Making Good In Management Reflections On:

Reflecting On School Management Jennifer Evans, Anne Gold, 2005-08-08 The reorganisation of the education system within Britain has vastly increased the managerial responsibilities of those working in schools although the staff generally have received little management training In this book the various issues related to management are teased out and a selection of ideas and pragmatic solutions informing good practice are examined Ethical Decision-Making in Management Matej Drašček, Dana Mesner Andolšek, Adriana Rejc Buhovac, 2023-04-21 Moral pragmatism has been largely ignored in Business Ethics despite its natural attraction and the fact that it is prominent in philosophy and socio economic theories The main premise of the book is that the complexity of today s business world does not permit a grand ethical theory notwithstanding the different attempts made by scientists Moral pragmatism is the go to approach where the ethical decision making of managers varies dependent on different circumstances but it always integrates moral considerations Ethical decision making is no longer based simply on known rules but entails the constant dynamic interaction of circumstances the development of new rules managers past experiences their knowledge concerning ethics and skills of moral reasoning This book interweaves the postmodern approach to management studies and based on its innovative research reintroduces moral pragmatism in Business Ethics The combination of decision making theories philosophy and postmodernism paves the way for future novel research in Business Ethics making it an excellent resource for researchers academics and advanced students in the field of Business Ethics Practitioners on the other hand will benefit by improving their skills in ethical decision making and leadership Golden Nuggets: a Practitioner'S Reflections on Leadership, Management and Life Dr.

Raymond A. Shulstad, 2012-01-25 Golden Nuggets is a compendium of time tested proven principles and best practices for leadership and management While all of them have a theoretical basis they are derived from the authors experience gained over a 45 year professional career with military and industry They truly are reflections in leadership and management from a real practitioners perspective Specific examples of how the principles and best practices were applied are presented but generic lessons learned are derived that have wide ranging applicability Leaders and managers at all levels will find this book interesting and a valuable reference Seven Management Moralities T. Klikauer, 2012-09-18 For the first time Seven Management Moralities delivers a comprehensive overview of all forms of moral and immoral behaviour displayed by management Utilising Kohlberg s ascending scale of seven moralities the book includes the ethics of Aristotle Kant Utilitarianism Bauman Habermas and Singer

Decision Making, Assessment and Risk in Social Work Brian J. Taylor,2017-04-10 At a time when accountability and the avoidance of risk are increasingly demanded of social workers the ability to make clear and informed decisions is essential This book written for practicing social workers undertaking their ASYE and compulsory CPD has been designed to help professionals make sound judgments in increasingly complex contexts and under pressure The focus is on empowering front line professionals through reflective practice so that they are able to draw on multiple factors and perspectives and make sound problem solving judgements The book begins with the core concepts client focus and legal background before moving on to consider the collaborative processes and the nature of individual judgements It then considers particular dimensions of social work decision making such as safeguarding taking risks assessment and dynamic decision tools and processes It then concludes by look at the organisational context of decision management with a focus on supervision training and effective communication

Corporate DNA Arnold Kransdorff,2017-05-15 For more than half a century the developed world has been chasing productivity It s financed our wealth but that part of output on which our continued prosperity depends productivity growth is petering out The traditional scapegoat has been the dearth of worker skills But the worker skills base has never been higher The other explanation is that it is managers who are not giving full value to their employers The way they re making decisions is conferring virtually no upside potential which means they re leaving us wide open for experience poor competitors to step into our experience rich shoes Exactly as Japan did in the 1960s and the so called BRICK countries Brazil Russia India China especially China and Korea are threatening now If creeping uncompetitiveness is not to overtake us from where are the next round of productivity gains to come from Identifying some gaping holes in the way managers are taught to manage this book outlines both the size of the problem and a solution Businesses and other organizations the author says have to substantially raise the quality of their decision making For this to happen they need to be much better experiential learners And for experiential learning to take place companies and other institutions have to better manage their corporate DNA the institution specific experiences otherwise known as Organizational Memory OM which characterizes any organization s ability to perform is the single biggest influence on decision making excellence It is a factor of production that has already been paid for at great expense yet is readily discarded in the backwash of the biggest change in workplace practice for more than a century the actively encouraged flexible labour market Corporate DNA explains why this key component of intellectual capital should be better managed can be better managed and particularly how it can be used to help organizations reduce the pandemic of repeated mistakes rei Factory, the Magazine of Management ,1917 How to Make Good Things Happen: Know Your Brain, Enhance Your Life Marian Rojas Estape,2021-05-18 An empowering journey through the mechanisms of the mind from one of the world s leading mental health experts For those in pursuit of a better life psychiatrist Marian Rojas Estap presents the essential guide to neuroscience driven mindfulness Understanding your brain managing your emotions and being aware of your responses to stressors can give you greater self control Rather than a gimmicky guidebook this is a thorough look at how our brains react to stress threats hyperstimulation and the vices of our digital age With proven techniques backed by solid up to date psychiatric research Estap teaches us how to make the best of our lives Combining science psychology and philosophy Estap delivers practical advice about how we can cultivate a happy existence This includes understanding the parts of the brain setting healthy goals and objectives strengthening willpower cultivating emotional intelligence developing assertiveness avoiding excessive self criticism and self demand and mastering the proven art of optimism Michigan Business Review ,1965 Step Back Joseph L. Badaracco,2020-07-14 How to find clarity amid the turbulence of work and life We all wish we had more time to pause and reflect about small decisions and big goals and everything in between But since we live and work in a vortex of tasks meetings decisions and responsibilities we rarely get the chance to step back In this practical guide bestselling author and Harvard Business School professor Joseph Badaracco argues that you don t need long periods of solitude and tranquility to reflect well In fact reflection can take place in the cracks and crevices of your very busy life and these moments can help you understand your feelings look at problems from different perspectives focus on what really matters and ultimately lead a better life Building on candid interviews with over a hundred executives and professionals as well as on the classic works of Marcus Aurelius Michel de Montaigne and Ignatius of Loyola Badaracco offers simple customizable principles and ideas for reflection that lend a gentle discipline to an otherwise nebulous process Concise smart and pragmatic Step Back is the guide you need to make reflection a positive force in your work and life Researching Critical Reflection Jan Fook,Val Collington,Fiona Ross,Gillian Ruch,Linden West,2015-10-05 Critical reflection helps professionals to learn directly from their practice experience so that they can improve their own work in an ongoing and flexible way something essential in today s complex and changing organisations It allows change to be managed in a way which enables individuals to preserve a sense of what is fundamentally important to them as professionals It is particularly important as it can also help make sense of some fundamental issues and so also has implications for how we live our lives However more systematic research on critical reflection is needed to help us understand what works best for professionals in different settings This timely work explores how critical reflection is researched evaluated and used as a research method itself with the aim of improving how it is taught and practised in a rigorous and transferable way Developing a more comprehensive and multi disciplinary view of the current state of critical reflection and the research directions which need to be taken the book is divided into four parts It Provides an overview of different perspectives on critical reflection and stimulates dialogue between them Establishes some common platforms from which to develop further research directions Identifies the major issues in evaluating critical reflection teaching and main methods for doing so Contributes to social science methodological innovations by exploring how methods based on critical reflection can be used for researching professional practice Contains contributions from academics who are internationally known and highly experienced in different aspects of critical reflection Researching Critical Reflection is an important reference for all students practitioners and researchers including in the areas of education management health and social work who engage with critical reflection to develop their practice
