Robert Polidori's Metropolis:

Robert Polidori's Metropolis Robert Polidori, Martin C. Pedersen, Criswell Lappin, 2005 This new monograph combines the eye of a celebrated photographer with the distinctive voice of an artist and adventurer Robert Polidori's Metropolis Robert Polidori, Martin C. Pedersen, Criswell Lappin, 2004 Robert Polidori is not only one of the world's preeminent architecture photographers but he is also a master of urban portraiture Polidori has made haunting studies of bombed out buildings in Beirut decaying New York tenements the Palais de Versailles in dusty disarray Brasilia's paean to spare 1950s modernism and most recently the abandoned contaminated cities of Chernobyl and Pripjat Taken together they add to his ongoing project the interpretation of the interrupted urban landscape This new book combines the eye of a celebrated photographer with the distinctive voice of an artist and adventurer Each image is accompanied by a first person account based on interviews conducted by Martin C Pedersen executive editor of Metropolis magazine Polidori tells behind the scenes stories about the making of his photographs and discusses his approach to shooting a variety of locations and structures taking us to such places as Shanghai Rio de Janeiro Las Vegas and Chandigarh BOOK JACKET Robert Polidori Robert Polidori, 2005 A wide ranging collection of images by renowned photographer Robert Polidori is showcased to great effect in this Stern Portfolio Haunting cityscapes of Shanghai and Brasilia are included along with photographs that reveal the social life beneath the patina of Havana's old quarter and imbue the city with its distinctive identity Also included are Polidori's disturbing yet stunning pictures from the abandoned region around Chernobyl 15 years after the nuclear plant was destroyed there By contrast the chapter on Versailles highlights the restoration of faded aristocratic elegance On the surface this Canadian born New York based photographer's subjects are buildings but his real interest is habitat He focuses his camera on the remnants and traces of the living he finds left in backrooms in solitary corridors and worn on naked facades to set up surprising contrasts and unique perspectives In doing so he succeeds in capturing the true essence of a place and in his masterful compositions the inner lives of people and their memories spring to life and unfold before our eyes ILLUSTRATIONS 46 photos Metropolis, 2006-04 Dwell, 2005-03 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Through Post-Atomic Eyes Claudette Lauzon, John O'Brian, 2022-03-30 What does it mean to live in a post atomic world Photography and contemporary art offer a provocative lens through which to comprehend the by products of the atomic age from weapons proliferation nuclear disaster and aerial surveillance to toxic waste disposal and climate change Confronting cultural fallout from the dawn of the nuclear age Through Post Atomic Eyes addresses the myriad iterations of nuclear threat and their visual legacy in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Whether in the iconic black and white photograph of a mushroom cloud rising over

Nagasaki in 1945 or in the steady stream of real time video documenting the 2011 meltdown at the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant atomic culture and our understanding of it is inextricably constructed by the visual This book takes the image as its starting point to address the visual inheritance of atomic anxieties the intersection of photography nuclear industries and military technocultures and the complex temporality of nuclear technologies Contemporary artists contribute lens based works that explore the consequences of the nuclear and its afterlives in the Anthropocene Revealing through both art and prose startling new connections between the ongoing threat of nuclear catastrophe and current global crises Through Post Atomic Eyes is a richly illustrated examination of how photography shapes and is shaped by nuclear culture

Cities and Photography Jane Tormey, 2013 Cities and Photography discusses the relationship between people and the city visualized in photographs It explores how photographs display attitudes agency and vision in the way a city is documented and imagined It provides a visually focused examination of the city and urbanism for a range of different disciplines across the social sciences and humanities photography and fine art This book offers different perspectives from which to view social political and cultural ideas about the city It provides introductions to the theories useful to photographers addressing issues relating to urbanism and to key photographic themes that inform cultural issues central to a discussion of urbanism e g the street the everyday social conditions A series of case studies featuring international and contemporary photographic projects provides a means with which to examine a range of issues for example regeneration and displacement power and the institution visions of modernity and post modernity psycho geographical space Cities and Photography interprets the city as a space that we inhabit on different conceptual and physical levels and gives emphasis to how people operate within relate to and activate the city via construction habitation and disruption

Dwell, 2005-03 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines The Architect's Newspaper, 2006

Art, Space, Ecology Grande John K. Grande, 2019-10-15 In Art Space Ecology internationally renowned curator and critic John K Grande interviews twenty major contemporary artists whose works engage with the natural environment Whether their medium is sculpture nature interventions performance body art or installation these discussions complemented by eighty stunning photographs reveal the artists diverse backgrounds and methods expressions and realizations Ultimately the natural world serves as a canvas to explore the intersections of art space and the environment thereby raising questions about our relationship with landscape itself The essence of the art form is a dynamic interactivity and the dialogues between Grande and the artists mirror the encounter of object and environment artist and audience society and nature This work is rounded out with an engaging introduction by writer and curator Edward Lucie Smith who sets the stage for some of the most insightful and compelling discussions on art to be found     The Publishers Weekly ,2008     Dwell ,2005     American Photo ,2005     Romantic Metropolis James Chandler,Kevin Gilmartin,2005-10-13 This 2005 collection of essays challenges the traditional conception that British Romanticism was rooted in nature and rural life by showing that much of what was new about Romanticism was born in the city The essays examine the works and events of the Romantic period from the point of view of the urban world where rapid developments in population industry communication trade and technology set the stage and the tone for many of the great achievements in literature and culture The great metropolis appears as both fact and figure London is its paradigm but the metropolitan perspective is also borrowed and projected elsewhere In this volume some of the most exciting critics of Romanticism explore diverse cultural productions from poems and paintings to exhibition sites panoramas and political organizations to do long overdue justice to the place of the city both as topic and as location in British Romanticism     Cite ,2005     The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,2008-04     Aperture ,2005     The Architects' Journal ,2005
