Marina Abramović Marina Abramović, Klaus Biesenbach, Klaus Peter Biesenbach, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2010 Since the beginning of her career in Belgrade in the late 1960s Marina Abramovic has been a pioneer of performance art creating some of the most important works in the field Marina Abramovic The Artist is Present accompanies an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art that documents approximately fifty of the artist's ephemeral time and media based works from throughout her career The book will also discuss a unique element of the Museum's retrospective live performance a new work created for the occasion and performed by the artist herself and recreations of Abramovic's works by other performers the first such to be undertaken in a museum setting The book spans over four decades of Abramovic's early interventions and sound pieces video works installations photographs solo performances and collaborative performances made with the Dutch artist Ulay Uwe Laysiepen Its essays examine Abramovic's ideas of time duration and the reperformance of performance art as a way to extend it into posterity Marina Abramovic also includes a CD an audio recording of the artist's own voice guiding the reader through the publication The artist is present not only in the exhibition but also in the experience of the book When Marina Abramovic Dies James Westcott, 2014-08-29 The extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most important and pioneering performance artists in contemporary art When Marina Abramovic Dies examines the extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most pioneering artists of her generation and one who is still at the forefront of contemporary art today This intimate critical biography chronicles Abramovic's formative and until now undocumented years in Yugoslavia and tells the story of her partnership with the German artist Ulay one of the twentieth century's great examples of the fusion of artistic and private life In one of many long durational performances in the renewed solo career that followed Abramovic famously lived in a New York gallery for twelve days without eating or speaking nourished only by prolonged eye contact with audience members It was here in 2002 that author James Westcott first encountered her beginning an exceptionally close relation between biographer and subject When Marina Abramovic Dies draws on Westcott's personal observations of Abramovic his unprecedented access to her archive and hundreds of hours of interviews he conducted with the artist and the people closest to her The result is a unique and vivid portrait of the charismatic self-proclaimed grandmother of performance art Marina Abramovic Katya Tylevich, Marina Abramovic, 2023-09-21 Combining brand new interviews never before seen images and fascinating ephemera from her personal archives this book creates a visual landscape of Marina Abramovic's personal and artistic life Illustrated with more than 700 photographs Abramovic provides insight on her most important works and some of her most difficult personal experiences conveying the story with her signature emotion and wit Fittingly blurring the lines between artist and art this book acts as a keystone in the life of one of the most important performance artists in the world Marina Abramović Marina Abramovic, 2017-02-01 At once radical controversial and revered Marina Abramovic is the progenitor of contemporary performance art At once radical controversial and revered Marina Abramovic is one of the most discussed artists today Famous for her groundbreaking performance works she continues to expand the boundaries of art This publication accompanying her first major retrospective in Europe gives an extensive overview of her work from the earliest years until today film photography paintings and objects installations and archival material Since the early 1970s Abramovic has explored the intersection between performing and visual art in her work and though rarely overtly political posed questions of power and hierarchy In addressing fundamental issues of our existence and seeking the core of such notions as loss memory pain endurance and trust she both provokes and moves Marina Abramovic Mary Richards, 2009-09-25

Routledge Performance Practitioners is a series of introductory guides to the key theatre makers of the last century Each volume explains the background to and the work of one of the major influences on twentieth and twenty first century performance Marina Abramovic is the creator of pioneering performance art which transcends the form s provocative origins Her visceral and extreme performances have tested the limits of both body and mind communicating with audiences worldwide on a personal and political level The book combines a biography setting out the contexts of Abramovic s work an examination of the artist through her writings interviews and influences a detailed analysis of her work including studies of the Rhythm series Nightsea Crossing and The House with the Ocean View practical explorations of the performances and their origins As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research Routledge Performance Practitioners are unbeatable value for today s student Marina Abramović Marina Abramovic, Marina Abramović Marina Abramovic, 2010 Walk Through Walls Marina Abramovic, 2016-10-25

I had experienced absolute freedom I had felt that my body was without boundaries limitless that pain didn t matter that nothing mattered at all and it intoxicated me In 2010 more than 750 000 people stood in line at Marina Abramovi s MoMA retrospective for the chance to sit across from her and communicate with her nonverbally in an unprecedented durational performance that lasted more than 700 hours This celebration of nearly fifty years of groundbreaking performance art demonstrated once again that Marina Abramovi is truly a force of nature The child of Communist war hero parents under Tito s regime in postwar Yugoslavia she was raised with a relentless work ethic Even as she was beginning to build an international artistic career Marina lived at home under her mother s abusive control strictly obeying a 10 p m curfew But nothing could quell her insatiable curiosity her desire to connect with people or her distinctly Balkan sense of humor all of which informs her art and her life The beating heart of Walk Through Walls is an operatic love story a twelve year collaboration with fellow performance artist Ulay much of which was spent penniless in a van traveling across Europe a relationship that began to unravel and came to a dramatic end atop the Great Wall of China Marina s story by turns moving epic and dryly funny informs an incomparable artistic career that involves pushing her body past the limits of fear pain exhaustion and danger in an uncompromising quest for emotional and spiritual transformation A remarkable work of performance in its own right Walk Through Walls is a vivid and powerful rendering of the unparalleled life of an extraordinary artist renowned artist Marina Abramovic and showcases eighteen emerging artists Abramovic's remarkable career as one of her generation's most challenging performance artists has paved the way for younger artists who are interested in this complex and often radical art form. Lately Abramovic has turned her attention to exploring ways to encapsulate the art form after the performance is physically completed. This project explores the diversity of contemporary performance art through the works of exciting new artists from around the world. Their use of storytelling, virtual worlds, audience participation, sound, and the body are documented in this illustrated volume. An interview by Hans Ulrich Obrist with Abramovic outlines the challenges and goals of her new project while essays by leading curators in the field of performance art explore methods for preserving this unique art form and brief profiles of each of the artists introduce readers to a new generation of challenging and innovative performance artists.
