

STARS

How countlessly they congregate
O'er our tumultuous snow,
Which flows in shapes as tall as trees
When wintry winds do blow!—

As if with keenness for our fate,
Our faltering few steps on
To white rest, and a place of rest
Invisible at dawn—

And yet with neither love nor hate,
Those stars like some snow-white
Minerva's snow-white marble eyes
Without the gift of sight.

Zak provides groundbreaking analysis of well over one hundred of Frost's lyrics considering each poem as an interrelated portion of the poet's overarching constellation of intention Beyond biography this book offers extended close readings of Frost's oeuvre building its case incrementally from deftly examined particulars Zak discusses how the pastoral mode Frost adopts is no depleted homespun idiom retreating from modernism's complexities but a self-conscious determination to assume the prophetic mantle from his predecessors Shakespeare Milton Wordsworth Emerson and Thoreau Frost's version of pastoral represents no escape from life's stresses but the most constructive and life-sustaining means to address life's struggles head-on in both sense of that last phrase This book makes a case for Frost as America's preeminent philosophical poet The unfortunate effect of Frost's early
