Bulletin, 1905 ROB Amsterdam, 1985 Made in the Low Countries Lutgard Mutsaers, Gert Keunen, 2017-10-12

Made in the Low Countries Studies in Popular Music serves as a comprehensive and thorough introduction to the history sociology and musicology of twentieth and twenty first century popular music of the Dutch speaking region comprising the Netherlands and Flanders as a region of federal Belgium The volume consists of essays by leading scholars and publicists in this field and covers the major issues genres and contexts of popular music Each essay provides adequate context so readers understand why the issue or genre under discussion is of lasting significance to this transnational region The book first presents a general description of the history and background of popular music made in the region followed by essays that are organized into four thematic sections I Framing and Facilitating II Creation and Curation III Close Encounters IV Changes and Choices 20 Years 010 Hans Oldewarris, Peter de Winter, 2003 Published for 010 Publisher s twentieth anniversary in 2003 this volume celebrates the publishing vision of Hans Oldewarris and Peter de Winter 010 s founders Besides hundreds of monographs by and about Dutch architects 010 has published books on architecture interior design photography industrial design graphic design and the visual arts Exhaustively annotated and illustrated 20 Years 010 provides not only the technical details of each book size format binding but also the authors editors photographers graphic designers and printers A brief description of the contents rounds off each entry Comprehensive indexes give insight into who contributed to which book and in what way In their introductory essay Ed Taverne and Cor Wagenaar give a picture of the practice of architectural publishing in the Netherlands during those years Cyclopedia of Painters and Paintings John Denison Champlin, Charles Callahan Perkins, 1905 Power and Urban Space in Pre-Modern Holland Clé Lesger, 2024-02-22 Cities and urban societies have many faces In this study the pre modern cities of Holland are presented as arenas where power relations between social classes are expressed in a more or less permanent appropriation of physical space and through discursive strategies The continuity of the power relations in the cities of Holland spanning centuries makes it urgent to look not only at the assumption of urban space as an expression of power relations within society but also at the contribution of this appropriation to the acceptance and continuity of the existing power relations in pre modern Holland Within this broad area extensive attention is paid to the very prominent and enduring appropriation of urban space in the field of housing the less permanent but violent appropriation of urban space during the public execution of scaffold punishments the maintenance of public order by civic militias and appropriation during riots and revolts In addition city descriptions maps and pictures of the pre modern cities of Holland are scrutinised for what they can reveal about the appropriation of urban spaces These themes each have an extensive historiography but they have never been brought together in an interpretative framework that fits in with Pierre Bourdieu s model of society and the work of especially John Allen on power until now Dutch Interior William Jay Smith, James Holmes, 1984-10-04 Dutch Interior The Royal Kalendar and Court and City Register for England,
