

FINANCIAL PLANNING

Setting up a better future

Current Financial Situation - determine your current financial situation with regard to income, savings, living expenses, and debts.

Develop Financial Goals - periodically analyze your financial values and goals. This involves identifying how you feel about money and why.

Alternative Courses of Action - Continue the same course of action. Expand the current situation. Change the current situation.

Evaluate Alternatives - evaluate courses of action, considering your life situation, personal values, and current economic conditions.

Implement a Financial Action Plan - as you achieve your immediate or short-term goals, the goals next in priority will come into focus.

Revise Your Plan - this process does not end when you take a particular action. You need to regularly assess your financial decisions.
