Marine Painting An Historical Survey:

Marine Painting William Gaunt, 1975 Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders 15th-18th Century French Drawings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Jacob Bean, 1986 Great Lakes Marine Painting of the Nineteenth Century J. Gray Sweeney, 1983 The Social Construction of the Ocean Philip E. Steinberg, 2001-10-25 This 2001 book presents a history of the uses regulations and representation of the world ocean from approximately 1450 through the present This history is told through a territorial political economy lens borrowing from world systems theory economic geographic studies of the spatiality of capitalism political geographic work on the history of territoriality and post structural work on social conflict in the production of space Just as the modern era has been characterized by a conflicting set of dynamic and contested spatiality on land so has it been characterized by a conflicting set of spatial functions at sea Evidence is marshaled from legal texts literary and artistic creations cartographic representations advertisements commercial and military history and policy debates The book concludes by considering how lessons learned from the history of the ocean may be applied to emerging spaces such as cyberspace where there is a similarly problematic fit between social processes and the institutions of state governance Winslow Homer Nicolai Cikovsky, Franklin Kelly, Judith Walsh, Winslow Homer, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1995-01-01 This work examines Homer's artistic accomplishments It focuses not only on his use of various media but also on the suites of works on the same subject that reflect the artist's modern practice of thinking and working serially and thematically Charting Thoughts Low Sze Wee, Patrick Flores, 2017-12-31 A constellation of thoughts by 25 established and emerging scholars who plot the indices of modernity and locate new coordinates within the shifting landscape of art These newly commissioned essays are accompanied by close to 200 full colour image plates Literature, Identity and the English Channel D. Rainsford, 2002-03-13 This book concerns the significance of the English Channel in British and French literature from the 1780s onwards a timely subject given the intense debates in progress about the actual and desired relationships between Britain and mainland Europe The book addresses contemporary authors who use the Channel as a focus for cultural comment comparing their approaches to those of earlier writers from Charlotte Smith and Chateaubriand through Hugo and Dickens to historians and travel writers of the 1950s and 1980s

The Life and Work of Martin Johnson Heade Theodore E. Stebbins, Janet L. Comey, Martin Johnson Heade, Karen E. Quinn, 2000-01-01 Martin Johnson Heade was one of the most significant American painters of the nineteenth century creator of portraits history and genre pictures still lifes ornithological studies landscapes and marines and his own unique orchid and hummingbird compositions This book brings a perspective to Heade and his works presenting him as one of the most original and productive painters of his time Theodore Stebbins builds on his acclaimed 1975 study of Heade drawing on several newly discovered collections of Heade s letters and the painter s own Brazilian journal Stebbins tells of Heade s training and early career as an itinerant portraitist and discusses his move to New York where under the influence of Frederic E Church he began painting landscapes and seascapes He examines Heade s relationships with patrons and dealers writers and scientists and he sheds new light on Heade s trips to Brazil to the Central American tropics and to London And he describes Heade s move to Florida in 1883 which marked not his retirement but a final period of creativity that lasted until his death in 1904 The book includes not only an examination of Heade s life and works but also reproductions of all his 620 known paintings including nearly 250 that have been discovered since 1975

Image of the Sea Howard F. Isham, 2004 This book explores the unprecedented surge or oceanic feeling in the aesthetic expression of the romantic century As secular thought began to displace the certainties of a sacral universe the oceans that give life to our planet offered a symbol of eternity rooted in the experience of nature rather than Biblical tradition Images of the sea permeated the minds of the early Romantics became a significant ingredient of romantic expression and continued to emerge in the language literature art and music of the nineteenth century These pages document the evidence for this oceanic consciousness in some of the most creative minds of that century
