Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Daydream Houses of Los Angeles Charles Jencks,1978 Study and Investigation of Housing United States. Congress. Joint Committee on Housing,1948 California Modern Neil Jackson,2002 In the 1950s a series of dramatic open and elegant homes made him a media star and interest in the work of his atelier has only increased over time

Housing and Urban Development Legislation--1971 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking and Currency. Subcommittee on Housing,1971 Swatt | Miers The Images Publishing Group,Swatt | Miers Architects,2017-03-01 This new monograph of the work of Bay Area based internationally acclaimed Swatt Miers Architects features 30 exciting new projects including 20 new homes covering the prolific decade between 2006 and 2016 This 10 year period has seen the work of Swatt Miers expand into different regions of California including the Central Valley the Northern California wine country and Los Angeles different states including Hawaii and Colorado and other regions of the world including Canada India and Spain Designed from the inside out the constant threads that pervade the work include strong relationships of architecture to land open planning for informal living and dissolving the boundary between inside and outside all designed to be as beautiful to live in as to behold This volume showcases this firm s award winning projects and recent accomplishments in glorious full color and is replete with insightful and engaging commentary across the monograph s extraordinary collection of international works Generation Priced Out Randy Shaw,2020-04-07 Generation Priced Out is a call to action on one of the most talked about issues of our time how skyrocketing rents and home values are pricing the working and middle classes out of urban America Randy Shaw tells the powerful stories of tenants politicians homeowner groups developers and activists in over a dozen cities impacted by the national housing crisis From San Francisco to New York Seattle to Denver and Los Angeles to Austin Generation Priced Out challenges progressive cities to reverse rising economic and racial inequality Shaw exposes how boomer homeowners restrict millennials access to housing in big cities a generational divide that increasingly dominates city politics Shaw also demonstrates that neighborhood gentrification is not inevitable and presents proven measures for cities to preserve and expand their working and middle class populations and achieve more equitable and inclusive outcomes Generation Priced Out is a must read for anyone concerned about the future of urban America Housing Betterment ,1912 Remaking the American Dream Vinit Mukhija,2022-12-20 The redefinition of the single family house the urban landscape and the American Dream Sitting squarely at the center of the American Dream the detached single family home has long been the basic building block of most US cities In Remaking the American Dream Vinit Mukhija considers how this is changing in both the American psyche and the urban landscape In defiance of long held norms and standards single family housing is slowly but significantly transforming through incremental additions of second and third units Drawing on empirical evidence of informal and formal changes Remaking the American Dream documents homeowners quiet unpermitted modifications conversions and workarounds as well as gradual institutional alterations to once rigid local land use regulations Mukhija s primary case study is Los Angeles and the role played by the State of California findings he contrasts with the experience of other cities including Santa Cruz Seattle Portland Minneapolis and Vancouver In each instance he shows how and asks why homeowners are adapting their homes and governments are changing the rules that regulate single family housing to allow for accessory dwelling units ADUs or second units Key to Mukhija s research is the question of why the idea of single family living is changing and what this means for the future of US cities The answer this book suggests heralds nothing less than a redefinition of American urbanism and the American Dream

Richard Neutra and the Making of the Lovell Health House, 1925-35 Edward

Dimendberg, 2025-09-02 This absorbing volume reveals the impact of the Lovell Health House from its inspiration through its construction to its impact This book tells the story of the Lovell Health House designed and built by Austrian American architect Richard Neutra 1892 1970 Perched on a steep hillside with panoramic views of Los Angeles the home pioneered the use of concrete and steel radically advanced the ideals of hygienic carefree and open air living and explored new relationships between space structure the natural world and physical and psychological well being It was widely documented and written about in leading architectural journals when it was erected and these publications elevated the house to the status of an icon in the history of modernism and an essential work of the international modern movement It also helped to launch the global career of one of the central figures of twentieth century architecture The book is framed with an introduction by Edward Dimendberg and includes new texts by Crosby Doe and Thomas Hines At the heart of this project are six portfolios on the background design making circulation reception and resonance of this seminal residence by curator and archivist Nicholas Olsberg Featuring historical photography by Willard Morgan and contemporary photography by Grant Mumford this volume will help bring Neutra s masterpiece to an entirely new audience

Outside In Jocelyn Gibbs, Debi Howell-Ardila, Anthony Denzer, Lilian Pfaff, Alan Hess, 2015-03-01 From 1946 to 1973 Whitney Rowland Smith and his partner Wayne Williams designed more than 800 projects from residential commercial and public buildings to housing tracts multi use complexes and parks and master plans for cities Working in the wake of the first generation of avant garde architects in Southern California and riding the postwar building boom their firm Smith and Williams developed a pragmatic modernism that through remarkable planning and design integrated landscapes with buildings and decisively shaped the modern vocabulary of architecture in Los Angeles Through a breathtaking array of images Outside In unveils the core of Smith and Williams s architectural practice Their most influential designs the authors show are compositions of balanced opposites shelter and openness private and public restraint and exuberance light and shadow Smith and Williams created spaciousness

in their buildings by layering spaces and manipulating the relationship between structure and landscape This spaciousness expressed modern ideas about the relationship of architecture to environment of building to site and ultimately of outside to in

Exiled in L. A. Volker M. Welter, 2025-11-18 The first English language volume to explore the work of architect Leopold Fischer and the inaugural study of his California legacy In 1936 Leopold Fischer 1901 1975 in exile from Nazi Germany arrived in California where he created a small but distinct oeuvre of mostly domestic architecture In contrast to his famous peers Rudolph Schindler and Richard Neutra immigrants whose Southern California buildings are frequently examined and who like Fischer studied with the modernist architect Adolf Loos Fischer and his California structures have until now escaped the attention of architectural history Exiled in L A examines Fischer s important yet overlooked contributions to Southern California architecture As the whereabouts of Fischer s archives remain unknown Volker M Welter grounds the designer s California works in comparison with his pre exile projects and the compositions of fellow architects in California In the 1920s Fischer created experimental working class housing estates in Germany that pioneered ecological construction and living practices Comparable to their predecessors Fischer s California buildings revolve around the functioning the organization of a home as he defined domestic architecture in 1926 Featuring new photography and detailed architectural plans this book is an original contribution to the literature on Southern California s built heritage
