Sociocognitive Approach is a comprehensive and clearly written introduction to sociocognitive therapy. It is rich with transcripts and case examples culled from the authors more than thirty five years of practice providing you with valuable background information on helping difficult to reach and hard to help populations. In practical language this volume takes you step by step through methods of assessment and change that are useful in traditional and nontraditional families and couples. With clear language and taxonomy for family troubles and their resolution, Marriage and Family Therapy provides conceptual handles to guide you in learning intervention strategies enabling you to work effectively with most notably lower working class and poor inner city African American families. A highlight of the book is the detailed look at terminal and instrumental interaction hypotheses and how they can be applied in actual therapy situations. With Marriage and Family Therapy as a guide you will develop multiple skills and methods that equip you to better handle the challenging task of helping troubled families and couples. The first two chapters present the theoretical framework of the sociocognitive approach. In the third chapter the assessment and change concepts central to Dr. Hurvitz's approach are introduced. The last four chapters show how these humanist principles are applied through the phases of opening, change, producing, and termination in therapy, creating an invaluable book for marriage and family therapists, social workers, psychologists, and educators.

The Couple and Family Therapist's Notebook Katherine M. Hertlein, Dawn Viers, 2014-01-02. Get a sneak peek at clinical vignettes that demonstrate the power of creative interventions. Couples and families present unique challenges in therapy and other books rarely illustrate the effectiveness of particular types of interventions on actual cases. The Couple and Family Therapist's Notebook provides clinicians with a wide range of practical, field-tested therapy activities and homework that are solidly grounded to each intervention's theoretical underpinning; then explores their effectiveness by briefly relating real-life cases. Continuing The Haworth Press Therapist's Notebook series, respected experts detail how to perform several creative interventions and then follow with insightful clinical vignettes to illustrate under what specific circumstances each particular approach is effective. Each chapter of The Couple and Family Therapist's Notebook Homework Handouts and Activities for Use in Marital and Family Therapy has an objective statement to orient the reader to the homework handout or activity, followed by a rationale. Instructions explain how to perform the activity, followed by a clinical case vignette, a section of contraindications, and a list of useful resources for both the practitioner and the client. Illustrations and appendixes also provide helpful guides for the therapist. The Couple and Family Therapist's Notebook Homework Handouts and Activities for Use in Marital and Family Therapy gives you the tools for approaches such as emotionally focused therapy, symbolic experiential therapy, transgenerational theory, solution-focused therapy, experiential therapy, and many others. And some of the intervention techniques that are illustrated: the Metaphor of Gardens, the Coming Clean Ritual, creating rituals for couples coping with early pregnancy loss, the Four C's of Parenting, identifying family rules, the Systemic Kvebaek Technique, physical acting techniques, the Feelings Game, writing to combat adolescent silence in family therapy, Family Stress Balls, the Goodbye
