albania Bulgaria the Czech and Slovak Republics East Germany Hungary Poland Rumania and Yugoslavia Goldman political science Northeastern U diagrams the commonalities of development and the diversity of the various countries rejection of communism setting forth the difficulties in moving from communist monolithic authoritarianism to pluralistic democracy coping with threats to progress and stability and the international implications of these transitions Paper edition 758 5 32 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Castoriadis and Critical Theory Christos Memos,2014-11-18 By exploring the concepts of crisis and critique this study offers a thought provoking re examination of the political and social thought of Cornelius Castoriadis in light of the current world crisis and with regard to his radical critique of both the traditional Left and contemporary capitalist societies

The Devil in History Vladimir Tismaneanu,2012-09-28 The Devil in History is a provocative analysis of the relationship between communism and fascism Reflecting the author s personal experiences within communist totalitarianism this is a book about political passions radicalism utopian ideals and their catastrophic consequences in the twentieth century s experiments in social engineering Vladimir Tismaneanu brilliantly compares communism and fascism as competing sometimes overlapping and occasionally strikingly similar systems of political totalitarianism He examines the inherent ideological appeal of these radical revolutionary political movements the visions of salvation and revolution they pursued the value and types of charisma of leaders within these political movements the place of violence within these systems and their legacies in contemporary politics The author discusses thinkers who have shaped contemporary understanding of totalitarian movements people such as Hannah Arendt Raymond Aron Isaiah Berlin Albert Camus Francois Furet Tony Judt Ian Kershaw Leszek Kolakowski Richard Pipes and Robert C Tucker As much a theoretical analysis of the practical philosophies of Marxism Leninism and Fascism as it is a political biography of particular figures this book deals with the incarnation of diabolically nihilistic principles of human subjugation and conditioning in the name of presumably pure and purifying goals Ultimately the author claims that no ideological commitment no matter how absorbing should ever prevail over the sanctity of human life He comes to the conclusion that no party movement or leader holds the right to dictate to the followers to renounce their critical faculties and to embrace a pseudo miraculous a mystically self centered delusional vision of mandatory happiness

The Long 1968 in Hungary and Romania Adrian-George Matus,2023-12-31 This book advances a local regional and comparative analysis of the history of the sixty eighters from Hungary and Romania between 1956 and 1975 The aim of the book is to answer to the following research question to what extent does the long 1968 mark and change protest history Another axis of my research equally important is how can one genuinely distinguish between a protest an opposition and a pastime Where did radicalisation truly begin and when was it solely an auto perception as a dissident In other words how can one truly distinguish between a leisure activity like listening to Radio Free Europe or exploring an altered state of consciousness and an explicit political activity like organising a protest or writing subversive texts Among other aims the books s scope is to understand where a leisure activity ends and a protest starts By practicing counterculture did the youth wish to contest the system or simply express themselves As method oral history plays a crucial part On a superficial level the interviews helped to fill in the archival gap However oral testimonies proved to reveal much more than essential factual information Oral history clarified how political and social events influenced the subjects memory formation

A History of Eastern Europe Robert Bideleux,Ian Jeffries,2006-04-10 A History of Eastern Europe Crisis and Change is a wide ranging single volume history of the lands between the lands which have lain between Germany Italy and the Tsarist and Soviet empires Bideleux and Jeffries examine the problems that have bedevilled this troubled region during its imperial past the interwar period under fascism under communism and since 1989 While mainly focusing on the modern era and on the effects of ethnic nationalism fascism and communism the book also offers original striking and revisionist coverage of ancient and medieval times the Hussite Revolution the Renaissance the Reformation and the Counter Reformation the legacies of Byzantium the Ottoman Empire and the Hapsburg Empire the rise and decline of the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the impact of the region s powerful Russian and Germanic neighbours rival concepts of Central and Eastern Europe the 1920s land reforms and the 1930s Depression Providing a thematic historical survey and analysis of the formative processes of change which have played the paramount roles in shaping the development of the region A History of Eastern Europe itself will play a paramount role in the studies of European historians

The End of Communist Power Leslie Holmes,1993 Account of the collapse of the communist ruled states Analyses the nature of the legitimization crisis that developed following the failure of the economic reforms of the 1960s and 1970s and considers the role of official corruption and anti corruption campaigns Includes a bibliography and an index The author is Professor of Political Science at the University of Melbourne Historical Memory of Central and East European Communism Agnieszka Mrozik,Stanislav Holubec,2018-03-19 Every political movement creates its own historical memory The communist movement though originally oriented towards the future was no exception The theory of human history constitutes a substantial part of Karl Marx s and Friedrich Engels s writings and the movement inspired by them very soon developed its own strong historical identity combining the Marxist theory of history with the movement s victorious milestones such as the October Revolution and later the Great Patriotic War which served as communist legitimization myths throughout almost the entire twentieth century During the Stalinist period however the movement s history became strongly reinterpreted to suit Joseph Stalin s political goals After 1956 this reinterpretation lost most of its legitimating power and instead began to be a burden The unwanted memory of Stalinism and subsequent examples of violence the Gulag Katy the 1956 Budapest uprising and the 1968 Prague Spring contributed to the crisis of Eastern European state socialism in the late 1980s and led to attempts at reformulating or even rejecting communist self identity This book s first section analyzes the post 1989 memory of communism and state socialism and the self identity of the Eastern and Western European left The second section examines the state socialist and post socialist memorial landscapes in the former German Democratic Republic Czechoslovakia Czech Republic Poland Lithuania Ukraine and Russia The final section concentrates on the narratives the movement established when in power about its own past with the examples of the Soviet Union Poland Romania and Czechoslovakia (In)digestion in Literature and Film Serena J. Rivera,Niki Kiviat,2020-04-21 In digestion in Literature and Film A Transcultural Approach is a collection of essays spanning diverse geographic areas such as Brazil Eastern Europe France Ireland Italy Japan Mexico South Korea Taiwan and the United States Despite this geographic variance they all question disordered eating practices represented in literary and filmic works The collection ultimately redefines disorder removing the pathology and stigma assigned to acts of non normative eating In so doing the essays deem taboo practices of food consumption rejection and avoidance as expressions of resistance and defiance in the face of restrictive sociocultural political and economic normativities As a result disorder no longer equates to out of order implying a sense of brokenness but is instead envisioned as an act against the dominant of order of operations The collection therefore shifts critical focus from the eater as the embodiment of disorder to the problematic norms that defines behaviors as such The Fall Steven Saxonberg,2017-07-05 With a foreword by Seymour Lipset Hoover Institution and George Mason University USAThe Fall examines one of the twentieth century s great historical puzzles why did the communist led regimes in Eastern Europe collapse so quickly and why was the process of collapse so different from country to country This major study explains why the impetus for change in Poland and Hungary came from the regimes themselves while in Czechoslovakia and East Germany it was mass movements which led to the downfall of the regimes Stalinism for All Seasons Vladimir Tismaneanu,2003-10-15 This history of the Romanian Communist Party RCP traces its origins as a tiny clandestine revolutionary organization in the 1920s to its years in national power from 1944 to 1989 and to the post 1989 metamorphoses     Agnes Heller Simon Tormey,2001 This thorough examination of Agnes Heller s political thought covers a range of subjects from Marxian anthropology through aesthetics the philosophy of history ethical socialism postmodernism and the political forms of the modern state Simon Tormey treats Heller s work historically and thematically placing it in a postmodern 21st century context     Liberalization Challenges in Hungary U. Korkut,2012-06-18 In Hungary as in all of new Europe liberalization is troubled Using Hungary as an in depth case study Korkut demonstrates that in squandering popular goodwill credibility and favorable circumstances after 1989 liberal politicians have found themselves vulnerable to conservative populist politics and the global economic crisis
