Roadkill The Beginning:

Roadkill Anthony Masters,1995 Massively powerful multinationals pacify and control the pampered few with brain implants and touch screen instant gratification television The rest mutants renegades and worse prowl the sickly polluted streets Roadkill on the Highway to Heaven Chonda Pierce,2010-05-11 When life s left you flatter than a steamrolled possum turn here for a little hope humor honesty and encouragement from the Bible It s the best of Chonda Pierce s celebrated Roadkill Reports to her fans plus lots of new material and it s perfect for reinflating your outlook anytime anywhere Postcard from Chonda I tell jokes for a living It s adventurous But to do that I have to fly for hours I have to take a bus for days I have to walk up steep stairs in skinny heels In short I sometimes take a beating like roadkill on a country highway Life really is one long journey to heaven My travel journal is filled with what I ve learned along the way the hurts the laughter the victories the failings the crowds and the loneliness and mostly the times I ve seen God at work Chonda

Shatosa , Road Kill Dave Ebert,2015-04-15 Road Kill Quest for Freedom bores a window back through time illuminating an era gone by The story focuses on a place and the events of a single Motorcycle Club during a period many call The Golden Age of Motorcycle Clubs The Vietnam War was not the only war fought by these young men Road Kill fought another war one that germinated deep inside his soul This war was spawned by a quest he never fulfills A Quest for Freedom and in the end as this Club looks back many older members tell their younger Brothers Its easy to see this was the most phenomenal period in our Clubs long history If You Meet the Buddha on the Road, Kill Him Sheldon known to friends as Road Kill O Connor is a retired professor of archaeology and anthropology from Colorado State University During his career he became interested in animal skeletal structure and his penchant for collecting road killed specimens in order to practice the skill of taxidermy earned him his nickname While watching the news one morning he hears a report of a skull found along Interstate 90 not far from his home There is no evidence of a body only the skull The only things authorities can tell is that the skull is likely that of an African American woman in her twenties and it has been there for many years Recalling a cold case in his vast collection of notebooks O Connor begins his search for information about this victim An expert witness for law enforcement throughout his career O Connor begins to piece together other missing persons cases and a pattern emerges He concludes a serial killer has been at work for four decades It s time this murderer was brought to justice and Road Kill O Connor is just the man to get the job done Road Kill Craig Hodge,2011

It has been the best part of 12 years since I investigated a fatal accident and dealt with grieving relatives It has taken me 12 years to have the strength to write about it to put pen to paper and record what has caused me so much grief and anguish So writes Craig Hodge one of Victoria Police s leading investigators of fatal road accidents A police officer for 20 years eight of which he spent with the Accident Investigation Section now the Major Collision Investigation Unit Hodge attended the horrific scenes of more than 350 accidents that resulted in deaths and serious injuries In ROAD KILL Hodge recounts harrowing investigations and details the processes involved in finding out the causes of such tragedies which often led to prosecutions His story is a cautionary tale in which responsible driving messages loom large ROAD KILL also provides a poignant account of the emotional and psychological impact such carnage has on all involved not least of all on investigators like Hodge who struggled at times to find a balance between being sensitive to victims and their families while also trying to remain emotionally detached for his own sanity and wellbeing Road Kill and other short stories Jeffrey C. Taylor,2006-08-14 A Vampire borne of technology gone insane a village protecting a dreadful secret a strange transformation and a tale of undead revenge All lie herein nestling between ancient horrors and terrible truths Handbook of Road Ecology Rodney van der Ree,Daniel J. Smith,Clara Grilo,2015-06-15 Winner of the IENE Project Award 2016 This authoritative volume brings together some of the world s leading researchers academics practitioners and transportation agency personnel to present the current status of the ecological sustainability of the linear infrastructure primarily road rail and utility easements that dissect and fragment landscapes globally It outlines the potential impacts demonstrates how this infrastructure is being improved and how broad ecological principles are applied to mitigate the impact of road networks on wildlife Research and monitoring is an important aspect of road ecology encompassing all phases of a transportation project This book covers research and monitoring to span the entire project continuum starting with planning and design through construction and into maintenance and management It focuses on impacts and solutions for species groups and specific regions with particular emphasis on the unique challenges facing Asia South America and Africa Other key features

Contributions from authors originating from over 25 countries including from all continents Each chapter summarizes important lessons and includes lists of further reading and thoroughly up to date references Highlights principles that address key points relevant to all phases in all road projects Explains best practices based on a number of successful international case studies Chapters are stand alone but they also build upon and complement each other extensive cross referencing directs the reader to relevant material elsewhere in the book Handbook of Road Ecology offers a comprehensive summary of approximately 30 years of global efforts to quantify the impacts of roads and traffic and implement effective mitigation As such it is essential reading for those involved in the planning design assessment and construction of new roads the management and maintenance of existing roads and the modifying or retrofitting of existing roads and problem locations This handbook is an accessible resource for both developed and developing countries including government transportation agencies Government environmental conservation agencies NGOs and road funding and donor organisations Road Kill on Main Street Ronal S. Burris, Jr.,2001-05 A young handsome handyman is found dead Clues and hunches lead Detective Captain Sam Arbuckle from the gigolo s death to a hit and run accident he investigated 25 years before or was it an accident A second look into the files sends Arbuckle from the bleak North Side of Fort Worth to Viet Nam to the outskirts of an eastern Oklahoma chop shop where a quarter century of revenge schemes and greed culminate A colorful cast of bored rich housewives penny anti thieves drug dealers and a duo of young ambitious detectives challenge Arbuckle into solving one last case before retirement His plan was retire quietly but an unmatched fingerprint from his first case tweaks Arbuckle s pride in his lifelong career record No big deal Just one more case to close Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C. Desmond,2016-08-18 The number of ways in which humans interact with animals is almost incalculable From beloved household pets to the steak on our dinner tables the fur in our closets to the Babar books on our shelves taxidermy exhibits to local zoos humans have complex deep and dependent relationships with the animals in our ecosystems In Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C Desmond puts those human animal relationships under a multidisciplinary lens focusing on the less obvious and revealing the individualities and subjectivities of the real animals in our everyday lives Desmond a pioneer in the field of animal studies builds the book on a number of case studies She conducts research on site at major museums taxidermy conventions pet cemeteries and even at a professional conference for writers of obituaries She goes behind the scenes at zoos wildlife clinics and meetings of pet cemetery professionals We journey with her as she meets Kanzi the bonobo artist and a host of other animal artists all of whom are preparing their artwork for auction Throughout Desmond moves from a consideration of the visual display of unindividuated animals to mourning for known animals and finally to the marketing of artwork by individual animals The first book in the new Animal Lives series Displaying Death and Animating Life is a landmark study bridging disciplines and reaching across divisions from the humanities and social sciences to chart new territories of investigation The Company of Wolves Peter Steinhart,1995 A fascinating look at the wolf as seen through the eyes of biologists wildlife managers ranchers trappers wolf lovers and haters This book reveals why the wolf has taken center stage in the debate over the preservation and the use of the wilderness Steinhart eloquently persuades us why our continued coexistence matters Emergency Medical Services ,1994
