Lost Buildings Of Britain:

Lost Buildings of Britain Simon Thurley, 2004 Accompanying a six part series on Channel Four this volume features six buildings including Glastonbury monastery and the Theatre Royal Britain's Lost Railways John Minnis, 2018-08-07 The beautifully restored St Pancras Station is a magisterial example of Britain's finest Victorian architecture Like the viaducts at Belah and Crumlin cathedral like stations such as Nottingham Victoria and spectacular railway hotels like Glasgow St Enoch's it stands proud as testament to Britain's architectural heritage In this stunning book John Minnis reveals Britain's finest railway architecture From the most cavernous engine sheds like Old Oak Common through the eccentric country halts on the Tollesbury line and the gantries of the Liverpool Overhead Railway to the soaring viaducts of Belah and Cumlin Britain's Lost Railways offers a sweeping celebration of our railway heritage The selection of images and the removable facsimile memorabilia including tickets posters timetables and maps allows the reader to step into that past serving as a testimony to an age of ingenuity and ambition when the pride we invested in our railways was reflected in the grandeur of the architecture we built for them Lost Houses of Britain Anna Sproule, 1982 Lost Buildings of Nottingham Douglas Whitworth, 2010-07-06 Nottingham in common with many other English cities experienced great changes during the twentieth century This book illustrates the major buildings and many of the minor structures which were lost during that period Lost Buildings Jonathan Glancey, 2009 Surveys buildings that have been lost to antiquity war demolition natural catastrophes and other circumstances as well as designs which were never built A Short History of British Architecture Simon Jenkins, 2024-11-07 Provocative elegant intriguing Jenkins is a bold imaginative writer brilliant at challenging old assumptions and encouraging you to look at British architecture in a new light Rory Stewart The story of Britain is revealed through its buildings and yet the language of architecture is a mystery to all but a few In this enlightening history spanning castles and cathedrals to factories and railway stations Jenkins translates the hidden narratives infused in the facades we walk past every day Britain's history has been formed by its politics religion and society and these influences can be seen in the architectural styles that have shaped its landscape From pre Roman and the Middle Ages to the Renaissance and the Industrial Revolution Classical and Gothic styles surged and retreated from favour only to then be challenged by a new player Modernism a style that reflected the stunning technological advances of the second half of the twentieth century In this narrative history Simon Jenkins the bestselling champion of our national heritage introduces us to the singular eccentric and sometimes rather ordinary characters who shaped Britain Jenkins teaches readers to see the world anew demystifying the elitist language of architecture so that we can all appreciate the buildings around us Writing History 7-11 Hilary Cooper, 2014-06-05 Writing History 7-11 supports students and primary teachers helping them to explore ways in which activities involving the talk that underpins historical enquiry can be developed into reading and exciting extended reflective writing The step that teachers and pupils take from talk for learning to talk for writing is a vital

one In this book the authors argue that all aspects of historical enquiry leading to writing involve discussion and dialogue which permeate every aspect of doing history From this perspective they set out a theoretical framework for understanding the role of talk and reading in developing pupils critical thinking and confident reflective writing then demonstrate through a series of case studies in which teachers university lecturers and pupils work together how the theory is put into practice in the classroom Themes include How to support children in writing in a variety of interesting genres How to make links between the National Curriculum 2013 for History and for English How to plan for breadth and depth studies in the new National Curriculum How activities in History 5 11 can be developed into exciting extended writing The second half of the book draws upon case studies from a number of real primary classrooms with children of different ages Each case study shows how teaching was planned to develop children s confidence and enjoyment in discussion and to scaffold reasoned written explanation and argument Topics presented are all relevant to the new curriculum framework and include talking and reading about Time change and significance over 6000 years writing a television script Celtic Britain and the Roman Army writing a travel brochure about Celtic Britain The destruction of Roman towns writing a Saxon poem An archaeological investigation of a body in a Danish peat bog writing a newspaper report Did any countries benefit from WW11 writing an argued viewpoint The expansion westwards of European settlers writing a flap book exploring different perspectives This indispensable book provides not only sources for pupils to use in their writing but also models and exemplars of different styles and voices to draw upon

Festival Architecture Sarah Bonnemaïson,Christine Macy,2007-12-06 With contributions from provocative art and architectural historians this book is a unique exposition of the temporary architecture erected for festivals and the role it has played in developing Western architectural and urban theory Festival Architecture is arranged in historical periods from Antiquity to the modern era and divided between analyses of specific festivals set in relation to contemporary architecture and urban design ideas and theories Illustrated with a wealth of unusual and rarely seen images from the European festival tradition this is a fascinating outline of the history of festival architecture ideal for postgraduate architecture and urban design students

An Environmental History of Britain B.W. Clapp,2014-07-15 The present and future state of the environment gives rise to ever increasing concern but much less is known as yet about the past the damage that has been done since and by the Industrial Revolution how far our predecessors were aware of it the steps they took and the gradual development of a wider concern for the state of the world and our impact on it This timely and pioneering survey designed for general readers as well as students and scholars is a substantial contribution to that understanding Rebuilding Britain's Blitzed Cities Catherine Flinn,2018-12-27 Many British cities were devastated by bombing during the Second World War and faced stark economic dilemmas concerning reconstruction planning and implementation after 1945 How did politicians civil servants and local authorities manage to produce the cities we live in today Rebuilding Britain's Blitzed Cities examines the underlying processes and pressures especially financial and bureaucratic which shaped postwar urbanism in Britain Catherine Flinn integrates architectural planning with in depth economic and political analyses of Britain's blitzed cities for the first time She examines early reconstruction arrangements the postwar economic apparatus and the challenges of postwar physical planning across the country while providing insightful case studies from the cities of Hull Exeter and Liverpool By addressing the ideology versus the reality of reconstruction in postwar Britain Rebuilding Britain's Blitzed Cities highlights the importance of economic and political factors for understanding the British postwar built environment

Architecture and Armed Conflict JoAnne Mancini, Keith Bresnahan, 2014-07-11 Architecture and Armed Conflict is the first multi authored scholarly book to address this theme from a comparative interdisciplinary perspective By bringing together specialists from a range of relevant fields and with knowledge of case studies across time and space it provides the first synthetic body of research on the complex multifaceted subject of architectural destruction in the context of conflict The book addresses several specific research questions How has the destruction of buildings and landscapes figured in recent historical conflicts and how have people and states responded to it How has the destruction of architecture been represented in different historical periods and to what ends What are the relationships between the destruction of architecture and the destruction of art particularly iconoclasm If architectural destruction is a salient feature of many armed conflicts how does it feature in post conflict environments What are the relationships between architectural destruction and processes of restoration recreation or replacement Considering multiple conflicts multiple time periods and multiple locations allows this international cohort of authors to provide an essential primer for this crucial topic

Town and Country Planning in the UK Simin Davoudi, David Webb, Geoff Vigar, John Pendlebury, Tim Townshend, Trevor Hart, Vincent Nadin, 2014-12-05 Town and country planning has never been more important to the UK nor more prominent in national debate Planning generates great controversy whether it's spending 80m and four years inquiry into Heathrow's Terminal 5 or the 200 proposed wind turbines in the Shetland Isles On a smaller scale telecoms masts take away house extensions and even fences are often the cause of local conflict Town and Country Planning in the UK has been extensively revised by a new author group This 15th Edition incorporates the major changes to planning introduced by the coalition government elected in 2010 particularly through the National Planning Policy Framework and associated practice guidance and the Localism Act It provides a critical discussion of the systems of planning the procedures for managing development and land use change and the mechanisms for implementing policy and proposals It reviews current policy for sustainable development and the associated economic social and environmental themes relevant to planning in both urban and rural contexts Contemporary arrangements are explained with reference to their historical development the influence of the European Union the roles of central and local government and developing social and economic demands for land use change Detailed consideration is given to the nature of planning and its historical evolution the role of the EU central regional and local government mechanisms for developing policy and managing these changes policies for guiding and delivering housing and economic development sustainable development principles for planning including pollution control the importance of design in planning conserving the heritage community engagement in planning The many recent changes to the system are explained in detail the new national planning policy framework the impact of the loss of the regional tier in planning and of the insertion of neighbourhood level planning the transition from development control to development management the continued and growing importance of environmental matters in planning community engagement partnership working changes to planning gain and the introduction of the Community Infrastructure Levy and new initiatives across a number of other themes Notes on further reading are provided and at the end of the book there is an extensive bibliography maintaining its reputation as the bible of British planning
