Education Marginalization in Sub-Saharan Africa Obed Mfum-Mensah, 2018-08-15 This book focuses on education policy framework for educating marginalized children in sub Saharan Africa It uses marginality as a critical discourse to highlight the complicated ways education policy making in sub Saharan Africa have constructed and perpetuated marginality in the region since Africa s encounters with Europe The book is organized around two parts each of which discusses a specific dimension of the marginality and education policy nexus Part I focuses on theorizations of marginality and education The theoretical framework on marginality and education outlines the definitional and conceptual backgrounds on marginality the complicated ways policies of the Christian missionaries colonial governments and postcolonial governments constructed and perpetuated marginality in the region Part II focuses on addressing the issue of marginality from theory to practice These chapters highlight the ways policies shaped the educational development schooling processes and educational outcomes of selected marginalized communities and groups Attention is given to schooling in rural communities the complexities of girls education in rural contexts education of Zongo Muslim communities violence in school in rural contexts and education collaboration in rural traditional communities The book argues that education policies in sub Saharan Africa fail to address the educational needs of marginalized children because current policy frameworks ae not based on examination of colonial policies which created the existing marginality In order to implement policies that address policy gaps and meet the educational needs of marginalized children strong synergies are necessary between education policy makers other education stakeholders and marginalized communities

Marginalized Voices Timothy B. Cremeens, 2018-06-28 The Orthodox Church has been characterized by some as the best kept secret in North America Making use of personal interviews and correspondence magazine and news articles and other publications Timothy Cremeens weaves the story of a spiritual renewal movement that began in the United States in the early 1960s and rapidly spread around the globe touching millions of Roman Catholics and Protestants what is today called the Charismatic Renewal Movement In 2017 this Movement celebrated its 50th Jubilee anniversary in the Roman Catholic Church However Cremeens presents here the never before heard story of that Movement among the Orthodox Churches in North America He recounts the history of this spiritual renewal movement through the first hand accounts and eyewitnesses of Orthodox clergy and laity who testify to their life changing encounters with the Holy Spirit

Theology and Ethics of Oppressed and Marginalized Peoples Nimi Wariboko, Raimundo Barreto, 2025-09-09 The book focuses on both historical and theological developments in world Christianity and social ethics especially ethical challenges and opportunities that face minorities oppressed marginalized and discriminated groups in any country or region of the world as we look to the future It addresses the issues of methods and practices in social ethics culture and morality in Christian communities and theological discourse and the virtues of Christian friendship in philosophical and practical terms All these engagements are geared toward deepening our knowledge about the ethical dimensions of world Christianity Christ and the Marginalized Elizabeth Hernandez, 2021-07-01 Have you ever lost something or someone of infinite value to you Have you ever been wounded in a profound way You are not alone The majority of us will confront times when we feel lost vulnerable and in need of a helping hand someone who will stretch out their hand and say Rise up Yet not everyone will have access to a trained professional or the financial resources to access those services and this is especially the case for the poor and downtrodden in our world today So many of us yearn to experience the healing of our souls encountering a shepherd helper with a caring spirit can lead us on the pathway to the other side of pain The average person can show compassion and grow in that ability if they are equipped to do so This book offers people of faith the lay counseling skills that will enable the church to help others in their brokenness and pain with the goal of strengthening many joining Christ in his work among the marginalized Longing for Belonging among the Marginalized in Urban Australia Ritsuko Kurita, 2024-09-23 Longing for Belonging among the Marginalized in Urban Australia examines how Indigenous people African refugees and impoverished Whites in urban Australia who are deemed undesirable citizens under neoliberal governance experience citizenship in their everyday lives Drawing on ethnography conducted in Adelaide and Sydney from 2014 to 2020 along with digital ethnography it elucidates a new sense of belonging being developed across these groups that is mediated by their shared experiences of displacement and predicaments While individuals of these groups are marginalized due to the reinforcement of race and homogenization of welfare beneficiaries as morally deficient and are ashamed to be aware of their norm violations a cross group sense of belonging has emerged that transverses racial and ethnic differences It is based on mutual care compassion and empathy or a community mediated by the ethics of care fostering a sense of belonging among members who according to other paradigms of relatedness might be seen as separate or unequal Ritsuko Kurita maintains that this new sense of belonging rooted in caring for others can contribute to the development of horizontal citizenship by temporarily bridging differences in race ethnicity class and gender which can challenge neoliberal citizenship that values economic rationality self autonomy and individualism Providing Chaplaincy to Youth and Young Adults Marginalized in King County Julie Lamay Vaughn, Dmin, 2018-01-17 Many young people in King County Washington are not connected to churches schools workplaces and other organizations Many of them live in poverty and they also lack education skills and spiritual care They can be seen as dropouts from school and as homeless persons sleeping on business doorsteps under trees on sidewalks and elsewhere In this thesis project Julie Lamay Vaughn founder of Hope Angels Ministry argues that marginalization occurs when people are systematically excluded from meaningful participation As a result they never get the chance to fulfill themselves as human beings The thesis project seeks to answer questions such as What are King County community leaders doing to help young adults who are marginalized Why are young people marginalized in a variety of situations What emotional and spiritual needs are being left unfilled Lamay also shares qualitative and quantitative data as well as interviews from marginalized individuals As a result of her findings she will be equipped to provide greater spiritual care to those who need it the most

Religion and Social Marginalization in Zimbabwe Togarasei, Lovemore, Bishau, David, Chitando, Ezra, 2020-07-13 Marginalization means being disregarded ostracized harassed disliked persecuted or generally looked down upon Marginalized people often include women and children the poor the disabled sexual religious or ethnic minorities refugees The marginalized are those who are socially politically culturally or economically excluded from main stream society In history the Church in Zimbabwe has played a role in improving the lives of the marginalized but what is religion especially Christianity doing for the marginalized now Although religion is also implicated in marginalisation the contributions in this volume did not address this angle as they focused on the role that religion can and should play to fight marginalization The chapters come from two conferences 2012 2014 that were held under the flag of ATISCA The contributions have been updated to include later developments and publications

Missional Leadership Nelus Niemandt, 2019-12-12 The purpose and aim of this book is to develop an appropriate leadership model for missional churches This implies a positioning of this book within the broader theology of mission and a consensus on the theology of the Missio Dei originating at the 1952 conference of the International Missionary Council in Willingen Germany In this approach to the theology of mission mission is understood as the work of the Trinitarian God and the church is privileged to participate in God's mission It is against this background that the growing consensus on missional ecclesiology challenges leadership models developed for a different time and a different kind of church with less or no emphasis on the missional character of the church The aim is to reflect theologically on the role of leadership in the missional church What kind of ideas about power authority and leadership are appropriate for a missional church New missional challenges demand new ideas about missional leadership Church organisation and leadership reflects a theological position there is a strong relation between ecclesiology and church organisation The nature of the church provides the framework to understand the character of the church What the church is determines what the church does The church organises what it does and agrees on rules that regulate ministries and organisation Issues such as the way the church organises and governs what it does and thus church leadership need to be answered against this background and understanding Church polity and organisation as well as leadership must reflect the identity calling life and order of the church This book therefore addresses life in the Trinity participation in the Missio Dei and contours of the missional church as the point of entry to develop leadership insights It contributes towards the development of an appropriate model of leadership for missional churches because although recent developments in the theology of mission comprehensively addressed the area of missional ecclesiology there is a gap in the development of a leadership model based on the concept of authority in the missional church Getting the Holy Ghost Peter Marina, 2013-01-30 This book carries an ethnographic signature in approach and style and is an examination of a small Brooklyn New York African American Pentecostal church congregation and is based on ethnographic notes taken over the course of four years The Pentecostal Church is known to outsiders almost exclusively for its members bizarre habit of speaking in tongues This ethnography however puts those outsiders inside the church pews as it paints a portrait of piety compassion caring love all embraced through an embodiment perspective as the church's members experience these forces in the most personal ways through religious conversion Central themes include concerns with the notion of spectacle because of the grand bodily display that is highlighted by spiritual struggle social aspiration punishment and spontaneous explosions of a variety of emotions in the public sphere The approach to sociology throughout this work incorporates the striking dialectic of history and biography to penetrate and interact with religiously inspired residents of the inner city in a quest to make sense both empirically and theoretically of this rapidly changing surprising and highly contradictory late modern church scene The focus on the individual process of becoming Pentecostal provides a road map into the church and canvasses an intimate view into the lives of its members capturing their stories as they proceed in their Pentecostal careers This book challenges important sociological concepts like crisis to explain religious seekership and conversion while developing new concepts such as God Hunting and Holy Ghost Capital to explain the process through which individuals become tongue speaking Pentecostals Church members acquire Holy Ghost Capital and construct a Pentecostal identity through a relationship narrative to establish personal status and power through conflicting tongue speaking ideas Finally this book examines the futures of the small and large institutionally affiliated Pentecostal Church and argues that the small Pentecostal Church is better able to resist modern rationalizing forces retaining the charisma that sparked the initial religious movement The power of charisma in the small church has far reaching consequences and implications for the future of Pentecostalism and its followers The Character of Wisdom Stephen Lowe, 2017-03-02 Wesley Carr's ministry within the Church of England is renowned and distinguished As Dean of Westminster Abbey he is often at the forefront of national religious ceremonies His ministry academic posts and widely acclaimed books have also established him as one of the leading pastoral theologians in recent times The Character of Wisdom brings together leading writers thinkers and broadcasters to reflect on Dr Carr's many and varied contributions to church and national life and on particular aspects of his ministry and writings The authors explore themes such as the nature of priestly ministry the role of clergy and the church the function of cathedrals ministry and the media church finance discipleship and vocation and New Testament theology Presenting an invaluable guide to the present and future shape of pastoral theology public theology and ministry this book shows how practising pastoral theology can hope to reveal something of the manifold wisdom of God The contributors to this volume are

Breger,Herbert R. Reginbogin,2022-03-22 The essays in this book cover a fast paced 150 years of Vatican diplomacy starting from the fall of the Papal States in 1870 to the present day They trace the transformation of the Vatican from a state like any other to an entity uniquely providing spiritual and moral sustenance in world affairs In particular the book details the Holy See's use of neutrality as a tool and the principal statecraft in its diplomatic portmanteau This concept of permanent neutrality as codified in the Lateran Treaties of 1929 is a central concept adding to the Vatican's uniqueness and as a result the analysis of its policies does not easily fit within standard international relations or foreign policy scholarship. These essays consider in detail the Vatican's history with permanent neutrality and its application in diplomacy toward delicate situations as for instance vis a vis Fascist Italy, Nazi Germany and Imperial Japan but also in the international relations of the Cold War in debates about nuclear non proliferation or outreach toward the third world including Cuba and Venezuela. The book also considers the ineluctable tension between pastoral teachings and realpolitik as the church faces a reckoning with its history.

Marching with the Marginalised Anthoniraj Thumma, 2012-01-01

About the Book: Pope Benedict XVI recently stated: 'The Church must of course ask if she does enough for social justice. It is a question of conscience which we must always pose ourselves. What must the Church do? What can she not do? What must she not do?' This book attempts to explore the relevant answers to those pertinent questions applying the Values of the Kingdom of God and Principles of the Social Doctrine of the Church to our context and exploring from the perspective of the Marginalised. This volume belongs to the Series on the People's Theology brought out by the author articulating the theological reflections emerging from the life struggles and experiential wisdom of the Marginalised. The author presents the insights in the book as suggestions and proposals for making our mission more relevant and effective by responding to the signs of the times and places through focusing on human rights and justice. This book invites us to proactively join the struggles of the Oppressed for liberation and interactively march with the Marginalised for realizing the Just Peace of the Divine Reign.

About the Author: Anthoniraj Thumma, a Catholic Priest from the Diocese of Nellore, secured Master degrees in Sociology as well as Systematic Theology and Doctorate in Religious Studies from the University of Madras. Besides his regular pastoral ministry, he served as the Director of Social Service and Youth Work and worked with the human rights groups and people's movements. After his higher studies and research, he became a Professor of Systematic Theology and Missiology at St John's Regional Seminary, Hyderabad. Presently, he is a Guest Professor in Contextual Theology, Regional Director of the Commission for Ecumenism and Interreligious Dialogue, Executive Secretary of the Andhra Pradesh Federation of Churches (APFC) and Deputy Secretary of the Andhra Pradesh Bishops Council (APBC). He is an Executive Member of the Indian Theological Association (ITA) and Asian Coordinator of the Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians (EATWOT). He has authored and edited many books in English and Telugu; see the last pages of this book for the list. His Series of books on the People's Theology is a valuable contribution to Contextual Theology which is much appreciated.

An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15

Migration has long been associated with the social sciences. However, as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation, a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue. Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology, this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies. The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration

Pentecostal Perspectives on Social Justice Thomas U.

Kurt, 2025-06-10 The beginnings of the Pentecostal movement were characterized by charismatic gifts and an extraordinary missionary dynamic At the same time early Pentecostals stood out from their social environment for their liberal practices on race and women s issues and for their pacifism In a world characterized by violence oppression and exploitation the question of justice is crucial for the future of this world At the same time for Pentecostals the question of the future of this world is closely linked to the kingdom of God This book explores whether there is a common denominator in Pentecostal social ethics what that denominator consists of and what its theological categories are To answer these questions it examines four representatives of the global Pentecostal church who have made prominent contributions in the field of social ethics The results are then discussed in a dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann one of the most prominent voices in systematic theology for social justice and the liberation of the oppressed

Lived Theology for the Whole of Life Lydia F. Johnson, 2024-06-27

This book is an invitation to envision an experiential theology that interconnects the personal the interpersonal the communal the societal and the creational held together by a God who is not removed from creation but who is infused in the very life of all beings and things of the created world Since God has created and continues to create life that is good this prompts us to apply a consistently for life ethic to the issues which confront them in the present day Our for life faith commitments include our personal challenges with alienation fear and forgiveness how we can live a consistently for life ethic in the face of social challenges such as poverty abortion violence racism and the othering of those who are different the climate crisis and the dangers posed today by imperialism war and contemporary forms of colonialism This attempt to weave together a for life ethic for the whole of life is especially influenced by non Western and indigenous theologies in particular the relational theology that has emerged from Pacific Islander theologians

Mission in Marginal Places: The Praxis Michael Pears, Paul

Cloke, 2016-09-01 The second book in the series focuses on participation and practice and discusses a range of ways in which

Kingdom centred mission can be embedded in the actually existing realms of activity and need in marginal places The book explores five different realms of practice each presenting opportunities for innovative expressions of incarnational attentiveness to marginalized communities and people It seeks to inspire prayerful and discerning activity that tunes into what Jesus is doing in local places rather than providing any kind of off the shelf checklist of prefigured mission tactics It challenges readers to take their faith praxis beyond orthodox congregational settings and out into the everyday realms of life in marginal places
