Making American Literatures In High School College:

Making American Literatures in High School and College Anne Ruggles Gere, Peter Shaheen, 2001 19 chapters discuss various aspects of handling American literature in a multicultural classroom from dealing with anthologies to helping students learn to think critically about what they are reading and how to pair classic and contemporary texts so they will enrich the curriculum Resources in Education ,2001-10 Teaching Transatlanticism Linda K Hughes, 2015-02-05 The 18 chapters in this book outline conceptual approaches to the field and provide practical resources for teaching ranging from ideas for individual class sessions to full syllabi and curricular frameworks Literature in the Making Nancy Glazener, 2016 In the eighteenth century literature meant learned writings by the twentieth century literature had come to be identified with imaginative aesthetically significant works and academic literary studies had developed special protocols for interpreting and valuing literary texts Literature in the Making examines what happened in between how literature came to be more precisely specified and valued how it was organized into genres canons and national traditions and how it became the basis for departments of modern languages and literatures in research universities Modern literature the version of literature familiar today was an international invention but it was forged when literary cultures traditions and publishing industries were mainly organized nationally Literature in the Making examines modern literature's coalescence and institutionalization in the United States considered as an instructive instance of a phenomenon that was going global Since modern literature initially offered a way to formulate the value of legacy texts by authors such as Homer Cervantes and Shakespeare however the development of literature and literary culture in the U S was fundamentally transnational Literature in the Making argues that Shakespeare studies one of the richest tracts of nineteenth century U S literary culture was a key domain in which literature came to be valued both for fuelling modern projects and for safeguarding values and practices that modernity put at risk a foundational paradox that continues to shape literary studies and literary culture Bringing together the histories of literature's competing conceptualizations its print infrastructure its changing status in higher education and its life in public culture during the long nineteenth century Literature in the Making offers a robust account of how and why literature mattered then and matters now By highlighting the lively collaboration between academics and non academics that prevailed before the ascendancy of the research university starkly divided experts from amateurs Literature in the Making also opens new possibilities for envisioning how academics might partner with the reading public Youth Poets Korina M. Jocson, 2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse
