In Making China Modernized Wenhui Cai, 1996      In Making China Modernized Wenhui Cai, 1993      China's Modernization I Georg Peter, Reuß-Markus Krauß, 2015-09-09

The idea of only one way leading to a modern society seems to be hardly tenable. But even if we agree to this, our theories and terms describing modernization are gained on our own Western history. So social science has to reconsider its basic terms to describe China's modernization and maybe even the understanding of modernization itself.

The first of two volumes on China's modernization collects articles by leading Chinese and Western scientists focusing on the main conflicts and differences this process involves. In a first section Changing China Dealing with Diversity Björn Alperman analyses the terms Class, Citizenship and Individualization in China's Modernization. Andrew Kipnis analyses the Chinese Nation Building as Instead of and Before Globalization while John R. Gibbins examines Principles for Cosmopolitan Societies. Values for Cosmopolitan Places. On Modernization Law, Business and Economy in China the second section deals with Modernizing Chinese Law. The Protection of Private Property in China by Sanzhu Zhu. Chinese Organizations as Groups of People Towards a Chinese Business Administration by Peter J. Peverelli and Income Gaps in Economic Development Differences among Regions Occupational Groups and Ethnic Groups by Ma Rong. The last section Thinking Differentiations Chinese Origin and the Western Culture concentrates on the role of religion with articles by Richard Madsen Christianity and Hybrid Modernity in China and Thorsten Botz Bornstein Confucianism Puritanism and the Transcendental China and America. Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom argues that Nathan Sharansky's test for free nations should take regional variations into account in China and the Town Square Test In Metaphor Poetry and Cultural Implicature Ying Zhang examines if the Western understanding of metaphor can be transferred to Chinese language and culture. The additional rubric On Contemporary Philosophy involves three articles about the question Can Science Change our Notion of Existence by Jody Azzouni The Epistemological Significance of Practices by Alan Millar and On Cappelen and Hawthorne's Relativism and Monadic Truth by J. Adam Carter.

The Modernization of China Rozman, 1982-08

In the Modernization of China an interdisciplinary team of scholars collaborate closely to provide the first systematic integrated analysis of China in transformation from an agrarian based to an urbanized and industrialized society Moving from the legacy of the Ming and Ch'ing dynasties to the reforms and revolutions of the 20th century the authors seek reasons for China's inability to achieve rapid steady growth during a 200 year long struggle to modernize They examine the changing shape of Chinese society the role of the state in local politics military affairs economics the development of the educational system changes in family population and settlement patterns science and technology world views and foreign relations And they make frequent comparisons between China's experience with growth and that of two other latecomers to modernization Japan and Russia The result is a book that brings much needed clarity and perspective to our understanding of China and the way a great civilization attempts to meet the challenge of modernity
