Marginal Man In A Colonial Society:

Marginal Man in a Colonial Society David H. De Queljo, 1974      Marginality, Power and Social Structure Rutledge M. Dennis, 2005-04-08 The articles in this book are intended to be a much needed corrective to the literature on marginality In the recent past and at present the concept of marginality has been used with little specificity and when used with specificity the delineation of the complex dimensions of the term has been less than satisfactory To illustrate the many ways in which marginality exists and operates in many societies Rutledge Dennis has assembled a rich array of articles designed to highlight the history and evolution of the concept of marginality along with the theorists issues and situations which prompted the use of the term and the issues for which the term is applicable today The very title of the volume comes into play here because though many of the early marginality theorists took the term into the realm of psychology the contributors to this volume who discussed the theory highlighted the social structural foundation of marginality Dennis sought a marriage of theory and research while assembling the articles for this volume For this reason he actively sought papers which used divergent research strategies to uncover the existence of marginality in its various forms and contexts Thus some of the papers utilize ethnographic and life history approaches whereas others use statistical analysis and historical data analysis In addition to theoretical and methodological concerns a major theme for this volume is the combination of both theory and method towards an investigation of issues and problems emanate from the social structure and are closely linked to power and domination      Colonialism and Nationalism in Asian Cinema Wimal Dissanayake, 1994-10-22 an important collective work for communication practitioners students and scholars who want to have a deeper understanding of film making in Asia and of the promotion of nationalism through communication Media Asia a momentous contribution to the study of colonialism and postcoloniality in Asia The Journal of Asian Studies This is an excellent model for studies in how the popular art and experimental cinemas function in the consideration of nationhood as a configuration of symbols This anthology provides an interesting discussion by offering a theoretical framework from which to examine the complex topics of nation state identity formation and collective history in the realm of cinema It becomes an even more effective tool by playing itself out within a diverse Asian context Afterimage Essays examine the representation of the interlocking discourses of nationhood and history in Asian cinema dealing with film traditions in Japan China Taiwan Korea Vietnam Thailand Indonesia India Sri Lanka and Australia      Identity In Asian Literature Lisbeth Littrup, 2013-10-28 First Published in 1995 This collection explores the formation of identity in Asian literature The main themes are the creation of identity its nature and the historical context of this process of formation At the same time the study also serves to introduce readers to the various streams of Asian literature and their related research traditions Suitable for course use      The 70's Biweekly Lu Pan, 2023-06-21 Taking The 70 s Biweekly an independent youth publication in the 1970s Hong Kong as the main thread this edited volume investigates an unexplored trajectory of Hong Kong s cultural and art production in the 1970s that represents the making of a dissent space by independent press and activist groups in the city The 70 s Biweekly stands out from many other independent magazines with its unique blending of radical political theories social activism avant garde art and local art and literature creations By taking the magazine as a nodal point of social and cultural activism from and around which actions debates community and artistic practices are formed and generated this book fills gaps in studies on how young Hong Kong cultural producers carved out an alternative creative and political space to speak against established authorities Split into three parts this book provides readers with a panoramic view of the political and cultural activism in Hong Kong during the 1970s writings on art and film and crucially interviews with former founders and contributors that reflect on how their participation led them to engage ideologically with their activism and community that extended far beyond the temporal and physical bounds of the magazine This unique collection represents a very valuable addition to the cultural history of the 1970s in Hong Kong and globally While the journal 70 s Biweekly serves as a connecting thread the volume in fact has broad ramifications documenting the political intellectual and cultural struggles of the anticolonial and incipient democracy movement in Hong Kong Sebastian Veg cole des hautes tudes en sciences sociales The 70 s Biweekly was significant and impactful in Hong Kong in the early 1970s It was an influential cultural and political platform during the early stage of the development of social movements in the colony An attempt to examine the publication and its wider impacts will further enrich the body of literature on Hong Kong society and culture Lui Tai lok The Education University of Hong Kong Asian American Studies Now Jean Yu-Wen Shen Wu, Thomas Chen, 2010-03-08 Asian American Studies Now truly represents the enormous changes occurring in Asian American communities and the world changes that require a reconsideration of how the interdisciplinary field of Asian American studies is defined and taught This comprehensive anthology arranged in four parts and featuring a stellar group of contributors summarizes and defines the current shape of this rapidly changing field addressing topics such as transnationalism U S imperialism multiracial identity racism immigration citizenship social justice and pedagogy Jean Yu wen Shen Wu and Thomas C Chen have selected essays for the significance of their contribution to the field and their clarity brevity and accessibility to readers with little to no prior knowledge of Asian American studies Featuring both reprints of seminal articles and groundbreaking texts as well as bold new scholarship Asian American Studies Now addresses the new circumstances new communities and new concerns that are reconstituting Asian America

Politics, Society and Culture in the Commonwealth Caribbean John Gaffar La Guerre, 1999 East Asia and Pacific Area [Special Papers Available]. Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1976 Foreign Affairs Research Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1974 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1880 Historical Dictionary of Malawi Owen J. M. Kalinga, 2011-12-09 Malawi established as the British protectorate of Nyasaland in 1891 gained its independence in 1964 and moved immediately into three decades of one party rule Since the mid 1990s however the country has held multi party elections as directed by its constitution and President Bingu wa Mutharika is currently serving his second term The fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of Malawi now newly expanded and updated covers a wide range of areas in Malawi history including the rise and fall of state systems religious and socio political movements the economy environment transportation war disease and natural sciences Author Owen J M Kalinga charts developments from pre history to the post Banda Malawi from Tom Bokwito to James Sangala and from the UMCA mission at Magomero to the second term of Bingu wa Mutharika s presidency paying particular attention to the individuals groups communities and forces that have molded this South African country The dictionary itself contains over 1 000 cross referenced entries on crucial aspects of Malawi history and it is the most extensive single volume reference work on Malawi available In addition to the dictionary entries Kalinga provides a chronology containing important dates and events and an informative bibliographical section organized by subject The final part of the bibliography gives the reader a list of current and obsolete newspapers and periodicals related to Malawi an ideal resource for further research This newly updated edition is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malawi

The Quest of Noel Croucher Vaudine England,1998-01-01 Noel Groucher nad a secret penchant for philanthropy From simple beginnings in England he arrived in Hong Kong at the turn of the century to live through eight decades of change on the China Coast Myster surrounded Noel Croucher Seen as tight fisted by some yet loved by others he endowed Hong Kong with its richest academic charity in The Croucher Foundation He became Commodore of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club and chairman of the Stock Exchange To many he was a throwback to the glory days of empire Yet he battled prejudice to get ahead in the colony That era has now passed This timely fresh look at the lives lived on the Coast through Noel Croucher s life story brings out the realities of those times

Catholics, Peasants, and Chewa Resistance in Nyasaland Ian Linden, 2023-09-01 Catholics Peasants and Chewa Resistance in Nyasaland examines the complex interplay between Catholic missionaries indigenous Chewa communities and colonial powers in Malawi during the late 19th and early 20th centuries Ian Linden with contributions from Jane Linden traces the history of the Chewa people who originally migrated from the Congo and their interactions with Portuguese missionaries and later British colonial forces The book explores how Catholic missionaries arriving in 1889 navigated a challenging socio political landscape shaped by Protestant competition Yao and Ngoni invasions and the growing influence of colonial administrators Despite their marginal position in the colonial society the Catholic missionaries found success among the more peripheral African groups such as the Alomwe and Sena immigrants as well as marginalized figures within Chewa society including lepers and orphans The book delves into the resistance efforts of the Chewa people particularly in response to colonial pressures while highlighting the role of Catholic missionaries as both spiritual leaders and advocates for social justice They championed the rights of women protested abuses and engaged with some of the most vulnerable members of society However the missionaries efforts were often complicated by their position as representatives of a once powerful but now discredited Church in a Protestant dominated colony Through a blend of historical analysis and ethnographic detail Linden paints a vivid picture of a missionary body torn between triumphalism and marginality caught in the delicate balance of resisting colonial forces while simultaneously seeking acceptance within them This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 The Essential Writings of Robert A. Hill Adam Ewing,2024-02-13 Bringing together Robert A Hill s most important writings for the first time this collection serves as a testament to Hill s legacy as a pioneering scholar activist archive builder and editor who shaped the study of Garveyism and pan Africanism Domicile and Diaspora Alison Blunt,2011-07-22 Domicile and Diaspora investigates geographies of home and identity for Anglo Indian women in the 50 years before and after Indian independence in 1947 The first book to study the Anglo Indian community past and present in India Britain and Australia The first book by a geographer to focus on a community of mixed descent Investigates geographies of home and identity for Anglo Indian women in the 50 years before and after Indian independence in 1947 Draws on interviews and focus groups with over 150 Anglo Indians as well as archival research Makes a distinctive contribution to debates about home identity hybridity migration and diaspora
