Haboo Hilbert, Vi, 1985 The stories and legends of the Lushootseed speaking people of Puget Sound were an important part of the oral tradition by which beliefs values and customs were handed from one generation to another Vi Hilbert a Skagit Indian grew up at a time when many of the old social patterns survived and when everyone still spoke the ancestral language As an adult when she realized that native language and culture were being forgotten she began to work with linguists and anthropologists in recording and translating as much of the Lushootseed oral tradition as possible Haboo is her collection of thirty three stories Most of the stories in the book take place in the Myth Age before the world was transformed Animals plants trees and even rocks had human attributes as well as the characteristics we know today Characters included Wolf Salmon and Changer who made things the way they are now Especially prominent are Mink Raven and Coyote three tricksters who are usually caught in their duplicity but who can occasionally rise to heroic deeds Other worlds exist the sky world the Salmon People s world and it is possible to walk from one to another Many of the stories are light humorous and earthy reflecting the foibles of human nature While a serious moral is usually implied instruction is achieved by humorously detailing the unfortunate even disastrous consequences of breaking taboos In his Introduction Thom Hess professor of linguistics at the University of Victoria places the stories in the context of the Lushootseed world view Vi Hilbert in her Preface describes the storytellers many of them relatives and older friends with special knowledge of the old ways The vivid and humorous stories in Haboo will be of interest to linguists anthropologists and folklorists as well as to future generations of Lushootseed people and all others concerned with native languages and cultures

Unpacking Culture Ruth B. Phillips,Christopher B. Steiner,1999-01-30 An outstanding set of studies that work well with each other to produce truly substantial and rich insights into the making and consuming of art in the colonial and post colonial world Susan S Bean Curator Peabody Essex Museum      Yakuglas' Legacy Ronald W. Hawker, 2017-01-06 Charlie James 1867 1937 was a premier carver and painter from the Kwakwaka wakw First Nation of British Columbia Also known by his ceremonial name Yakuglas he was a prolific artist and activist during a period of severe oppression for First Nations people in Canada Yakuglas Legacy examines the life of Charlie James During the early part of his career James created works primarily for ritual use within Kwakwaka wakw society However in the 1920s his art found a broader audience as he produced more miniatures and paintings Through a balanced reading of the historical period and James artistic production Ronald W Hawker argues that James shift to contemporary art forms allowed the artist to make a critical statement about the vitality of Kwakwaka wakw culture Yakuglas Legacy aided by the inclusion of 123 colour illustrations is at once a beautiful and poignant book about the impact of the Canadian project on Aboriginal people and their artistic response      Swept Under the Rug Kathy M'Closkey, 2002 Debunks the romanticist stereotyping of Navajo weavers and Reservation traders and situates weavers within the economic history of the southwest      Tales of Ghosts Ronald W. Hawker, 2007-10-01 The years between 1922 and 1961 often referred to as the Dark Ages of Northwest Coast art have largely been ignored by art historians and dismissed as a period of artistic decline Tales of Ghosts compellingly reclaims this era arguing that it was instead a critical period during which the art played an important role in public discourses on the status of First Nations people in Canadian society Those with an interest in First Nations and Canadian history and art history anthropology museology and post colonial studies will be delighted by the publication of this major contribution to their fields      The Most Striking of Objects Andrew Patrick, 2002      A Modern Life Alan C. Elder, Vancouver Art Gallery, 2004 In 1949 the forest magnate H R MacMillan opened an exhibition at the Vancouver Art Gallery entitled Design for Living a show which brought together design and artistic communities to create four imaginary households for postwar Vancouverites It also heralded an unprecedented level of cooperation between the province s industry and its artists and craftspeople a relationship that seemed to hold great promise for the development of art furniture and craft in BC The celebration of the cooperative spirit between architects artists and designers between potters weavers and gardeners is central to A Modern Life which examines the coming together of what were often very separate disciplines in post World War II British Columbia as well as the trend setting design and use of materials that developed in the province and the impact these had on the more traditional art community A Modern Life demonstrates that the ideas of the artistic and design community as a whole during this vibrant period an era of optimism and promise for the future in a province that had reason to believe passionately in what was to come have a continued relevance and importance for our understanding of the history of this community and the relationship of the built environment to the extraordinary landscape of BC With essays by Rachel Chinnery Scott Watson Alan Elder Allan Collier and Sherry McKay Includes 160 illustrations including 60 in full colour A copublication with the Vancouver Art Gallery Designers and artists include Alice Bradley Stanley Clarke Reginald Dixon Zoltan Kiss Sasha Makokin volume s range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fasination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expandedimmeasurably since the time that one mnd could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada s finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada
