Making It Up:

Making Up with Mom Julie Halpert, Deborah Carr, 2008-04-15 Halpert and Carr look at the reasons why today's mother daughter relationships are more strained than ever and offer advice on how to repair these relationships with understanding communication and resolve

Making Up Your Mind Robert Mutti, 2002-09-04 This focused text is directed consistently towards teaching students to write their own arguments so as to better understand their own thoughts and present them to others in a clear written form The text also provides a distinctive discussion of the role of emotion in argument under the concept of emotional intelligence and includes a wide range of exercises In introducing students to the nature of argument and especially ethical argument Making Up Your Mind features a comprehensive introduction to the logical forms of assertions and the most common forms of expression in English The book then shows how to use all the main terms of argument and provides a brief introduction to the most common forms of syllogism The deductive and inductive aspects of argument are treated and students are taught a basic technique of testing arguments for validity Making Up Your Mind provides an argument outline which can be used to organize virtually any ethical argument This argument outline also provides a realistic context in which to study the most important informal fallacies and learn how to avoid them In its closing chapters the book discusses the nature of good evidence and good sources of evidence and their role in argument Included are discussions of scientific method the logical form of arguments about causal theories and arguments from analogy

Making Up for Lost Time Karin Kallmaker, 2004-05-01 When three love starved lesbians decide to make up for lost time the recipe is romance And with Karin Kallmaker cooking you know the result will be hot spicy and mouth wateringly delicious Master Chef Jamie Onassis has used every penny she has to buy a beautiful country inn she plans to turn into a five star restaurant Unfortunately the inn turns out to be a handyman's special and without the skills or capital to make the necessary repairs Jamie risks losing everything Home and garden expert Valkyrie Valentine is a rising star among the do it yourself set A seemingly perfect homemaker Valkyrie seems destined to become the next Martha Stewart as long as no one discovers her embarrassing little secret she can't cook Reporter Sheila Thintowski is a woman on a mission Ever since meeting the dazzling dynamic Valkyrie Valentine she's been determined to interview her up close and extremely personally Sheila suspects that Valkyrie's hands on skills extend well beyond home improvement and she's looking for some private lessons Delicious recipes and chocolate as sublimation await the reader in Karin Kallmaker's uproarious farce of cooking that doesn't stay in the kitchen

Making Up the Difference Erynn Masi de Casanova, 2011-06-01 Globalization and economic restructuring have decimated formal jobs in developing countries pushing many women into informal employment such as direct selling of cosmetics perfume and other personal care products as a way to make up the difference between household income and expenses In Ecuador with its persistent economic crisis and few opportunities for financially and personally rewarding work women increasingly choose direct selling as a way to earn income by activating their social networks While few women earn the cars and trips that are iconic prizes in the direct selling organization many use direct selling as part of a set of household survival strategies In this first in depth study of a cosmetics direct selling organization in Latin America Erynn Masi de Casanova explores women s identities as workers including their juggling of paid work and domestic responsibilities their ideas about professional appearance and their strategies for collecting money from customers Focusing on women who work for the country s leading direct selling organization she offers fascinating portraits of the everyday lives of women selling personal care products in Ecuador s largest city Guayaquil Addressing gender relations including a look at men s direct and indirect involvement the importance of image and the social and economic context of direct selling Casanova challenges assumptions that this kind of flexible employment resolves women s work home conflicts and offers an important new perspective on women s work in developing countries

Making Up Your Own Mind Edward B. Burger, 2018-11-20 How you can become better at solving real world problems by learning creative puzzle solving skills We solve countless problems big and small every day With so much practice why do we often have trouble making simple decisions much less arriving at optimal solutions to important questions Are we doomed to this muddle or is there a practical way to learn to think more effectively and creatively In this enlightening entertaining and inspiring book Edward Burger shows how we can become far better at solving real world problems by learning creative puzzle solving skills using simple effective thinking techniques Making Up Your Own Mind teaches these techniques including how to ask good questions fail and try again and change your mind and then helps you practice them with fun verbal and visual puzzles The goal is not to quickly solve each challenge but to come up with as many different ways of thinking about it as possible As you see the puzzles in ever greater depth your mind will change helping you become a more imaginative and creative thinker in daily life And learning how to be a better thinker pays off in incalculable ways for anyone including students businesspeople professionals athletes artists leaders and lifelong learners A book about changing your mind and creating an even better version of yourself through mental play Making Up Your Own Mind will delight and reward anyone who wants to learn how to find better solutions to life s innumerable puzzles And the puzzles extend to the thought provoking format of the book itself because one of the later short chapters is printed upside down while another is printed in mirror image further challenging the reader to see the world through different perspectives and make new meaning

Making-Up People: Youth, Truth and Politics Judith Bessant, 2020-12-30 This book is about modern politics and young people Judith Bessant revises some long standing myths about children and young people s politics She highlights the huge gap between the many ways young people and politics are talked about and how they have long been politically active Bessant draws on a relational historical sociology to show how since the nineteenth century certain historical dynamics political interests and social imaginaries have enabled social scientists writers political leaders and policymakers to imagine and make up different kinds of young people Given these representations of childhood adolescence and youth everyone knows that young people are cognitively immature inexperienced morally under developed and lack good judgement For these reasons they cannot possibly be allowed to engage in the serious grown up business of politics Yet in just one of the many contradictions young people are criticised by many of their elders for being politically apathetic and disengaged from politics Many think recent global warming movements largely led by quite young people are a novel phenomenon Yet young people have been at the forefront of political movements of all kinds since the French Revolution Since the 1960s children and young people increasingly played a major if sometimes obscured role in civil rights anti war anti globalisation anti austerity and global warming movements This accessible book is rich in theoretical and historical insight that is sure to appeal to sociologists historians youth studies scholars and political scientists as well as to the general reader Pattern Cutting and Making Up Janet Ward,Martin Shoben,2012-08-21 Major changes have occurred in the last few years in the methods of cutting and manufacturing outerwear Light clothing companies are now manufacturing these heavy garments because of the development of fusible interlinings and new manufacturing techniques which have resulted in the deskilling of traditional tailoring methods Outerwear has consequently assumed much greater importance in light clothing courses and this book the first of its kind has been written to reflect these industrial changes It offers a course of practical and theoretical study which is related to specific garment types and fabrics An essential manual for students at every level Suitable for use in CGLI BTEC and degree courses this uniquely comprehensive work is certain to become a standard textbook on its subject Pattern Cutting and Making Up Martin Shoben,Janet Ward,1987 Major changes have occurred in the last few years in the methods of cutting and manufacturing outerwear Light clothing companies are now manufacturing these heavy garments because of the development of fusible interlinings and new manufacturing techniques which have resulted in the deskilling of traditional tailoring methods Outerwear has consequently assumed much greater importance in light clothing courses and this book the first of its kind has been written to reflect these industrial changes It offers a course of practical and theoretical study which is related to specific garment types and fabrics An essential manual for students at every level Suitable for use in CGLI BTEC and degree courses this uniquely comprehensive work is certain to become a standard textbook on its subject Making Up Your Mind - Revised Edition Robert Mutti,2014-01-24 Making Up Your Mind is oriented toward the writing of arguments It gives students techniques that they can use to better understand organize and present their own thoughts The book provides an exceptionally clear statement of what critical thinking adds to the study of logic along with complete and systematic coverage of all crucial logical operators and major logical relations It also offers exceptionally clear and informative discussions of the definition of argument the distinction between induction and deduction and the role of emotion in argument The second half of the book presents an argument outline which students can use to organize virtually any ethical argument This outline is also used to illustrate the most important informal fallacies and how they can be avoided In its closing chapters the book discusses the nature of good evidence and good sources of evidence and their role in argument

Included are discussions of scientific method the logical form of arguments about causal theories and arguments from analogy The Art and Science of Making Up Your Mind Rex V. Brown,2019-06-14 The Art and Science of Making Up Your Mind presents basic decision making principles and tools to help the reader respond efficiently and wisely to everyday dilemmas Although most decisions are made informally whether intuitively without deliberate thought or based on careful reflection over the centuries people have tried to develop systematic scientific and structured ways in which to make decisions Using qualitative counterparts to quantitative models Rex Brown takes the reader through the basics like what is a decision and then considers a wide variety of real life decisions explaining how the best judgments can be made using logical principles Combining multiple evaluations of the same judgment hybrid judgment and exploring innovative analytical concepts such as ideal judgment this book explores and analyzes the skills needed to master the basics of non mathematical decision making and what should be done using real world illustrations of decision methods The book is an ideal companion for students of Thinking Reasoning and Decision Making and also for anyone wanting to understand how to make better judgments in their everyday lives The Truth About Breaking Up, Making Up, and Moving On Chad

Eastham,2013-01-07 Relationships are like road trips Sometimes they re an exciting adventure But sometimes they re like a traffic jam going nowhere Or even worse they re a wrong turn that s taken you hundreds of miles off your course With much needed humor and honest advice bestselling author and speaker Chad Eastham helps you think through tough but necessary relationship issues such as Why some people find happiness while others find heartache Why pain hurts so much When to break up When to make up Chad s conversational tone facts and advice encourage young people to rethink life s conversations even the difficult stuff like heartbreak There is nothing in life that is too big too painful or too difficult that God cannot make better and use to teach us about love Nothing Making Up Society Philip Fisher,2010-11-23 Fisher places the work of George Eliot within the great evolution that constitutes the nineteenth century English novel He reports not only about her work but about an evolving complex literary form Fisher examines Eliot s work as responding to the loss of society the breakdown between public life and individual moral history As trust in the community as a base of moral life weakens decisive changes occur the English novel accommodated itself to the disappearance of society and changed from the representation of individuals as members of a social order to the description of the self surrounded by collections of unrelated others The Making of Beauty: A Personalized Guide to Skincare & Make-up Application Calla Simone,
