Cycling in France Carole Saint-Laurent, 2003 Cycling guide to France Naked City Sharon Zukin, 2009-12-18 As cities have gentrified educated urbanites have come to prize what they regard as authentic urban life aging buildings art galleries small boutiques upscale food markets neighborhood old timers funky ethnic restaurants and old family owned shops These signify a place's authenticity in contrast to the bland standardization of the suburbs and exurbs But as Sharon Zukin shows in Naked City the rapid and pervasive demand for authenticity evident in escalating real estate prices expensive stores and closely monitored urban streetscapes has helped drive out the very people who first lent a neighborhood its authentic aura immigrants the working class and artists Zukin traces this economic and social evolution in six archetypal New York areas Williamsburg Harlem the East Village Union Square Red Hook and the city's community gardens and travels to both the city's first IKEA store and the World Trade Center site She shows that for followers of Jane Jacobs this transformation is a perversion of what was supposed to happen Indeed Naked City is a sobering update of Jacobs' legendary 1961 book The Death and Life of Great American Cities Like Jacobs Zukin looks at what gives neighborhoods a sense of place but argues that over time the emphasis on neighborhood distinctiveness has become a tool of economic elites to drive up real estate values and effectively force out the neighborhood characters that Jacobs so evocatively idealized

Best Of France Olivia Parker, 2025-01-05 Best of France delivers an insightful journey through French culture offering readers a sophisticated roadmap for authentic cultural immersion that goes far beyond typical tourist experiences The book masterfully weaves together three fundamental aspects of French life cultural literacy culinary understanding and regional diversity presenting a comprehensive guide to navigating both the subtle and overt aspects of French society Through meticulous research across France's 13 metropolitan regions the book reveals how seemingly simple activities from ordering coffee to participating in business meetings follow specific cultural protocols that can significantly enhance a visitor's experience. Drawing from anthropological studies, culinary history, and firsthand observations, it illuminates the deep connection between France's past and present, particularly in its renowned food traditions and social customs. The exploration of regional identities provides fascinating insights into how local customs and cuisine vary across different areas while maintaining their distinctly French character. What sets this work apart is its practical approach to cultural understanding, combining scholarly research with actionable advice for readers. Whether explaining the intricacies of market shopping protocols or providing guidelines for social interactions, the book serves as an invaluable resource for travelers, business professionals, and culinary enthusiasts alike. Each chapter builds upon the previous one, creating a comprehensive framework for understanding and participating in French culture, from its celebrated gastronomy to its complex social etiquette.

Expectations of Happiness Rebecca Collins, 2011-10-01. Three spirited sisters and their very different loves. In this beautifully imagined continuation of a Jane Austen favorite, the Dashwood sisters are all grown up. Marianne is married on the rebound to a much older man. What happens when her first love comes back and threatens her domestic tranquility? Elinor and Edward Ferrars are shy and quiet people, but will the loss of Edward's fortune lead to regret and resentment? And can the spirited Margaret find her own happiness in a love affair that defies the conventions of the day and puts her at the center of all kinds of unwanted attention? Renowned for her historical research and the beautiful pacing of the Regency era, Rebecca Ann Collins weaves a compelling tale of sisterhood, loyalty, and the infinite varieties of the pursuit of love and happiness. Praise for The Pemberley Chronicles: "This story will captivate readers." Library Journal. "What readers say: A gorgeous book, so well done, so neatly realized, it is a real treat for Austen fans." Unforgettable Ms. Collins weaves a masterpiece that reaches the heart.

The Book Review Digest, 2006. Cooking in Paradise Joel Naftali, Lee Naftali, 2014-05-27. Cooking in Paradise is a rich, definitive guide to hands-on gourmet cooking vacations around the world. Ever dream of sautéing in Sicily? Or having a master divulge the secrets of perfect patisserie in Paris? How about mincing in Morocco? Cooking in Paradise will show you how to get there and scores of other places, with over 150 listings for cooking vacation programs around the world and a handful right here in the United States, too. Joel and Lee Naftali give details about famous courses like Patricia Wells's at home in her eighteenth-century Provencal farmhouse, but have also unearthed truly unusual fare from a kosher cooking course in Tuscany to an Australian country house gourmet retreat to a Mexican cuisine class held at a working hillside farm in Oaxaca. Cooking in Paradise provides all the information you need to book a cooking vacation today, but with its evocation of far-flung locales and over 50 unusual recipes from the schools included, it's perfect for the stay-at-home chef as well.

Flight Victoria Glendinning, 2014-06-10. From the award-winning author of Electricity, an absorbing and finely drawn tale of professional and personal romance in modern Europe. Martagon, a young and talented engineer and a loner by nature, has devoted his life to his career, occasionally and regretfully sacrificing friendship and family for professional success He accepts a position masterminding the construction of new high tech airport in France applying his cutting edge expertise to build it almost entirely of glass The land and vineyards on which the airport will be built belonged to a feuding brother and sister It is Marina the beautiful flamboyant and completely irresistible sister with whom Martagon falls in love for the first time in his life The detached and rational engineer is thrown completely off balance begins questioning the ambitions he once took for granted He takes risks to be with Marina compromises himself professionally and emotionally a mistake that could cost him everything he has struggled to achieve Written with unusual urgency and perception about the relations between men and women Victoria Glendinning s Flight is a story of passionate love morality self discovery professional ethics of what happens when solid ground disappears from below and the only options left are to either soar or fall
