Schiff, 2019-07-15 Marie Bashkirtseff was one of the most extraordinary women of the 19th century Her Journal originally comprising some 20 000 hand written pages but pared down to a few hundred for publication was a cause célèbre after her death and continues to be an inspiration to the Women's Movement to this day It also inspired such great writers as Anaïs Nin and Katherine Mansfield among many others Born into an aristocratic family in a village in Ukraine the family soon settled in France first in Nice and later in Paris Taught entirely by tutors Marie spoke multiple languages played numerous musical instruments and longed for a singing career on the stage An illness that affected her throat made her change course and she took up painting for which she had a latent talent As a student at the Académie Julian in Paris she was soon exhibiting at the annual Paris Salon the premier venue for artists But it was her personality that makes Marie Bashkirtseff such an exceptional individual At a very young age she was already exhibiting in her Journal the thoughts of a learned philosopher wrestling with the nature of God the position of women in society the politics of men Having contracted tuberculosis in early childhood she ceaselessly strove to shrug it off in her quest to achieve greatness In the end a great tragedy unfolds The book is somewhat unique in format The first part is a biographical section that describes Marie's unusual and fascinating life Then a second section consists of a single Journal excerpt in English translation from the original French on each left hand page juxtaposed with one of her outstanding works of art on the facing page In this manner we learn about her remarkable life and tribulations enter her restive and brilliant mind via her Journal as well as appreciate her exceptionally fine works as an artist      Women Writing on the French Riviera Rosemary Lancaster, 2020-06-15 Destination for artists and convalescents playground of the rich site of foreign allure the French Riviera has long attracted visitors to its shores Ranging through the late nineteenth century the Belle Époque the roaring twenties and the emancipatory post war years Rosemary Lancaster highlights the contributions of nine remarkable women to the cultural identity of the Riviera in its seminal rise to fame Embracing an array of genres she gives new focus to feminine writings never previously brought together nor as richly critically explored Fiction memoir diary letters even cookbooks and choreographies provide compelling evidence of the innovativeness of women who seized the challenges and opportunities of their travels in a century of radical social and artistic change Literary News ,1901 Women Artists in Paris, 1850-1900 Laurence Madeline,Pauline Willis,2017-01-01 Paris was the epicenter of art during the latter half of the nineteenth century luring artists from around the world with its academies museums salons and galleries Despite the city s cosmopolitanism and its cultural stature Parisian society remained strikingly conservative particularly with respect to gender Nonetheless many women painters chose to work and study in Paris at this time overcoming immense obstacles to access the city s resources Women Artists in Paris 1850 1900 showcases the remarkable artistic production of women during this period of great cultural change revealing the breadth and strength of their creative achievements Guest Curator Laurence Madeline Chief Curator at Mus es d art et d histoire Geneva has selected close to seventy compelling paintings by women of varied nationalities ranging from well known artists such as Berthe Morisot Mary Cassatt and Rosa Bonheur to lesser known figures such as Kitty Kielland Louise Breslau and Anna Ancher The Review of Reviews ,1890 The Literary World ,1890 The Book Buyer ,1889 A review and record of current literature The Journaling Gym Rajiv Krishnan Pisharoti,2025-06-13 Build emotional strength One page at a time What if your notebook could become your most powerful coach In a world of constant noise and mental clutter The Journaling Gym offers a simple lifechanging practice journaling not as a hobby but as a habit of mental fitness No fluff No perfection Just a few honest minutes a day to declutter your mind process your emotions and reconnect with yourself Whether you re a CEO a student a parent or simply someone seeking clarity this book meets you where you are and helps you move forward Through powerful prompts emotional workouts and inspiring reallife stories this isn t just a book you read It s a space you return to You don t need to write well You just need to write real And in doing so you ll uncover something priceless yourself On Diary Philippe Lejeune,2009-04-30 On Diary is the second collection in English of the groundbreaking and profoundly influential work of one of the best known and provocative theorists of autobiography and diary Ranging from the diary s historical origins to its pervasive presence on the Internet from the spiritual journey of the sixteenth century to the diary of Anne Frank and from the materials and methods of diary writing to the question of how diaries end these essays display Philippe Lejeune s expertise eloquence passion and humor as a commentator on the functions practices and significance of keeping or reading a diary Lejeune is a leading European critic and theorist of diary and autobiography His landmark essay The Autobiographical Pact has shaped life writing studies for more than thirty years and his many books and essays have repeatedly opened up new vistas for scholarship As Michael Riffaterre notes Lejeune s work on autobiography is the most original powerful effective approach to a difficult subject His style is very personal lively It grabs the reader as scholarship rarely does Lejeune s erudition and methodology are impeccable Two substantial introductory essays by Jeremy Popkin and Julie Rak place Lejeune's work within its critical and theoretical traditions and comment on his central importance within the fields of life writing, literary genetic studies and cultural studies. A Companion to Literary Biography Richard Bradford, 2018-09-12. An authoritative review of literary biography covering the seventeenth century to the twentieth century. A Companion to Literary Biography offers a comprehensive account of literary biography spanning the history of the genre across three centuries. The editor, an esteemed literary biographer and noted expert in the field, has encouraged contributors to explore the theoretical and methodological questions raised by the writing of biographies of writers. The text examines how biographers have dealt with the lives of classic authors from Chaucer to contemporary figures such as Kingsley Amis. The Companion brings a new perspective on how literary biography enables the reader to deal with the relationship between the writer and their work. Literary biography is the most popular form of writing about writing, yet it has been largely neglected in the academic community. This volume bridges the gap between literary biography as a popular genre and its relevance for the academic study of literature. This important work allows the author of a biography to be treated as part of the process of interpretation and investigates biographical reading as an important aspect of criticism. Examines the birth of literary biography at the close of the seventeenth century and considers its expansion through the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Addresses the status and writing of literary biography from numerous perspectives and with regard to various sources, methodologies and theories. Reviews the ways in which literary biography has played a role in our perception of writers in the mainstream of the English canon from Chaucer to the present day. Written for students at the undergraduate level through postgraduate and doctoral levels as well as academics. A Companion to Literary Biography illustrates and accounts for the importance of the literary biography as a vital element of criticism and as an index to our perception of literary history. The Exponent, 1908.
