Making Of Britain The Dark Ages:

The Making of Britain Lesley M. Smith,1984 A Brief History of Life in the Middle Ages Martyn Whittock,2013-02-07
Using wide ranging evidence Martyn Whittock shines a light on Britain in the Middle Ages bringing it vividly to life in this fascinating new portrait that brings together the everyday and the extraordinary Thus we glimpse 11th century rural society through a conversation between a ploughman and his master The life of Dick Whittington illuminates the rise of the urban elite The stories of Roger the Raker who drowned in his own sewage a merman imprisoned in Orford Castle and the sufferings of the Jews of Bristol reveal the extraordinary diversity of medieval society Through these characters and events and using the latest discoveries and research the dynamic and engaging panorama of medieval England is revealed A Cultural History of the English Language Gerry Knowles,2014-05-01 This book presents a new interpretation of the history of English Access to large corpora of English has allowed scholars to assess the minutiae of linguistic change with much greater precision than before often pinpointing the beginnings of linguistic innovations in place and time The author uses the findings from this research to relate major historical events to change in the language in particular to areas of linguistic inquiry that have been of particular importance in recent years such as discourse analysis stylistics and work on pidgins and creoles The book does not attempt to chronicle changes in syntax or pronunciation and spelling but is designed to complement a corpus based study of formal changes The story of English is brought up to the late 1990s to include amongst other things discussions of Estuary English and the implications of the information superhighway Handbook of Comparative and Development Public Administration Ali Farazmand,2019-02-21 With contributions from nearly 80 international experts this comprehensive resource covers diverse issues aspects and features of public administration and policy around the world It focuses on bureaucracy and bureaucratic politics in developing and industrialized countries and emphasizing administrative performance and policy implementation as well as political system maintenance and regime enhancement The book covers the history of public administration and bureaucracy in Persia Greece Rome and Byzantium and among the Aztecs Incas and Mayas public administration in small island states Eastern Europe and ethics and other contemporary issues in public administration British Sources of Information P. Jackson,2003-09-02 This comprehensive and versatile reference source will be a most important tool for anyone wishing to seek out information on virtually any aspect of British affairs life and culture The resources of a detailed bibliography directory and journals listing are combined in this single volume forming a unique guide to a multitude of diverse topics British politics government society literature thought arts economics history and geography Academic subjects as taught in British colleges and universities are covered with extensive reading lists of books and journals and sources of information for each discipline making this an invaluable manual The Making of the Middle Ages Marios Costambeys,Andrew Hamer,Martin Heale,2007-04-01 Liverpool's contribution to the modern construction of the middle ages is here recognized for the first time From the eighteenth century to the twenty first scholars from Merseyside have made pioneering advances in fields as diverse as Celtic philology and manuscript collecting each in their own way contributing to our steadily deepening understanding of the real middle ages and to the widening use to which images of the middle ages have been put Merseyside presents in microcosm the different building blocks of the modern middle ages In addition to its local focus this book therefore also examines some of the most significant aspects of the modern study of the middle ages in the round It offers fresh perspectives from leading experts in their fields on medieval Celtic languages on English poetic literature on heroes on pageantry on mystery plays and on the effect of nationalist perspectives on the writing of medieval history Tracing the burgeoning appreciation in Merseyside and beyond of the period in which the city was founded this collection of essays is a fitting commemoration of Liverpool s octocentenary

Our Sea of Islands Matthew Boyd Goldie, Sebastian Sobiecki, 2023-12-26 This book considers how to conceive of the group of islands known in our time as the British Isles in the Late Middle Ages Was the archipelago considered one geographical unit Was it an it or were the islands a they Singular or plural Contributions consider possible paths to thinking about late medieval archipelagism and in doing so highlight the inconsistencies and contradictions in medieval and modern conceptions of the region

The Making of the British Landscape Francis Pryor, 2010-06-03 This is the changing story of Britain as it has been preserved in our fields roads buildings towns and villages mountains forests and islands From our suburban streets that still trace out the boundaries of long vanished farms to the Norfolk Broads formed when medieval peat pits flooded from the ceremonial landscapes of Stonehenge to the spread of the railways evidence of how man s effect on Britain is everywhere In The Making of the British Landscape eminent historian archaeologist and farmer Francis Pryor explains how to read these clues to understand the fascinating history of our land and of how people have lived on it throughout time Covering both the urban and rural and packed with pictures maps and drawings showing everything from how we can still pick out Bronze Age fields on Bodmin Moor to how the Industrial Revolution really changed our landscape this book makes us look afresh at our surroundings and really see them for the first time

The Economy of Medieval Wales, 1067-1536 Matthew Frank Stevens, 2019-10-01 This book surveys the economy of Wales from the first Norman intrusions of 1067 to the Act of Union of England and Wales in 1536 Key themes include the evolution of the agrarian economy the foundation and growth of towns the adoption of a money economy English colonisation and economic exploitation the collapse of Welsh social structures and rise of economic individualism the disastrous effect of the Glynd r rebellion and ultimately the alignment of the Welsh economy to the English economy Comprising four chapters a narrative history is presented of the economic history of Wales

1067 1536 and the final chapter tests the applicability in a Welsh context of the main theoretical frameworks that have been developed to explain long term economic and social change in medieval Britain and Europe Shakespeare, Catholicism, and the Middle Ages Alfred Thomas, 2018-06-18 Whereas traditional scholarship assumed that William Shakespeare used the medieval past as a negative foil to legitimate the present Shakespeare Catholicism and the Middle Ages offers a revisionist perspective arguing that the playwright valorizes the Middle Ages in order to critique the oppressive nature of the Tudor Stuart state In examining Shakespeare's Richard II The Merchant of Venice Hamlet King Lear Macbeth and The Winter's Tale the text explores how Shakespeare repossessed the medieval past to articulate political and religious dissent By comparing these and other plays by Shakespeare's contemporaries with their medieval analogues Alfred Thomas argues that Shakespeare was an ecumenical writer concerned with promoting tolerance in a highly intolerant and partisan age

The Academy, 1908 Law and Legal Consciousness in Medieval Scotland Hector L. MacQueen, 2023-10-20 This book explores the rise of a Scottish common law from the twelfth century on despite the absence until around 1500 of a secular legal profession Key stimuli were the activity of church courts and canon lawyers in Scotland coupled with the example provided by neighbouring England's common law The laity's legal consciousness arose from exposure to law by way of constant participation in legal processes in court and daily transactions This experience enabled some to become judges pleaders in court and transactional lawyers and lay the foundations for an emergent professional group by the end of the medieval period Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art, 1908 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 War and the Making of Medieval Monastic Culture Katherine Allen Smith, 2011 The monastic life traditionally considered as an area of withdrawal from the world is here shown to be shaped by metaphors of war and to be actively engaged with battle in the world outside History of the Manufacture of Iron in All Ages James Moore Swank, 1884 The Making of Medieval History G. A. Loud, Martial Staub, 2017 Essays on the discipline of medieval history and its practitioners from the late eighteenth century onwards A hugely interesting set of essays reflecting on a variety of ways in which medieval history has developed to the present time Scholarship of the highest standard deeply thought provoking and deeply engaged with the inheritances and future tasks of medieval academic history The collection will be essential reading for all medievalists John Arnold Professor of Medieval History University of Cambridge Medieval history is present in many forms in our world Monuments from the Middle Ages or inspired by them are a familiar feature of landscapes across Europe and beyond the period between the end of the Roman Empire in Western Europe and the Reformation and European expansion is an essential part of our imagination be it conveyed through literature the arts science fiction or even video games it is also commonly invoked in political debates Specialists in the field have played a major role in shaping modern perceptions of the era But little is known about the factors that have influenced them and their work The essays in this volume provide original insights into the fabric and dissemination of medieval history as a scholarly discipline from the late eighteenth century onwards The case studies range from the creation of specific images of the Middle Ages to the ways in which medievalists have dealt with European identity contributed to making and deconstructing myths and more specifically addressed questions relating to land and frontiers as well as to religion GRAHAM A LOUD is Professor of Medieval History at the University of Leeds MARTIAL STAUB is Professor of Medieval History at the University of Sheffield Contributors Christine Caldwell Ames Peter Biller Michael Borgolte Patrick Geary Richard Hitchcock Bernhard Jussen Joep Leerssen G A Loud Christian L bke Jinty Nelson Bastian Schl ter Martial Staub Ian Wood
