Making It In Photography:

Making Photography Matter Cara A. Finnegan, 2015-05-30 Photography became a dominant medium in cultural life starting in the late nineteenth century As it happened viewers increasingly used their reactions to photographs to comment on and debate public issues as vital as war national identity and citizenship Cara A Finnegan analyzes a wealth of newspaper and magazine articles letters to the editor trial testimony books and speeches produced by viewers in response to specific photos they encountered in public From the portrait of a young Lincoln to images of child laborers and Depression era hardship Finnegan treats the photograph as a locus for viewer engagement and constructs a history of photography s viewers that shows how Americans used words about images to participate in the politics of their day As she shows encounters with photography helped viewers negotiate the emergent anxieties and crises of U S public life through not only persuasion but action as well

Photography and the Making of the Nazi Racial Community Julie R. Keresztes, 2025-01-15 Photography and the Making of the Nazi Racial Community examines the role of photography in the construction of the Nazi Volksgemeinschaft a racially exclusive community during the Third Reich Julie R Keresztes explores how the dictatorship promoted photography for those who belonged to that community and excluded Jews from the practice As Nazi officials dispossessed Jewish photographers and robbed them of their equipment studios and eventually their lives they made photography more accessible to non Jewish Germans But they inadvertently created spaces for photography to be used as resistance and revenge in concentration camps where forced laborers salvaged photographs that exposed the extermination of Europe s Jews As the victims of Nazi persecution used photography to gather evidence of the Holocaust German troops and their families used photography to portray themselves as dutiful members of the Volksgemeinschaft rather than show the reality of war and genocide Ultimately Photography and the Making of the Nazi Racial Community shows how the configuration of photography along racial lines shaped the imagery of the Second World War Published in Association with the US Holocaust Memorial Museum Tony Northrup's DSLR Book: How to Create Stunning Digital Photography Tony Northrup, 2014-11-26 The top rated and top selling photography ebook since 2012 and the first ever Gold Honoree of the Benjamin Franklin Digital Award gives you five innovations no other book offers Free video training 9 HOURS of video training integrated into the book s content requires Internet access Travel around the world with Tony and Chelsea as they teach you hands on Appendix A lists the videos so you can use the book like an inexpensive video course Classroom style teacher and peer help After buying the book you get access to the private forums on this site as well as the private Stunning Digital Photography Readers group on Facebook where you can ask the questions and post pictures for feedback from Tony Chelsea and other readers It s like being able to raise your hand in class and ask a question Instructions are in the introduction Lifetime updates This book is regularly updated with new content including additional videos that existing owners receive for free Updates are added based on reader feedback and questions as well as changing photography trends and new camera equipment This is the last photography book you ll ever need Hands on practices Complete the practices at the end of every chapter to get the real world experience you need 500 high resolution original pictures Detailed example pictures taken by the author in fifteen countries demonstrate both good and bad technique Many pictures include links to the full size image so you can zoom in to see every pixel Most photography books use stock photography which means the author didn t even take them If an author can t take his own pictures how can he teach you In this book Tony Northrup award winning author of more than 30 how to books and a professional portrait wildlife and landscape photographer teaches the art and science of creating stunning pictures First beginner photographers will master Composition Exposure Shutter speed Aperture Depth of field blurring the background ISO Natural light Flash Troubleshooting blurry dark and bad pictures Pet photography Wildlife photography mammals birds insects fish and more Sunrises and sunsets Landscapes Cityscapes Flowers Forests waterfalls and rivers Night photography Fireworks Raw files HDR Macro close up photography Advanced photographers can skip forward to learn the pro s secrets for Posing men and women including corrective posing checklists provided Portraits candid casual formal and underwater Remotely triggering flashes Using bounce flash and flash modifiers Using studio lighting on any budget Building a temporary or permanent studio at home Shooting your first wedding High speed photography Location scouting finding the

How Nurses Can Facilitate Meaning-making and Dialogue Jan Sitvast, 2020-10-28 In healthcare nurses often have a great deal of contact with patients on a 24 hour basis They are in a position to hear the patient s stories not only while giving care but also during more informal communication throughout the day This puts them in a position to use their response to patients in a more conscious manner and realize therapeutic aims by exploiting narrative means in a methodological way This book extensively describes how this can be accomplished not only through a theoretical expos but also using case studies In addition to this pragmatic focus it explains how narrative relates to larger concepts such as self management shared decision making recovery and person centred care and shows that narrative can be a vehicle to these desired outcomes The book also considers organizational aspects of narrative oriented healthcare by introducing a model in which narrative plays an important role As such it will allow nurses in the field to make a paradigmatic switch from a perspective dominated by delivery of care to one that is person centred recovery oriented and dialogic in nature

Making Movies into Art Kaveh Askari, 2014-12-12 Focusing on early cinema s relationship with the pictorial arts this pioneering study explores how cinema s emergence was grounded in theories of picture composition craft and arts education from magic lantern experiments in 1890s New York through to early Hollywood feature films in the 1920s Challenging received notions that the advent of cinema was a celebration of mechanisation and a radical rejection of nineteenth century traditions of representation Kaveh Askari instead emphasises the overlap between craft traditions and modernity in early film Opening up valuable new perspectives on the history of film as art Askari links American silent cinema with the practice of teaching the public how to appreciate fine art charts its entrance into arts education via art schools and university film courses shows how concepts of artistic production entered films through a material interest in the studio and examines the way in which Maurice Tourneur and Rex Ingram made early art films by shaping an image of the film director around the idea of the fine artist

Active Landscape Photography Anne Godfrey, 2022-09-28 How can photography be transformed into an active process of investigation for landscape architecture and environmental design The second book in Godfrey s series Active Landscape Photography presents engaged photographic methods that turn photography into a rigorous thoughtful endeavor for the research planning and design of landscape places Photography is the most ubiquitous and important form of representation in these disciplines Yet photography is not specifically taught as a core skill within these fields This book creates a starting point for filling this gap Concepts and working methods from contemporary photography and critical cultural theories are contextualized into situations encountered in the daily practice of landscape architecture and environmental design These methods can be integrated into practices in academic and professional settings or picked up and self taught by an individual reader Part I Methods presents easily accessible approaches to photography creating a core set of active skills Part II Practices discusses working methods of specific contemporary photographers and extrapolates their practices into common planning and design situations Contemporary photographers presented include Richard Misrach Dawoud Bey Duane Michals Latoya Ruby Frazier Mark Klett Sophie Calle Joe Deal Robert Adams Naima Green Bernd and Hilla Becher Stephen Shore David Hockney Amy Sherald William Christenberry Jeff Wall and Sohei Nishino Beautifully illustrated in full color with over 150 images by Godfrey her students and contemporary photographers this book provides both clear guidelines for a set of diverse methods as well as a deeper discussion about the implications of making and using photography in environmental design for professionals academics students and researchers

Photography for Everyone Kerry Ross, 2015-06-24 The Japanese passion for photography is almost a cliché but how did it begin Although Japanese art photography has been widely studied this book is the first to demonstrate how photography became an everyday activity Japan's enthusiasm for photography emerged alongside a retail and consumer revolution that marketed products and activities that fit into a modern tasteful middle class lifestyle Kerry Ross examines the magazines and merchandise promoted to ordinary Japanese people in the early twentieth century that allowed Japanese consumers to participate in that lifestyle and gave them a powerful tool to define its contours Each chapter discusses a different facet of this phenomenon from the revolution in retail camera shops to the blizzard of socially constructive how to manuals and to the vocabulary of popular aesthetics that developed from enthusiasts sharing photos Ross looks at the quotidian activities that went into the entire picture making process activities not typically understood as photographic in nature such as shopping for a camera reading photography magazines and even preserving one's pictures in albums These very activities promoted and sponsored by the industry embedded the camera in everyday life as both a consumer object and a technology for understanding modernity making it the irresistible enterprise that Eastman encountered in his first visit to Japan in 1920 when he remarked that the Japanese people were almost as addicted to the Kodak habit as ourselves

Popular Photography - ND, 1945-04 Popular Mechanics Magazine, 1919 The Photographic Times, 1907 Jugendstil Women and the Making of Modern Design Sabine Wieber, 2021-10-21 Jugendstil that is Germany's distinct engagement with the international Art Nouveau movement is now firmly engrained in histories of modern art architecture and design Recent exhibitions and publications across the world explored Jugendstil's key protagonists and artistic centres to firmly anchor their activities within the trajectories of German modernism Women however continue to be largely absent from these revisionist accounts Jugendstil Women and the Making of Modern Design argues that women in fact actively participated in the cultural and socio-economic exchanges that generated German design responses to European modernity By drawing on previously unpublished archival material and a series of original case studies including Elsa Bruckmann's Munich salon the Photo Studio Elvira and the Debschitz School the book explores women

s important contributions to modern German culture as collectors consumers critics designers educators and patrons This book offers a new interpretation of this vibrant period by considering diverse manifestations of historical female agency that pushed against historically entrenched conventions and gender roles The book s rigorous approach reshapes Jugendstil historiography by positing women s lived experiences against dominant ideologies that emerged at this precise moment In short the book advocates women as an integral part of the emergence dissemination and reception of Jugendstil and questions the deeply gendered histories of this key period in modern art architecture and design

Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide
