Cultural Diversity in the Armed Forces Joseph L. Soeters, Jan Van der Meulen, 2007-01-24 This book addresses the different ways in which armed forces around the world respond to the cultural diversity of their parent societies ethnicity and gender in particular in order to enhance their quality and legitimacy

Making the Woman Worker Eileen Boris, 2019-08-26 Founded in 1919 along with the League of Nations the International Labour Organization ILO establishes labor standards and produces knowledge about the world of work serving as a forum for nations unions and employer associations Before WWII it focused on enhancing conditions for male industrial workers in Western often imperial economies while restricting the circumstances of women's labors Over time the ILO embraced non discrimination and equal treatment It now promotes fair globalization standardized employment and decent work for women in the developing world In Making the Woman Worker Eileen Boris illuminates the ILO's transformation in the context of the long fight for social justice Boris analyzes three ways in which the ILO has classified the division of labor between women and men from 1919 to 1958 between women in the global south and the west from 1955 to 1996 and between the earning and care needs of all workers from 1990s to today Before 1945 the ILO focused on distinguishing feminized labor from male workers whom the organization prioritized But when the world needed more women workers the ILO a UN agency after WWII highlighted the global differences in women's work began to combat sexism in the workplace and declared care work essential to women's labor participation Today the ILO enters its second century with a mission to protect the interests of all workers in the face of increasingly globalized supply chains the digitization of homework and cross border labor trafficking As Boris shows the ILO's treatment of women is a window into the modern history of labor The historic relegation of feminized labor to the part time short term and low waged prefigures the future organization of work The labor force is increasingly self employed and working as long as possible a steep price for flexibility with minimal governmental oversight How we treat workers in the next century will inevitably build upon evolving ideas of the woman worker shaped significantly through the ILO

Making Do in Damascus Sally K. Gallagher, 2012-10-10 Drawing on fieldwork that spans nearly twenty years Making Do in Damascus offers a rare portrayal of ordinary family life in Damascus Syria It explores how women draw on cultural ideals around gender religion and family to negotiate a sense of collective and personal identity Emphasizing the ability of women to manage family relationships creatively within mostly conservative Sunni Muslim households Gallagher highlights how personal and material resources shape women's choices and constraints concerning education choice of marriage partner employment childrearing relationships with kin and the uses and risks of new information technologies Gallagher argues that taking a nuanced approach toward analyzing women's identity and authority in society allows us to think beyond dichotomies of Damascene women either as oppressed by class and patriarchy or as completely autonomous agents of their own lives Tracing ordinary women's experiences and ideals across decades of social and economic change Making Do in Damascus highlights the salience of collective identity place and connection within families as well as resources and regional politics in shaping a generation of families in Damascus

Qualitative Analysis in the Making Daniella Kuzmanovic, Andreas Bandak, 2014-10-10 How do scholars transform qualitative data into analysis What does making analysis imply What happens in the space in between data and finalized analysis is notoriously difficult to talk about In other parts of the research process scholars and students are aided by method books that describe the technicalities of generating processing and sorting through data handbooks that teach academic writing and scholarly works that offer meta level theoretical perspectives Yet the path from qualitative data to analysis remains a black box Qualitative Analysis in the Making ventures into this black box The volume provides a means of speaking about how analyses emerge in the Humanities Contributors from disciplines such as anthropology history and sociology of religion all employ an analytical double take They revisit one of their analyses analyzing how this particular analysis came into being Such analyses of an analysis are neither confessions nor step by step recounts of what happened Rather the volume argues that speaking of the space in between requires analytical displacement and the employment of fresh analytical takes This approach contributes to demystifying the path from qualitative data to finalized analysis It invites novel epistemological reflections among scholars and assists students in improving their analytical skills

Making Gardens of Their Own: Advice for Women, 1550-1750 Jennifer Munroe, 2016-12-05 During the period 1500 1750 a general shift in gardening practice took place from which emerged three distinct types of gardens traditional subsistence or kitchen gardens aesthetic gardens and gendered aesthetic gardens The gardening and husbandry manuals published during the period typified by the texts selected for this volume reveal how and what one planted was related to one's role in society These texts attest to the changing nature of gardening from a largely subsistence endeavour to an artful practice that became defined in gendered terms The texts reproduced have been divided into two parts gardening books for the country housewife and gardening books for ladies

Mapping Women, Making Politics Lynn Staeheli, Eleonore Kofman, Linda Peake, 2013-03-07 Mapping Women Making Politics demonstrates the multiple ways in which gender influences political processes and the politics of space The book begins by addressing feminism's theoretical and conceptual challenges to traditional political geography and then applies these perspectives to a range of settings and topics including nationalism migration development international relations elections social movements governance and the environment in the Global North and South

The Power of Good Deeds Diana Elizabeth Kendall, 2002 The Power of Good Deeds allows us to see behind the media image of upper class women and to observe how these women use their social power not only to benefit other less fortunate people but also to benefit themselves and their families The personal narratives of elite women as they describe their views on philanthropy the need for exclusivity in their by invitation only volunteer organizations such as the Junior League and The Links their childhood experiences and college years in prestigious schools and sororities and the debutante presentations and other upper class rituals in which they participate are drawn from Kendall's ethnographic research Participating in meetings and social functions with elite women in several Texas cities along with conducting systematic interviews the author gained unprecedented access to elite women across racial and ethnic categories The Power of Good Deeds provides new insights and greater depth to our knowledge about the upper classes and how the charitable activities of privileged women contribute to the process of legitimation maintaining an ideology of class based and race based segregation in the United States does not shy away from its challenges The book is designed for a general audience It provides interesting and informative reading for people interested in mathematics gender equity or organizational structures teachers of mathematics students at the high school college and graduate levels and members of more recently established organizations for women in mathematics and related fields or prospective founders of such organizations      The Making of a Market Juliette Levy,2012-01-01 During the nineteenth century Yucatán moved effectively from its colonial past into modernity transforming from a cattle ranching and subsistence farming economy to a booming export oriented agricultural economy Yucatán and its economy grew in response to increasing demand from the United States for henequen the local cordage fiber This henequen boom has often been seen as another regional and historical example of overdependence on foreign markets and extortionary local elites In The Making of a Market Juliette Levy argues instead that local social and economic dynamics are the root of the region's development She shows how credit markets contributed to the boom before banks and bank crises existed and how people borrowed before the creation of institutions designed specifically to lend As the intermediaries in this lending process notaries became unwitting catalysts of Yucatán's capitalist transformation By focusing attention on the notaries role in structuring the mortgage market rather than on formal institutions such as banks this study challenges the easy compartmentalization of local and global relationships and of economic and social relationships      Mothers Making Latin America Erin E. O'Connor,2014-03-10 Mothers Making Latin America utilizes a combination of gender scholarship and source material to dispel the belief that women were separated from or unimportant to central developments in Latin American history since independence Presents nuanced issues in gender historiography for Latin America in a readable narrative for undergraduate students Offers brief primary source document excerpts at the end of each chapter that instructors can use to stimulate class discussion Adheres to a focus on motherhood which allows for a coherent narrative that touches upon important themes without falling into a list of facts textbook style      Mother Jones Magazine ,1998-03 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues      Access to Power Cynthia Fuchs Epstein,Rose Laub Coser,2018-12-19 Originally published in 1981 this book is composed of papers that describe and analyse women's careers in government business and the professions It examines women's access to and participation in elite careers in the US and in selected countries of western and eastern Europe Britain France West Germany Austria Norway Finland Poland and Yugoslavia as well as in international organizations This book was an outgrowth of a conference on Women in decision making elites in cross national perspective held at King's College Cambridge University in July 1976 The countries represented were chosen because although they were at similar stages of economic development they exhibited differences in political structure ideology and tradition      Dynasties and Female Political Leaders in Asia Claudia Derichs,Mark R. Thompson,2013 This book is the first comprehensive academic effort to examine the phenomenon of top female political leaders in Asia It portrays prime ministers presidents and opposition leaders but it is not a conventional biographical volume Rather it analyzes female politicians by means of case studies that are based on a common theoretical framework The case studies were conducted over three years of field research which included interviews with the female leaders themselves and members of their inner circle Each chapter explores the similarities but also points to the distinctiveness of each female leader arising from political and social systems cultural and religious conditions and economic parameters Series Political Science Perspectives Politikwissenschaftliche Perspektiven Vol 16      Paternalism in a Southern City Edward J. Cashin, Glenn T. Eskew, 2012-02-01 These essays look at southern social customs within a single city in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the volume focuses on paternalism between masters and slaves husbands and wives elites and the masses and industrialists and workers How Augusta s millworkers homemakers and others resisted exploited or endured the constraints of paternalism reveals the complex interplay between race class and gender One essay looks at the subordinating effects of paternalism on women in the Old South slave free black and white and the coping strategies available to each group Another focuses on the Knights of Labor union in Augusta With their trappings of chivalry the Knights are viewed as a response by Augusta s white male millworkers to the emasculating maternalism to which they were subjected by their own wives and daughters and those of mill owners and managers Millworkers are also the topic of a study of mission work in their communities a study that gauges the extent to which religious outreach by elites was a means of social control rather than an outpouring of genuine concern for worker welfare Other essays discuss Augusta s aristocracy of color who had to endure the same effronteries of segregation as the city s poorest blacks the role of interracial cooperation in the founding of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church as a denomination and of Augusta s historic Trinity CME Church and William Jefferson White an African American minister newspaper editor and founder of Morehouse College The varied and creative responses to paternalism discussed here open new ways to view relationships based on power and negotiated between men and women blacks and whites and the prosperous and the poor      Routledge Library Editions: Women and Politics

Make Me a Man! Sikata Banerjee,2012-02-01 Make Me a Man argues that ideas about manhood play a key role in building and sustaining the modern nation It examines a particular expression of nation and manliness masculine Hinduism This ideal which emerged from India s experience of British imperialism is characterized by martial prowess muscular strength moral fortitude and a readiness to go to battle Embodied in the images of the Hindu soldier and the warrior monk masculine Hinduism is rooted in a rigid us versus them view of nation that becomes implicated in violence and intolerance Masculine Hinduism also has important connotations for women whose roles in this environment consist of the heroic mother chaste wife and celibate masculinized warrior All of these roles shore up the us versus them dichotomy and constrict women s lives by imposing particular norms and encouraging limits on women s freedom Sikata Banerjee notes that the nationalism defined by masculine Hinduism draws on a more general narrative of nation found in many cultures If the outcomes of this narrative are to be resisted the logic of masculinity armed manhood and nation need to be examined in diverse contexts
