Making Of The Dutch Landscape An Historical Geography Of The Netherlands:

The Making of the Dutch Landscape A. M. Lambert, 1971-01-01 The Making of the Dutch Landscape: an Historical Geography of the Netherlands Audrey M. Lambert, 1971 Landscape Ecology in the Dutch Context T.M. de Jong, J.N.M. Dekker, R. Posthoorn, 2017-04-03 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology Werkgemeenschap voor Landschapsecologisch Onderzoek about the Dutch National Ecological Network urban ecology and civil infrastructure The three topics among others show important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills The book focuses on urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features of the Netherlands and therefore presents an important view on landscape ecology in the Dutch context The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently The Agricultural Systems of the World David B. Grigg, 1974-11-07 This book is about the major agricultural systems of the world and the history and processes behind these systems The Dutch-American Farm David S. Cohen, 1993-08 A rich and readable source of information and interpretation New York History Cohen presents a detailed description of the everyday life of early Dutch settlers in New York and New Jersey He gives special attention to the rise of the Dutch Reformed Church in these areas and particularly the denomination's transformation into a subculture that could truly be considered American Bookman's Weekly An impressive study of material culture Choice The World the Plague Made James Belich, 2024-06-25 A groundbreaking history of how the Black Death unleashed revolutionary change across the medieval world and ushered in the modern age In 1346 a catastrophic plague beset Europe and its neighbours The Black Death was a human tragedy that abruptly halved entire populations and caused untold suffering but it also brought about a cultural and economic renewal on a scale never before witnessed The World the Plague Made is a panoramic history of how the bubonic plague revolutionized labour trade and technology and set the stage for Europe's global expansion James Belich takes readers across centuries and continents to shed new light on one of history's greatest paradoxes Why did Europe's dramatic rise begin in the wake of the Black Death Belich shows how plague doubled the per capita endowment of everything even as it decimated the population Many more people had disposable incomes Demand grew for silks sugar spices furs gold and slaves Europe expanded to satisfy that demand and plague provided the means Labour scarcity drove more use of waterpower wind power and gunpowder Technologies like water powered blast furnaces heavily gunned galleons and musketry were fast tracked by plague A new crew culture of disposable males emerged to man the guns and galleons Setting the rise of Western Europe in global context Belich demonstrates how the mighty empires of the Middle East and Russia also flourished after the plague and how European expansion was deeply entangled with the Chinese and other peoples throughout the world

Basic Concepts for Simple and Complex Liquids Jean-Louis Barrat, Jean-Pierre Hansen, 2003-03-27 Presenting a unified approach this book focusses on the concepts and theoretical methods that are necessary for an understanding of the physics and chemistry of the fluid state The authors do not attempt to cover the whole field in an encyclopedic manner Instead important ideas are presented in a concise and rigorous style and illustrated with examples from both simple molecular liquids and more complex soft condensed matter systems such as polymers colloids and liquid crystals

Environmental History of the Rhine-Meuse Delta P.H. Nienhuis, 2008-05-06 This unique text presents the environmental history of the lowland delta of the rivers Rhine and Meuse It is an ecological story of evolving human environmental relations and how they cope with climate change and sea level rise The text offers a combination of in depth ecology and environmental history The synthesis presents a blueprint for future management and restoration from progressive reclamation of land in the past to adaptation of human needs to the forces of nature

Mohawk Frontier, Second Edition Thomas E. Burke Jr., 2009-02-05 This is the fascinating story of the Dutch community at Schenectady a village that grew out of the wilderness along the northern frontier of New Netherland in the 1660s Drawing upon a wealth of original documents Thomas Burke renders an engaging portrait of a small but dynamic Dutch village in the twilight years of the New Netherland colony Despite the proximity of the Mohawks Schenectady's residents when they were not quarreling amongst themselves made their living more from farming and raising livestock than trading Due to a scarcity of labor Schenectady became one of the most diverse and energized communities in the region attracting servants and tenant farmers and paving the way for slavery Its northern frontier location however made it a vulnerable target during the many conflicts between the French and English that erupted in the late seventeenth century Bringing Schenectady fully out of the historical shadow of its large neighbor Albany Thomas Burke reveals both the intricate depths of a small Dutch village and how many aspects of its story mirrored the broader histories of New Netherland and New York This second edition of the classic history features a new introduction by William Starna which updates key research and issues that have arisen since its initial publication

The Reformation of Community Charles H. Parker, 1998-11-28 By the time of the Calvinist Reformation the cities of Holland had established a very long tradition of social provision for the poor in the civic community Calvinists however intended to care for their own church members who were by definition within the household of faith through the deaconate a confessional relief agency This book examines the relationship between municipal and ecclesiastical relief agencies in the six chief cities of Holland Dordrecht Haarlem Delft Leiden Amsterdam and Gouda from the public establishment of the Reformed Church in 1572 to the aftermath of the Synod of Dort The author argues that the conflict between charitable organizations reveal competing conceptions of Christian community that came to the fore as a result of the Dutch Reformation This is the first comparative study of poor relief in Holland which contributes to our understanding of the Reformation throughout Europe

Passion and Control: Dutch Architectural Culture of the Eighteenth Century Freek Schmidt, 2017-07-28 Passion and Control explores Dutch architectural culture of the eighteenth century revealing the central importance of architecture to society in this period and redefining long established paradigms of early modern architectural history Architecture was a passion for many of the men and women in this book wealthy patrons burgomasters princes and scientists were all in turn infected with architectural mania It was a passion shared with artists architects and builders and a vast cast of Dutch society who contributed to a complex web of architectural discourse and who influenced building practice The author presents a rich tapestry of sources to reconstruct the cultural context and meaning of these buildings as they were perceived by contemporaries including representations in texts drawings and prints and builds on recent research by cultural historians on consumerism material culture and luxury print culture and the public sphere and the history of ideas and mentalities

The Baltic and the North Seas Merja-Liisa Hinkkanen, David

Kirby,2013-06-17 Exploring the themes of the human relationship with the marine environment and the ways in which the peoples of Northern Europe have experienced and exploited their seas this book reveals how human perception of the northern seas has changed over time Drawing on a wide variety of sources from Denmark and Britain to Norway Finland and Germany The Baltic and the North Seas is an insightful and colourful history of the politics economy and culture of this intriguing region

Money in the Dutch Republic Sebastian Felten,2022-03-10 The Dutch Republic was an important hub in the early modern world economy a place where hundreds of monies were used alongside each other Sebastian Felten explores regional European and global circuits of exchange by analysing everyday practices in Dutch cities and villages in the period 1600 1850 He reveals how for peasants and craftsmen stewards and churchmen merchants and metallurgists money was an everyday social technology that helped them to carve out a livelihood With vivid examples of accounting and assaying practices Felten offers a key to understanding the internal logic of early modern money This book uses new archival evidence and an approach informed by the history of technology to show how plural currencies gave early modern users considerable agency It explores how the move to uniform national currency limited this agency in the nineteenth century and thus helps us make sense of the new plurality of payments systems today

Building on Water Salvatore Ciriaco,2006-05 A fundamental natural resource water and its use not only reflect modes of production but also that complex interplay between resources and their exploitation and domination by various social agents who in their turn are inevitably influenced by the abundance or rarity of water supplies Focusing on scientific social and economic issues from the 16th to the 19th century the author one of Italy's leading historians in this field looks at the innumerable conflicts that arose over water resources and the environmental impact of projects intended to control them Venice and Holland are undoubtedly the two most fascinating cases of societies built on water with the conquest of vast expanses of marshland either inland or on the coast the Dutch polders or the Venetian lagoon not only stimulating agricultural production but also nurturing a deeply felt relationship between the local populations and the element of water itself The author rounds off his study by looking at the influence the hydraulic technology developed in Holland would have on many European countries France England and Germany in particular and at questions raised by contemporaries about the environmental impact of agricultural progress and its effects upon the social economic equilibria within the communities concerned

Building a Public Judaism Saskia Coenen Snyder,2013-01-08 Coenen Snyder considers what the architecture and construction of nineteenth century European synagogues reveal about the social progress of modern European Jews The process of claiming a Jewish space was a marker of acculturation but not full acceptance she argues The new edifices even if spectacular revealed the limits of Jewish integration
