

Make CONNECTIONS

How do readers make connections?

Good readers make connections by using what they already know to connect a text to their life experiences, another text, or the world.

Text to Self:

This reminds me of when I...

Connecting the story to your life & experiences

Text to Text:

This reminds me of a book I read...

Connecting the story to another book

Text to World:

I heard about this on the news when...

Connecting the story to the real world

Making Connections Through Reading And Writing:

Transforming Literacy: Changing Lives Through Reading and Writing Robert P. Waxler, Maureen P. Hall, 2011-05-11 The book is interdisciplinary in focus and centers on enlarging teachers understanding of how reading and writing can change lives and how the language arts can contribute significantly to and change educational processes in the twenty first century Implicit in its argument is that although the emphasis on science and math is crucial to education in the digital edge it remains vitally important to keep reading and writing language and story at the heart of the educational process This is particularly true in a democratic society because shaping stories through human language can enhance the quality of our lives and teach us something important about what it means to be human and vulnerable In this sense stories allow for self reflection and an increased opportunity to enhance and understand emotional intelligence and human community

Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Heller, 1999-04-01 Reading Writing Connections From Theory to Practice is an extraordinary language arts methods text that enables elementary and middle school teachers to create classroom environments where all students can become lifelong readers and writers Focusing on developmentally appropriate methods and materials this remarkably readable book empowers a new generation of teachers to integrate reading writing listening and speaking in K 8 classrooms Heller s highly accessible writing style makes this book suitable as a primary text for undergraduate and graduate courses in language arts reading writing and literacy Special features of this second edition include a vision of how to transform cutting edge theory and research into classroom practice that utilizes integrated language arts instruction a unique developmental perspective with separate chapters on teaching methods and materials for kindergarten primary 1 3 intermediate 4 6 and middle grades 7 8 instructional guidelines that offer generous detailed suggestions for applying theory to practice plus For You to Try and For Your Journal exercises that encourage critical thinking and reflection and a wealth of classroom vignettes examples of students oral and written language illustrations and figures that accentuate interesting and informative theory research and practice In addition Reading Writing Connections offers expanded content on the impact of sociocultural theory and the whole language movement on the teaching of reading and writing across the curriculum greater emphasis on cultural diversity including new multicultural children s literature booklists that complement the general children s literature bibliographies and current information on alternative assessment emerging technologies the multiage classroom reader response to literature and thematic teaching specifically what does it mean for literacy instruction and how does it relate to challenging standards based assessments In this informative and practical guide literacy expert Nancy Boyles uses the framework from Webb s Depth of Knowledge DOK to answer these questions offering experience based advice along with specific examples of K 8 assessment items Boyles defines rigor and shows how it relates to literacy at each DOK level and explains the kind of thinking students will be expected to demonstrate She then tackles the essence of what teachers need to know about how DOK and its associated rigors are measured on standards based assessments Specifically readers learn how each DOK rigor aligns with standards text complexity close reading student interaction the reading writing connection and formative assessment Teachers coaches and administrators will find clear guidance easy to implement strategies dozens of useful teaching tools and resources and encouragement to help students achieve and demonstrate true rigor in reading and writing How Do I Get Them to Write? Karen Filewych,2017-05-15 This remarkable book shows teachers how to inspire students to learn to write and write to learn Committed to the premise that all students can learn to write with appropriate teaching modelling and practice it argues that reading and writing go hand in hand Through reading writing and the inevitable discussions that follow students learn from the experiences of others open their minds to many possibilities gain a glimpse into new worlds make connections to their lives and reflect on their own choices and learning This practical book shows you how to use freewriting and powerful mentor texts to create classrooms where students enjoy putting pencil to paper and taking the necessary risks to grow and flourish as writers Hollywood or History? Lisa K. Pennington, Donna Fortune, Mary E. Tackett, Paige Horst, Meghan A. Kessler,2024-09-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film and television productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century However purposeful and effective instruction through film is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film we are developing a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized foster critical thinking and civic mindedness The NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners specifically K 6 teachers of social studies content by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster inquiry through the careful use of selected motion pictures and television productions Reading, Writing, and Talk Mariana Souto-Manning, Jessica
