Jailtacht Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost, 2012-05-15 This book tells the dramatic and often surprising story of the learning of the Irish language by Irish Republican prisoners held in the infamous H block cells during the bloody political conflict in Northern Ireland Using research methods and techniques the author closely analyses the emergence of the Irish language amongst republican prisoners and ex prisoners in Northern Ireland from the 1970s up until the present This pioneering study shows how the language was used exclusively in parts of the prison despite the efforts of the prison authorities to suppress the language and the dramatic impact this had on Irish society Drawing on interviews with the prisoners and various other materials Mac Giolla Chríost shows how these developments gave rise to the popular coinage of the term Jailtacht a deformation of Gaeltacht the official Irish speaking districts of the Republic of Ireland to describe this unique linguistic phenomenon Report Fresno (Calif.) Board of Education, 1910 Rethinking the Irish Diaspora Johanne Devlin Trew, Michael Pierse, 2018-03-13 This book provides scholarly perspectives on a range of timely concerns in Irish diaspora studies It offers a focal point for fresh interchanges and theoretical insights on questions of identity Irishness historiography and the academy's role in all of these In doing so it chimes with the significant public debates on Irish and Irish emigrant identities that have emerged from Ireland's The Gathering initiative 2013 and that continue to reverberate throughout the Decade of Centenaries 2012-2023 in Ireland North and South In ten chapters of new research on key areas of concern in this field the book sustains a conversation centred on three core questions what is diaspora in the Irish context and who does it include exclude What is the view of Ireland and Northern Ireland from the diaspora How can new perspectives in the academy engage with a more rigorous and probing theorisation of these concerns This thought provoking work will appeal to students and scholars of history geography literature sociology tourism studies and Irish studies Public Policy and the Arts: A Comparative Study of Great Britain and Ireland Ruth-Balandina M. Quinn, 2018-08-20 First published in 1998 this volume considers the subject of arts policy as a subject of public policy making proper in UK and Ireland with a particular focus on theatre as a profession rather than a mere hobby Previous studies have placed the burden of policy improvements on the arts themselves looking at what the arts can do to be worthy of government funding and favourable policy and have seen government actions as if they have a uniform effect This study takes the arts out of the abstract and discusses specific ways that diverse activities with even more diverse needs can be best approached with government policy assessing the strengths and weaknesses of government initiatives It is aimed at both political scientists and anyone with an interest in arts and cultural policy World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Peter Nagy, Phillippe Rouyer, Don Rubin, 2013-09-13 This new paperback edition of the The World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Europe covers theatre since World War II in forty seven European nations including the nations which re emerged following the break up of the former USSR Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia Each national article is divided into twelve sections History Structure of the National Theatre Community Artistic profile Music Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Puppet Theatre Design Theatre Space and Architecture Training Criticism Scholarship and Publishing and Further Reading allowing the reader to use the book as a source for both area and subject studies A new preface and further reading sections by the Series Editor brings the Encyclopedia bang up to date making it invaluable to anyone interested in European theatre as well as students and scholars of performance studies history anthropology and cultural studies Dancing at the Crossroads Helena Wulff, 2008-10 Dancing at the crossroads used to be an opportunity for young people to meet and enjoy themselves on mild summer evenings in the Irish countryside until this practice was banned by the Public Dance Halls Act of 1935 Now a key metaphor in Irish cultural and political life dancing at the crossroads also crystallizes the argument of this book Irish dance from Riverdance the commercial show to competitive dancing and dance theatre conveys that Ireland is in a crossroads situation Irish dance with a firm base in a distinctly Irish tradition is becoming a permanent part of European modernity While this book highlights the captivating tensions and ties surrounding debates on Irish dance it also aims to extend broader understandings of place mobility and rooted cosmopolitanism Consuming Joyce John McCourt, 2022-01-13 This book was crying out to be written The Irish Times Scandalously readable Literary Review James Joyce's relationship with his homeland was a complicated and often vexed one The publication of his masterwork Ulysses referred to by The Quarterly Review as an Odyssey of the sewer in 1922 was initially met with indifference and hostility within Ireland This book tells the full story of the reception of Joyce and his best known book in the country of his birth for the first time a reception that evolved over the next hundred years elevating Joyce from a writer reviled to one revered Part reception study part social history this book uses the changing interpretations of Ulysses to explore the concurrent religious social and political changes sweeping Ireland

From initially being a threat to the status quo Ulysses became a way to market Ireland abroad and a manifesto for a better more modern open and tolerant multi ethnic country The Deployment of Art Clare Carolin, 2025-03-14 This book explores the Artistic Records Committee ARC of the Imperial War Museum IWM as a bureaucratic mechanism that enabled the deployment of art as an instrument of war The ARC was established in 1972 to commission artistic records of activities involving the British Armed Forces BAF deployed in the North of Ireland as part of Operation Banner Through a close reading of artworks archival research and interviews with artists former IWM staff and a former British Army psychological operations PSYOPs expert this book shows that the ARC was implicated in the propaganda war that the British Government waged to counteract negative public perceptions of British military presence and activity in the North of Ireland after Bloody Sunday and later during Britain's 1982 campaign to recapture the Falklands Malvinas from Argentina Operation Corporate The two case studies are painter Ken Howard's ARC commissions to record Operation Banner in 1973 and 1978 and illustrator Linda Kitson's ARC commission to record the Falklands Campaign in 1982 At a time when emergent conceptual and non object based art practices were increasingly concerned with exposure concealment and photographic evidence the book demonstrates the potential operational significance of creating pictorial records and utilising art as a tool of warfare This volume will be of interest to researchers and scholars of art history museum studies art and politics and military and intelligence studies as well as those studying the recent history of the North of Ireland and the Falklands Malvinas war
