Sow Your Fallow Ground Charles Simms, 2012 Sow Your Fallow Ground begins the discussion of how you choose what action to take for social justice You must be the judge of why to take action but the reasons to do so are fully explained in the Bible The reason we have the power to choose is our ability to imagine the future effects of immediate choices still we often neglect that God given ability Sow Your Fallow Ground is about communication in light of the science of human action the communication that separates humankind from lesser life forms These concepts merge easily with the authentic Bible in spite of the belief by many that the Bible and natural science are mutually exclusive The science of praxeology which is the common name for human action teaches us how we make hundreds of choices every day How we make those choices is a value free science still without some kind of rudder compass or guiding star we drift into every kind of faulty behavior from unhealthy addictions to economic booms busts and wars There is a very important connection between the infallible Bible human action science neither humanism nor psychology and economics as a single subject Like the biblical Trinity or a three legged stool they are different aspects of the same thing the choices we make A Mine of Her Own Sally Zanjani, 2000-09-01 prospectors for the first time Sally Zanjani depicts more than one hundred women prospectors in often grueling financially unrewarding and utterly lonely efforts to strike it rich from the desert Southwest to the frozen rocks of Alaska and the Yukon She tells their stories with warmth and skill and in bringing them to life forever changes our mental picture of the women who helped shape the modern West Sourdoughs, Claim Jumpers & Dry Gulchers Matthew P. Mayo, 2012-06-05 Sourdoughs Claim Jumpers Dry Gulchers Fifty of the Grittiest Moments in the History of Frontier Prospecting offers 50 tales of hard bitten sourdoughs petty bandits outright outlaws guilt free gunmen and murderous money grubbers as they scrabbled to gain the lands foodstuffs and fortunes of wide eyed greenhorns gullible and trusting tenderfoots and slow on the draw gold panners Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo, 1984-01-01 Here is a list of three dozen of the top literary locales in the country The selection of sites is necessarily subjective yet it attempts to represent geographical historical social and cultural concerns as well as strictly literary interests Had this list been prepared by the editors of Michelin Guide they would have added asterisks or stars to the entries Interesting Worth a detour Worth a journey It is the opinion of the author of Canadian Literary Landmarks that all thirty six sites are Worth a journey It is recognized that the average person is unlikely to visit No 1 not to mention No 36 but as these sites happen to be the first and last entries in the book they mark a convenient and symbolic beginning and ending No 1 being L Anse aux Meadows Epaves Bay Nfld and No 36 being the North Pole NWT The Independent, 1917 Poetry Kaleidoscope Nicolae Sfetcu, 2014-05-12 Introduction in poetry nature of poetry tools history terms periods styles and movements technical means tropes measures of verse verse forms national poetry Poetry ancient Greek poieo I create is traditionally a written art form although there is also an ancient and modern poetry which relies mainly upon oral or pictorial representations in which human language is used for its aesthetic qualities in addition to or instead of its notional and semantic content The increased emphasis on the aesthetics of language and the deliberate use of features such as repetition meter and rhyme are what are commonly used to distinguish poetry from prose but debates over such distinctions still persist while the issue is confounded by such forms as prose poetry and poetic prose Some modernists such as the Surrealists approach this problem of definition by defining poetry not as a literary genre within a set of genres but as the very manifestation of human imagination the substance which all creative acts derive from
