

B. Evaluating argumentation:

- ❖ Another way of judging the strength of arguments is to see whether the authors have made any of a number of well-known logical errors. Such common flaws in argument are;
- ❖ The use of emotionally toned words
- ❖ Making sweeping statements
- ❖ Proof by only selecting material that backs up the authors point of view
- ❖ The recommendation of a stance because it is a mean between two extreme perspectives
- ❖ The use of logically unsound argument
- ❖ Failure to distinguish factual statements from opinion
- ❖ Changing the mean of a term during the academic argument
- ❖ Disguising the lack of clear thought by extensive use of jargon
- ❖ Ad hominem arguments – attacking the arguer

Liturgy and Literature in the Making of Protestant England

Timothy Rosendale, 2007-09-20 The Book of Common Prayer is one of the most important and influential books in English history but it has received relatively little attention from literary scholars This study seeks to remedy this by attending to the prayerbook's importance in England's political intellectual religious and literary history The first half of the book presents extensive analyses of the Book of Common Prayer's involvement in early modern discourses of nationalism and individualism and argues that the liturgy sought to engage and textually reconcile these potentially competing cultural impulses In its second half Liturgy and Literature traces these tensions in subsequent works by four major authors Sidney Shakespeare Milton and Hobbes and contends that they operate within the dialectical parameters laid out in the prayerbook decades earlier Rosendale's analyses are supplemented by a brief history of the Book of Common Prayer and by an appendix which

The Making of Felony Procedure in Middle English Literature Elise Wang, 2024-07-12 The Making of Felony Procedure in Middle English Literature explores the literary inheritance of criminal procedure in thirteenth to fifteenth century English law focusing on felony the gravest common law offense Most scholarship in medieval law and literature has focused on statute and theory drawing from the instantiating texts of English law acts of Parliament judicial treatises the Magna Carta But those whose job it was to write about the law rarely wrote about felony Its definition was left to its practice from investigation to conviction and that procedure fell to local communities who were generally untrained in the law Left with many practical and ethical questions and few legal answers they turned to cultural ones archived in sermons they had heard plays they had seen and poetry they knew This book reads the documents of criminal procedure coroners reports plea rolls and gaol delivery records alongside literary scenes of investigation interrogation and witnessing to tell a new intellectual history of criminal procedure s beginnings The chapters of The Making of Felony Procedure guide the reader through the steps of a felony prosecution from act to conviction examining the questions local communities faced at each step What evidence should be prioritized in a death investigation Should the accused consider narrative satisfaction when building his plea What are the dangers of a witnessing system that depends so heavily on a few oathworthy men What can a jury do if the accused s guilt seems partial or complex And what if the defendant for whatever reason refuses to participate in this new still delicate system of justice The book argues that answers they found and the sources that informed them created the system that became modern criminal procedure The epilogue offers some thoughts about the resilience and incoherence of the concept of felony from the start of the jury trial to the present day

Inside Ethics Alice Crary, 2016-01-05 Alice Crary offers a transformative account of moral thought about human beings and animals Instead of assuming that the world places no demands on our moral imagination she underscores the urgency of treating the exercise of moral imagination as necessary for arriving at an adequate world guided understanding of human beings and animals

Making Meaning in English David Didau, 2021-02-09 What is English as a school subject for What does knowledge look like in English and what should be taught Making Meaning in English examines the broader purpose and reasons for teaching English and explores what knowledge looks like in a subject concerned with judgement interpretation and value David Didau argues that the content of English is best explored through distinct disciplinary lenses metaphor story argument pattern grammar and context and considers the knowledge that needs to be explicitly taught so students can recognise transfer build and extend their knowledge of English He discusses the principles and tools we can use to make decisions about what to teach and offers a curriculum framework that draws these strands together to allow students to make sense of the knowledge they encounter If students are going to enjoy English as a subject and do well in it they not only need to be knowledgeable but understand how to use their knowledge to create meaning This insightful text offers a practical way for teachers to construct a curriculum in which the mastery of English can be planned taught and assessed
