Making Of The Pre By Francis Ponge:

The Making of the Pre by Francis Ponge, 1982-10-01 La Fabrique Du Pré Francis Ponge, 1979 The making of the Pr is the culmination of Francis Ponge's loving struggle with language To say that this work is just a text with illustrations or simply a notebook of preliminary sketches leading to a final poem or to call it merely a self-demonstrating development of a thought process a hymn of praise or an essay on the way that language represents objects and emotions would be insufficient Introduction Francis Ponge and the Nature of Things Patrick Alan Meadows, 1997 One of the most significant French poets of the twentieth century Francis Ponge is treated in this study The fundamental role of atomistic philosophy in Ponge's writings especially as expressed in Lucretius's De Rerum Natura is discussed Meadows is the first author to examine Ponge's writings in a book-length study The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004-01-01 An influential social thinker the late Richard Harvey Brown was professor of sociology at the University of Maryland and the author of Toward a Democratic Science Scientific Narration and Civic Communication published by Yale University Press Philosophy and Poetry Ranjan Ghosh, 2019-06-04 Ever since Plato's Socrates exiled the poets from the ideal city in The Republic Western thought has insisted on a strict demarcation between philosophy and poetry Yet might their long-standing quarrel hide deeper affinities This book explores the distinctive ways in which twentieth-century and contemporary continental thinkers have engaged with poetry and its contribution to philosophical meaning making challenging us to rethink how philosophy has been changed through its encounters with poetry In wide-ranging reflections on thinkers such as Heidegger Gadamer Arendt Lacan Merleau-Ponty Deleuze Irigaray Badiou Kristeva and Agamben among others distinguished contributors consider how different philosophers encountered the force and intensity of poetry and the negotiations that took place as they sought resolutions of the quarrel Instead of a clash between competing worldviews they figured the relationship between philosophy and poetry as one of productive mutuality leading toward new modes of thinking and understanding Spanning a range of issues with nuance and rigor this compelling and comprehensive book opens new possibilities for philosophical poetry and the poetics of philosophy Merleau-Ponty's Poetic of the World Galen A. Johnson, Mauro Carbone, Emmanuel de Saint Aubert, 2020-08-04 Merleau-Ponty has long been known as one of the most important philosophers of aesthetics yet most discussions of his aesthetics focus on visual art This book corrects that balance by turning to Merleau-Ponty's extensive engagement with literature From Proust Merleau-Ponty developed his conception of sensible ideas from Claudel his conjoining of birth and knowledge as co naissance from Valéry came implex or the animal of words and the chiasma of two destinies Literature also provokes the questions of expression metaphor and truth and the meaning of a Merleau-Pontian poetics The poetic of Merleau-Ponty is the book argues a poetic of the flesh a poetic of mystery and a poetic of the visible in its relation to the invisible Ultimately theoretical figures or figuratives that appear at the threshold between philosophy and literature enable the possibility of a new ontology What is at stake is the very meaning of philosophy itself and its mode of expression Circling the Canon, Volume I Marjorie Perloff, 2019-11-15

One of our most important contemporary critics Marjorie Perloff has been a widely published and influential reviewer especially of poetry and poetics for over fifty years Circling the Canon Volume I covers roughly the first half of Perloff's career beginning with her first ever review on Anthony Hecht's The Hard Hours The reviews in this volume culled from a wide range of scholarly journals literary reviews and national magazines trace the evolution of poetry in the mid to late twentieth century as well as the evolution of Perloff as a critic Many of the authors whose works are reviewed in this volume are major figures such as W B Yeats Ezra Pound Sylvia Plath and Frank O'Hara Others including Mona Van Duyn and Richard Hugo were widely praised in their day but are now all but forgotten Still others David Antin Edward Dorn or the Language poets exemplify an avant garde that was to come into its own The Making of an Avant-Garde Niilo

Radium of the Word Craig Dworkin,2020-12-09 With fresh insight and contemporary relevance Radium of the Word argues that a study of the form of language yields meanings otherwise inaccessible through ordinary reading strategies Attending to the forms of words rather than to their denotations Craig Dworkin traces hidden networks across the surface of texts examining how typography and even individual letters and marks of punctuation can reveal patterns that are significant without being symbolic fully meaningful without communicating any preordained message Radium of the Word takes its title from Mina Loy s poem for Gertrude Stein which hails her as the Madame Curie of the laboratory of vocabulary In this spirit Dworkin considers prose as a dynamic literary form characterized by experimentation Dworkin draws on examples from writers as diverse as Lyn Hejinian William Faulkner and Joseph Roth He takes up the status of the proper name in Modernism with examples from Stein Loy and Guillaume Apollinaire and he offers in depth analyses of individual authors from the counter canon of the avant garde including P Inman Russell Atkins N H Pritchard and Andy Warhol The result is an inspiring intervention in contemporary poetics Choice in Everyday Life Robert Urquhart,2004-11-27 Social choice and decision making are key topics in economic theory and Robert Urquhart delves into the world of philosophy in this superb new book The Echoing Green Cecily Parks,2016-03-15 The Echoing Green Poems of Fields Meadows and Grasses is a unique anthology of poetry about the natural world The rich poetic history of grass spans the centuries from the pastoral poems of ancient Rome to the fields and prairies of the New World The rapturous idealizations of William Blake s echoing green and William Wordsworth s splendour in the grass stand in vivid contrast to the obliterating greenery on human battlefields in war poems such as John McCrae s In Flanders Fields and Carl Sandburg s Grass or to the work of contemporary poets Lucia Perillo Harryette Mullen Denise Levertov and Gary Soto among them who reflect on an age of environmental crisis Here is a rich array of poets from around the world including Virgil T ao Ch ien Bash Andrew Marvell Robert Burns Victor Hugo Christina Rossetti Rainer Maria Rilke Anna Akhmatova Willa Cather Ingeborg Bachmann Ted Hughes Seamus Heaney Tomas Transtr mer Sherman Alexie and Derek Walcott in a dazzling celebration of our complicated relationship to nature The American Lawn Georges Teyssot,1999 The site of political demonstrations sporting events and barbecues and the object of loving if not obsessive care and attention the lawn is also symbolically tied to our notions of community and civic responsibility serving in the process as one of the foundations of democracy The Storm of Creativity Kyna Leski,2020-08-11 The stages of the creative process from unlearning to beginning again seen through examples from the practice of artists architects poets and others Although each instance of creativity is singular and specific Kyna Leski tells us the creative process is universal Artists architects poets inventors scientists and others all navigate the same stages of the process in order to discover something that does not yet exist All of us must work our way through the empty page the blank screen writer s block confusion chaos and doubt In this book Leski draws from her observations and experiences as a teacher student maker writer and architect to describe the workings of the creative process Leski sees the creative process as being like a storm it slowly begins to gather and take form until it overtakes us if we are willing to let it It is dynamic continually in motion it starts stops rages and abates ebbs and flows In illustrations that accompany each chapter she maps the arc of the creative process by tracing the path of water droplets traveling the stages of a storm Leski describes unlearning ridding ourselves of preconceptions only when we realize what we don t know can we pose the problem that we need to solve We gather evidence with notebook jottings research the collection of objects propelling the process We perceive and conceive we look ahead without knowing where we are going we make connections We pause retreat and stop only to start again To illustrate these stages of the process Leski draws on examples of creative practice that range from Paul Klee to Steve Jobs from the discovery of continental drift to the design of Antoni Gaudí s Sagrada Família Creativity Leski tells us is a path with no beginning or end it is ongoing This revelatory view of the creative process will be an essential guide for anyone engaged in creative discovery

The Creative Process Unlearning Problem Making Gathering and Tracking Propelling Perceiving and Conceiving Seeing Ahead Connecting Pausing Continuing The Art Criticism of Francis Ponge Shirley Ann Jordan,1994 This study of Francis Ponge s essays on contemporary artists L Atelier contemporain attempts to broaden the popular view of the author as a poet of objects It explores Ponge s perception of art criticism as an inherently problematic genre and exposes the inhibitions surrounding the production of the essays The study demonstrates how Ponge s essays on artists parallel developments in his other works They are seen as instrumental in his movement towards open texts and a stress on the creative process itself as well as opportunities to reaffirm his philosophical and aesthetic stance Lying about the Wolf David Solway,1997 Addressing some of the major issues plaguing education particularly the scandal of illiteracy and the growing mediocrity in academic performance David Solway argues that the current state of affairs in education is the result not simply of poor training in elementary school or the disappearance of grammatical study from the overall curriculum but of a larger cultural problem Les Misérables Victor Hugo,2013-10-01 NOW A SIX PART MINISERIES ON MASTERPIECE ON PBS The only completely unabridged paperback edition of Victor Hugo s masterpiece a sweeping tale of love loss valor and passion Introducing one of the most famous characters in literature Jean Valjean the noble peasant imprisoned for stealing a loaf of bread Les Misérables ranks among the greatest novels of all time In it Victor Hugo takes readers deep into the Parisian underworld immerses them in a battle between good and evil and carries them to the barricades during the uprising of 1832 with a breathtaking realism that is unsurpassed in modern prose Within his dramatic story are themes that capture the intellect and the emotions crime and punishment the relentless persecution of Valjean by Inspector Javert the desperation of the prostitute Fantine the amorality of the rogue Th nardier and the universal desire to escape the prisons of our own minds Les Mis rables gave Victor Hugo a canvas upon which he portrayed his criticism of the French political and judicial systems but the portrait that resulted is larger than life epic in scope an extravagant spectacle that dazzles the senses even as it touches the heart Translated by Lee Fahnestock and Norman Macafee based on the classic nineteenth century Charles E Wilbour translation Includes an Introduction by Lee Fahnestock and an Afterword by Chris Bohjalian
