Making Our Schools More Effective What Matters And What Works:

Making Our Schools More Effective Martin Patchen, 2004 Making Schools Matter Satu Repo, 1998 Making Schools Matter is an anthology of articles and interviews about classroom issues of continuing importance in education today The contributors to this anthology are drawn from across Canada as well as abroad They offer practical advice on how to develop anti racism and anti sexism programs to interest students in science make history and social studies relevant create a curriculum that s dedicated to social justice Watching these good teachers at work we too can learn to engage students in their subjects stretch them as individuals and help them to think as part of a larger community Teachers who care about the role schools play in creating thoughtful well rounded individuals in a democratic society will find Making Schools Matter a rich source of ideas An Our Schools Our Selves book How Power Works in Schools and Why It Matters for Maximizing Students' Learning Jacob W. Neumann, 2024-02-02 People typically misunderstand how power works in schools Common thinking says that things like high stakes testing school reform efforts and political mandates exert the most power on schools The reality however is that power comes from everywhere It isn t a thing that only certain people possess nor does it operate linearly as in simple actions and reactions Instead power acts more like a web if you exert power in one part of a school the effects often spread across the rest of it The usual emphasis on big easy to see influences causes schools to focus on the wrong concerns the big public ones instead of the ones which make the most impact the small daily ones This book examines everyday phenomena inside schools to reveal the complexity and nuance of power and makes practical suggestions for how schools can manage power more effectively to maximize students learning Leadership Matters 3.0: How Leaders At All Levels Can Create Great Schools Andy Buck, 2018-07-31 FULLY REVISED AND UPDATED This book is just one element of a suite of resources designed to help improve the educational outcomes for all children by empowering educational leaders in national regional and local contexts to examine refine and develop their leadership skills In this revised and updated edition the author takes an in depth and diagnostic approach encouraging leaders at all levels in schools to think about their own personal qualities their specific situation their own leadership actions and their own overall leadership approach Developed alongside the book the Leadership Matters website gives school leaders affordable access to high quality online diagnostic tools videos and other leadership resources Everything on the website including the 40 exclusive videos is designed around the same 40 topics from the book known as the LM40 making it really easy for busy school leaders to find what they need School Matters Peter Mortimore, Pamela Sammons, Louise Stoll, Russell Ecob, 1988-01-01 The authors trace the fortunes over a period of four years of 2000 students in 50 randomly selected London elementary schools Journal New South Wales. Bureau of Education, 1916 Reconsidering Science Learning Patricia Murphy, Eileen Scanlon, Jeff Thomas, Elizabeth Whitelegg, 2003-12-16 This informative book looks at science learning in a wide range of contexts It is divided into three parts Part one deals with the arguments put forward for studying science and includes a discussion on what science learners need to know about the nature of science and how decisions about what forms science curricula are made Part two includes articles on the processes by which science is learned and part three deals with inclusivity and diversity in science learning and what widening participation means for science education This is a companion book to Mediating Science Learning through ICT also published by RoutledgeFalmer Reconsidering Science Learning will be of particular interest to teachers on masters courses in science education and academics with an interest in science education Developing Teachers Joseph O'Beirne Milner, Roy A. Edelfelt, Peter T. Wilbur, 2001 Developing Teachers adds a totally new level of specificity to the understanding of fifth year programs as a solid entrance into the teaching profession The special feature of the programs at many of these universities are compelling innovations that other universities will want to copy The book is a guide for outstanding students who want to enter such programs a rough template for other universities who want to construct such a program and a careful analysis of the field for scholars and other persons interested in some of the best efforts in teacher education The Classical Weekly , 1911 The Dublin Review , 1879
