Wilson, 2012-05-23 Strategic Marketing Planning concentrates on the critical planning aspects that are of vital importance to practitioners and students alike It has a clear structure that offers a digest of the five principal dimensions of the strategic marketing planning process Leading authors in this sector Wilson and Gilligan offer current thinking in marketing and consider the changes it has undergone over the past few years Issues discussed include Emarketing strategic thinking and competitive advantage The significance of vision and how this needs to drive the planning process Hypercompetition and the erosion of competitive advantage The growth and status of relationship marketing Each chapter contains a series of expanded illustrations Fundamentals of Corporate Communications Richard Dolphin, David Reed, 2009-11-03 The Fundamentals of Corporate Communications gives professionals and students in marketing a comprehensive and incisive overview of what modern corporate communications is and what it can achieve The author has drawn on extensive business experience in the area and wide ranging research in major corporations to produce an authoritative account of best practice backed by numerous cases and examples The book demonstrates how corporate communications affects today's marketing mix and explains how it can support wider marketing objectives The key elements are covered in depth Who are the key audiences in the present business climate The role of Corporate Image and Identity in the communications process How communications informs and affects corporate strategy development What are the tools of modern communications from lobbying to brand building Using communications in a crisis Who should be communicator and why The book is both highly practical it is grounded in real business issues and rigorous in covering the concepts accessibly It will be an essential text and reference for practitioners and students of marketing Tales from the Marketplace Nigel F. Piercy, 2012-10-02 Tales from the Marketplace Stories of Revolution Reinvention and Renewal is a highly innovative approach to building an understanding of the realities of market led strategic change in companies It provides an engaging honest and effective understanding of real market strategy in major organizations by focussing on the forces behind value driven strategy Nigel Piercy provides new and incisive insights into strategy and marketing through business stories that are contemporary and provocative These new stories depict how major organizations have experienced revolution in their traditional markets created by new types of competitors with new business models The search for superior value is overtaking traditional brand and relationship strategies The challenge to companies is reinvention and renewal and the alternative is obsolescence and decline After all did the major banks really expect to be competing with supermarkets car companies Virgin and internet based companies to provide retail bank services The book is based on the author's view that Business is exciting turbulent and unpredictable the stories we read and study should be too From Dell Computers and easyJet to Amazon.com and Skoda Cars it is the most innovative companies that have most to teach us about reinvention and new business models. The inflexible analytical frameworks of the past no longer apply. Stories of reinvention and renewal show the creative strategies developed by companies to cope with threats and exploit opportunities around them. Tales from the Marketplace is essential, timely and designed to be highly readable for managers. It also provides an innovative approach for undergraduate and MBA level teachers and students and for participants on executive programmes in marketing and strategic management.

Marketing Briefs: A Revision and Study Guide Sally Dibb, 2012-08-21

Complementing Dibb and Simkin's established reputation in their field, this text presents a punchy overview of the leading 50 themes of marketing, each concisely summarized for revision purposes or quick learning. While appealing primarily to students undertaking marketing exams, many practitioners will also find this glossary of current marketing hard to resist. The title builds on the earlier works of Dibb and Simkin whose Houghton Mifflin text Marketing Concepts and Strategies is the current business school market leading text in the United Kingdom while their Thomson Learning text The Marketing Casebook: Cases and Concepts has just been revised and is the most widely used marketing casebook. From understanding customers, branding and positioning, relationship marketing, social responsibility through to value based marketing and one to one marketing, this book covers all the issues the modern marketer must address. The text itself is organized into short structured chapters, the Briefs, each including: Core definitions, A bulleted key point overview, Thorough yet concise explanation of the concept and primary issues, Illustrative examples, A selection of examination style case essay and applied questions, Recommended further reading and sources. Together these offer a rounded, concise and topical appreciation of each theme within a clear and accessible framework designed to aid revision. Also included are revision tips and golden rules for tackling examinations, specimen examination papers with answer schemes and a full glossary of key marketing terms.
