enraizados en Aragón y en la cabeza de Castilla la Vieja. Viejos en el primer libro y jóvenes en este segundo trazan implícitamente el relato de una autobiografía. Abstract We can learn much from a personal relationship and all the more when the other person is a writer who tells us about its literary work. In the book MASTERS FRIENDS the author wrote about his learning experiences from those experts who had taught him how to deepen his reading and about his debt to them for their teachings. In this book he dialogues with writers of his same age who provided him with teachings through their friendship and through and through work. This book FRIENDS TEACHERS is also and like the previous one a republished publication, i.e. a reedition of texts of the author which had already once been published and which have been now extended and corrected. As mentioned in the Preamble the author started his communications with literary works in the first readings of the classics and modern works which he initiated in his juvenile classes of Language and Literature a stage in which he also shared readings with his classmates. Once he started the University and in the years to follow he read works of authors with whom he often had personal contact. MASTERS FRIENDS speak about some of those authors who were crowned by fame. FRIENDS TEACHERS undertakes a reading review of texts which were published in the early years of the author's biography. The album-like style of bringing together various writers is reflected in this book where the author offers a dialogue with some of the writers he met and dealt during his years of university teaching and to whom he devotes monographic chapters also adding the consideration of an erudit and da journalist Francisco Aguilar Pi al Mar a Isabel Hernández Prieto Javier y Juan José Coy Candido Pérez G. Llego Juan Carlos Rodríguez Santiago Rodríguez Santerb's Antonio Colinas Luis Mateo Díez Diego Martínez Torro'n José Giménez Corbatón María Antonia Martínez Zorraquino y Jesús Rubio. The book closes with two chapters devoted to young writers rooted in Aragón and in Burgos. Older authors in the first book younger ones in this second work implicitly draw the account of an autobiography.
