Makers Of Fortune A Colonial Business Community And Its Fall:

The Making of New Zealand G. R. Hawke, 1985-08-01 This book provides a comprehensive study of the economic history of New Zealand. It is for use as a textbook and will be of interest to economic historians for its comprehensive coverage of the subject. It provides a clear and readable account that will be accessible to those without a background in economics. The book covers the period since European settlement with particular emphasis on the postwar economy. It deals with the economic problems encountered in establishing a trading economy in New Zealand and in maintaining it and adapting it to the evolving international economy. It looks closely at the development and performance of different sectors of the economy, the influence of the government and the response to international economic conditions. It also considers the way in which New Zealand society has been shaped by the problems encountered and by the solutions to those problems. Critical Toponymies Jani Vuolteenaho, 2017-03-02

While place names have long been studied by a few devoted specialists, approaches to them have been traditionally empiricist and uncritical in character. This book brings together recent works that conceptualize the hegemonic and contested practices of geographical naming. The contributors guide the reader into struggles over toponymy in a multitude of national and local contexts across Europe, North America, New Zealand, Asia, and Africa. In a ground-breaking and multidisciplinary fashion, this volume illuminates the key role of naming in the colonial silencing of indigenous cultures, canonization of nationalistic ideals into nomenclature of cities and topographic maps, as well as the formation of more or less fluid forms of postcolonial and urban identities. Changing Pacific Forests John Dargavel, Richard P. Tucker, 1992

Changing Pacific Forests examines the forest-related economy of the Pacific Basin, including Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, China, and the Philippines, from a historical perspective. Drawing on a 1991 conference sponsored by the Forest History Society and the International Union of Forestry Research Organizations held in Honolulu, these papers address a range of topics related to the changing Pacific forests, including the remnants of colonialism, the emergence of the Third World, people and resources caught in the middle of policy decisions, land management, national forests, and subsistence use of the forest by indigenous peoples. Essays also explore macroeconomic theories of international trade and the interests of the United States and the former Soviet Union in the economic health of the region. Changing Pacific Forests will be of interest to scholars of the economy and environment of the Pacific Basin, as well as of land management and the history of land use in general. Contributors: Charles S. Backman, Thomas R. Cox, John Dargavel, Elizabeth Flint, Lim Hin Fui, G. R. Henning, Kenneth E. Jackson, Hiroaki Kakizawa, Nicholas K. Menzies, Andrew Price, John F. Richards Jr., M. M. Roche, I. Gustin, M. Tantra, Conrad Totman, Richard P. Tucker, Thomas R. Waggener. Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Islands since the First World War William S. Livingston, Wm. Roger Louis, 2014-09-12 Three forces—dwindling British power, rising American influence, and nationalism in a variety of forms—have transformed Australia, New Zealand, and the adjacent islands since 1919. In this volume, some of the most distinguished scholars of the Pacific region assess these significant historical changes. These essays deal with international relations politics changing social structures and literature since World War I The themes of the volume as a whole are social and humanistic they concern the evolution of both a regional identity and separate national identities in the Southwest Pacific The unique areal and thematic concentration of this book makes it essential reading for all those interested in the history politics and culture of the Pacific A Controversial Churchman Allan K.
