Marguerite Duras Fascinating Vision And Narrative Cure:

Marguerite Duras Deborah N. Glassman,1991 The work of writer and filmmaker Marguerite Duras raises theoretical issues of representation and formal issues of cinematic and literary languages The novel Le Ravisement de Lol V Stein and the film India Song are examine using a psychoanalytic model of interpretation Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico,1998-03-20 The Reader s Guide to Women s Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women s studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors

Offstage Space, Narrative, and the Theatre of the Imagination W. Gruber,2010-03-01 Offstage Space Narrative and the Theatre of the Imagination is a study of extrascenic space and how playwrights have used narrative as an alternative to conventional scenic enactment The book covers the work of writers as diverse as Euripides Plautus Shakespeare Susan Glaspell Gertrude Stein Bertolt Brecht Samuel Beckett Marguerite Duras Brian Friel and Thomas Bernhard William Gruber offers a wide ranging overview of the dramaturgical choices dramatists make when they substitute imagined events for perceptual ones

Revisioning Duras Janet Sayers,James S. Williams,2000-01-01 The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognized Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been an increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras s work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras s work in the widest sense of the term

The Postmodern in Latin and Latino American Cultural Narratives Claudia Ferman,2018-10-24 This volume of new and reprinted articles many translated here into English for the first time examines the conditions characteristics and implications of the debate on Latin American Postmodernism presenting an up to date rendering of its crucial issues Special considerations are given to the theoretical aspects such as ideological political literary critical and cultural implications The scope of this debate embraces such matters as the problematic modernization of Latin America cultural and political reformulation in the face of the media explosion new critical perspectives facing the collapse of utopian ideologies and new literary production women s writing and testimonio Contributors include John Beverly Antonio Ben tez Rojo and Antonio Vera Le n Celeste Olalquiaga Arturo Arias Santiago Col s Nelly Richard Jesoes Mart n Barbero Iumna Maria Simon and Vinicius Dantas The collection also contains some of the editor s personal interviews with scholars involved in this debate who live and work in Latin America Roger Bartra and Jorge Juanes Mexico and Nicol s

Casullo Argentina Movies in American History Philip C. DiMare, 2011-06-17 This provocative three volume encyclopedia is a valuable resource for readers seeking an understanding of how movies have both reflected and helped engender America's political economic and social history Movies in American History An Encyclopedia is a reference text focused on the relationship between American society and movies and filmmaking in the United States from the late 19th century through the present Beyond discussing many important American films ranging from Birth of a Nation to Star Wars to the Harry Potter film series the essays included in the volumes explore sensitive issues in cinema related to race class and gender authored by international scholars who provide unique perspectives on American cinema and history Written by a diverse group of distinguished scholars with backgrounds in history film studies culture studies science religion and politics this reference guide will appeal to readers new to cinema studies as well as film experts Each encyclopedic entry provides data about the film an explanation of the film's cultural significance and influence information about significant individuals involved with that work and resources for further study Cinema and Contact Laura McMahon, 2017-07-05 Drawing on the work of contemporary French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy Cinema and Contact investigates the aesthetics and politics of touch in the cinema of three of the most prominent and distinctive filmmakers to have emerged in France during the last fifty years Robert Bresson Marguerite Duras and Claire Denis Countering the dominant critical account of touch elaborated by recent models of embodied spectatorship this book argues that cinema offers a privileged space for understanding touch in terms of spacing and withdrawal rather than immediacy and continuity Such a deconstructive configuration of touch is shown here to have far reaching implications inviting an innovative rethinking of politics aesthetics and theology via the textures of cinema The first study to bring the thought of Nancy into sustained dialogue with a series of detailed analyses of films Cinema and Contact also forges new interpretative perspectives on Bresson Duras and Denis tracing a compelling two way exchange between cinema and philosophy Missing Persons William E. Gruber, 2011-04-01 In the hands of the twentieth century's most innovative dramatists characters have revealed their identities on stage in a variety of unconventional ways they speak with electronic voices or engage in solipsistic monologues they are lost in self conscious third person forms of communicating or are expressed simply as movement sound and decor Missing Persons is a study of character and its representation on the modern stage Within broad literary contexts William E Gruber addresses specific questions about the dramatis personae of the playwrights Gordon Craig Bertolt Brecht Samuel Beckett Thomas Bernhard and Maria Fomes Among the questions Gruber considers are why mechanical actors or the abrupt dislocations of oriental acting styles meant so much to dramatists as different as Brecht and Craig why figures in Beckett's late plays are so often flat schematized heraldic and why such contemporary dramatists as Fomes and Bernhard share a profound fascination with the mechanics of theatrical representation quoting reciting reproducing or impersonating an absent text The figures who move across these stages are frail contradictory occasionally mutilated or even dismembered They are grim reminders says Gruber that the individual's place in the world is not as secure or as central as we imagine it once was Yet character Gruber argues remains for these authors a crucial element of drama even if it is more fragile more ghostly more enigmatic than ever before The study of character as a crucial component of drama has been neglected for much of this century Missing Persons attempts to restore character to the current discourse by developing a vocabulary for discussing it in plays in which conventional terms seem insufficient or irrelevant Drawing on evidence from five dramatists whose work has long been considered antagonistic toward character as the term has typically been understood Gruber maintains that modern drama is never anticharacter even when it is most aggressively antirealist and suggests that character remains a defining ideal throughout the modern and postmodern period especially among dramatists who seem deliberately to have forsaken it Encyclopedia of Postmodernism Victor E. Taylor, Charles E. Winquist, 2003 Provides comprehensive and authoritative coverage of academic disciplines critical terms and central figures relating to the vast field of postmodern studies Publisher's description The Crimes of Marguerite Duras Anne Brancly, 2020-07-09 One of the most celebrated authors of twentieth century France Marguerite Duras loved crime Indeed criminal faits divers from the newspaper represented a key element in her literary project Sensational news stories made their way into her novels plays and screenplays inspired numerous journalistic pieces and media interventions and even informed the way that she discussed her life and work in the press The Crimes of Marguerite Duras offers an innovative framework for analyzing Duras's literary works and journalism as they relate to the mass media and broader cultural debates Anne Brancly reveals how Duras's predilection for provocatively blurring the line between truth and fiction on various media platforms helped make her a best selling author and a public intellectual ahead of her time Exploring the movement between serious literature and public scandal this readable book affirms literature's abiding role in political debate and the public sphere The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran

Mason, 2009 The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and theater and the variety of forms that have been produced It contains a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual writers important aesthetic practices significant texts and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries operates Book Jacket

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over

400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater Avant-garde Orientalism David LeHardy Sweet,2017-01-20 This study explores the work of Western avant garde writers who traveled to and wrote about Asia and North Africa Though exoticist in outlook many of these writers were also anti colonialist and thus avoided some of the pitfalls of academic orientalism by assuming an aesthetics of diversity while employing strategies of provocation and reciprocity As a survey of works on travel including essays novels poems and plays the book challenges or modifies many postcolonial assumptions about Western writers on the Orient from the French Surrealists to the American Beats and even transnational authors of the new millennium Through a synthesis of avant garde postcolonial and travel literature theories Avant garde Orientalism works in the best tradition of comparative literary study to identify and analyze a distinct category of world literature 'This Anguish, Like a Kind of Intimate Song' L. Leigh Westerfield,2004-01-01 The romanticized image of the heroic male resistance fighter in World War II belies a truth that is both darker and more personal This literary history explores for the first time the reality of European women s roles in fighting Nazism By comparing the resistance literature of French and German authors both famous and more obscure this innovative book links the traditional gender expectations for women and the conventions of their everyday lives with their unique forms of resistance Theirs was an opposition grounded in the ordinary beyond the sphere of political violence Women were long regarded as outsiders to combat and politics with no stake in upholding resistance myths Women authors therefore freely rendered the personal and moral landscape of the resister s world in a new vocabulary They revised standard rhetoric and replaced heroism and bullets with the values of home human relationships and candid acknowledgement of the sorrow fear and uncertainty of war A groundbreaking study for students of European history women s studies peace studies or comparative literature this volume is also accessible to a general audience interested in the role of women in World War II History of Structuralism: The sign sets, 1967-present François Dosse,1997 Content Description Includes bibliographical references and index Reading Unruly Zahi Zalloua,2014-05-01 Drawing on literary theory and canonical French literature Reading Unruly examines unruliness as both an aesthetic category and a mode of reading conceived as ethical response Zahi Zalloua argues that when faced with an unruly work of art readers confront an ethical double bind hesitating then between the two conflicting injunctions of either thematizing making sense of the literary work or attending to its aesthetic alterity or unreadability Creatively hesitating between incommensurable demands to interpret but not to translate back into familiar terms ethical readers are invited to cultivate an appreciation for the unruly to curb the desire for hermeneutic mastery without simultaneously renouncing meaning or the interpretive endeavor as such Examining French texts from Montaigne s sixteenth century Essays to Diderot s fictional dialogue Rameau's Nephew and Baudelaire's prose poems The Spleen of Paris to the more recent works of Jean Paul Sartre's Nausea Alain Robbe Grillet's Jealousy and Marguerite Duras's The Ravishing of Lol Stein Reading Unruly demonstrates that in such an approach to literature and theory reading itself becomes a desire for more an ethical and aesthetic desire to prolong rather than to arrest the act of interpretation The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

History of Structuralism: The rising sign, 1945-1966 François Dosse, 1997 Content Description Includes bibliographical references and index Broken Narratives, 2014-08-07 The end of the Cold War reshuffled the power relations between former friends and enemies In Broken Narratives the contributors offer an account of the consequences of the end of the Cold War for the re telling of history in film literature and academic historiography in Europe and East Asia Despite the post modern claim that there is no need for a master narrative the contributions to this book show that we are in the middle of an intense and difficult search for a common understanding of the past However instead of common narratives polyphony and dissonances are produced which reflect a world in a period of transition As the contributions to this volume show the year 1989 has generated broken narratives Contributors include Peter Verstraten Rotem Kowner Susanne Weigelin Schwiedrzik Carsten Sch fer Martin Gieselmann Yonson Ahn Chang Lung chih Andrea Riemenschnitter Shingo Minamizuka Petra Buchholz and Tatiana Zhurzhenko Unpacking Europe Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen (Rotterdam, Netherlands), 2001 Part One includes substantial essays by important scholars from around the globe rethinking various philosophical historical and cultural facets of Europe Part Two focuses on the artists projects It includes commissioned essays on each of the artists by well known art critics as well as reproductions of the artists works
