Matters Of Moment Materials For Language Practice:

The Matter of Practice Curt Porter, Rachel Griffo, 2021-05-01 The Matter of Practice presents work by teacher scholars from around the world who are rethinking the relationship between matter and meaning By emphasizing spatial bodily and sensual dimensions of language and literacy practices this volume offers a portrait of language pedagogy and research that challenges traditional barriers between subjects and objects speech and noise and languages and things We envision the term new materialisms as an invitation to locate theorizing researching and teaching practices within the rhythms and textures of our material sensory and perceptual lives These chapters enact a hope that increased engagement with our physical surroundings and sensory experiences can extend the sphere of our social creative and intellectual labor and expand our understanding of what counts as meaningful action The English Teacher's Handbook T. C. Baruah, 1991-06-01

Material Matters Katie Lloyd Thomas, 2006-12-05 Bringing together texts and work by theorists and practitioners who are making material central to their work this book reflects the diverse areas of inquiry which are expanding current material discourse Focusing on the cultural political economic technological and intellectual forces which shape material practices in architecture the contributors draw on disciplines ranging from philosophy history and pedagogy to art practice and digital and low tech fabrication By paying critical attention to material a wide range of issues emerge which are otherwise excluded from architectural discourse issues that shape and determine the buildings we make the processes we use and the ways we understand them Beautifully illustrated and designed this book is a unique collection which will be of great interest to architectural practitioners and theorists who want to consider the wider implications of material practice and to students who are developing their own approach to making buildings Language Matters in Higher Education Contexts , 2021-11-22 This book highlights that language matters permeate all areas of higher education and that language matters for everyone involved in academic institutions in policy in teaching and learning in administration in research and in leadership The chapters in this volume address national institutional and local levels and range from legal texts to students and teachers stories across disciplines It provides a useful picture for all those who work in the various fields of higher education Contributors are Britt Marie Apelgren Tove Bull Josep Maria Cots Ann Marie Eriksson Sylva Frisk L dia Gallego Bals Peter Garrett Linnea Hanell Luke Holmes Niina Hynninen Kathrin Kaufhold Maria Kuteeva Ragnhild Ljosland Heidi Rontu Taina Saarinen Linus Sal and Susanne Str mberg J msvi Issues in Materials Development Maryam Azarnoosh, Mitra Zeraatpishe, Akram Faravani, Hamid Reza Kargozari, 2016-03-22 Issues in Materials Development provides readers with theoretical foundations and practical aspects of designing materials for EFL ESL contexts It starts with discussing some basic and preliminary principles of materials design followed by scrutinizing critical issues in materials development in an objective and systematic way This ranges from considering learners needs adopting adapting selection and gradation of materials to the specific focus of the book on developing various types of materials for the four language skills pronunciation

ESP vocabulary and computer assisted language learning materials Authenticity of materials to be designed and the inclusion of affective factors to develop motivating materials to engage language learners in addition to features of materials design at a universal level are other areas to read about This book finally tries to open new horizons and possible futuristic approaches to improve today's ELT materials

Sites of Translation Laura Gonzales, 2018-09-24 Winner of the 2016 Sweetland Digital Rhetoric Collaborative Book Prize Sites of Translation illustrates the intricate rhetorical work that multilingual communicators engage in as they translate information for their communities Blending ethnographic and empirical methods from multiple disciplines Laura Gonzales provides methodological examples of how linguistic diversity can be studied in practice both in and outside the classroom and provides insights into the rhetorical labor that is often unacknowledged and made invisible in multilingual communication Sites of Translation is relevant to researchers and teachers of writing as well as technology designers interested in creating systems pedagogies and platforms that will be more accessible and useful to multilingual audiences Gonzales presents multilingual communication as intellectual labor that should be further valued in both academic and professional spaces and supported by multilingual technologies and pedagogies that center the expertise of linguistically diverse communicators

Practices of Ephemera in Early Modern England Callan Davies, Hannah Lilley, Catherine Richardson, 2023-02-03 This collection is the first to historicise the term ephemera and its meanings for early modern England and considers its relationship to time matter and place It asks how do we conceive of ephemera in a period before it was routinely employed from the eighteenth century to describe ostensibly disposable print In the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries when objects and texts were rapidly proliferating the term began to acquire its modern association with transitoriness But contributors to this volume show how ephemera was also integrally related to wider social and cultural ecosystems Chapters explore those ecosystems and think about the papers and artefacts that shaped homes streets and cities or towns and their attendant preservation loss or transformation The studies here therefore look beyond static records to think about moments of process and transmutation and accordingly get closer to early modern experiences identities and practices

Matter: Material Processes in Architectural Production Gail Peter Borden, Michael Meredith, 2012-03-29 Combining essays from both practice and academia this book includes some of the most significant projects and thoughts on materiality from the last decade Beautifully illustrated with a great deal of technical information throughout it is not a coffee table book with no explanation of how nor a theory book without the description of the projects

Literacies that Move and Matter Karen Wohlwend, 2020-06-30 Expanding the definition and use of literacies beyond verbal and written communication this book examines contemporary literacies through action focused analysis of bodies places and media Nexus analysis examines how people enact and mobilize meanings that are largely unspoken Wohlwend demonstrates how nexus analysis can be used as a tool to critically analyze and understand action in everyday settings to provide a deeper understanding of how meanings are produced from a mix of modes in daily social and cultural contexts

Organized in three sections Engaging Nexus Navigating Nexus and Changing Nexus this book provides a roadmap to applying nexus analysis to literacy research and offers tools to enable readers to compare methods across contexts Designed to help readers understand the theoretical and methodological assumptions and goals of nexus analysis in classroom and literacy research this book provides a comprehensive understanding of the theory framework and foundations of nexus analysis by using multimodal examples such as films and media artifacts live action performances and more Each chapter features consistent sections on key ideas and methods and a description of procedures for replication and application

Material Powers Tony Bennett, Patrick Joyce, 2013-05-13 This edited collection is a major contribution to the current development of a material turn in the social sciences and humanities It does so by exploring new understandings of how power is made up and exercised by examining the role of material infrastructures in the organization of state power and the role of material cultural practices in the organization of colonial forms of governance A diverse range of historical examples is drawn on in illustrating these concerns from the role of territorial engineering projects in seventeenth century France through the development of the postal system in nineteenth century Britain to the relations between the state and road building in contemporary Peru for example The colonial contexts examined are similarly varied ranging from the role of photographic practices in the constitution of colonial power in India and the measurement of the bodies of the colonized in French colonial practices to the part played by the relations between museums and expeditions in the organization of Australian forms of colonial rule These specific concerns are connected to major critical re examination of the limits of the earlier formulations of cultural materialism and the logic of the cultural turn The collection brings together a group of key international scholars whose work has played a leading role in debates in and across the fields of history visual culture studies anthropology geography cultural studies museum studies and literary studies

Returning to Scientific Practice Xu Zhu,Wu Tong,2019-05-17 This book is a result from a collective study on philosophy of scientific practice PSP which began around 2002 and still ongoing There is an apparently increasing interest in scientific practice influenced by the historicistic philosophy of science and the sociology of scientific knowledge SSK Prof WU Tong and his research group believe that it is necessary for PSP to turn from the theory dominant position to the practice dominance PSP has also put forward the possibility of reinterpreting the epistemic status of local knowledge in Chinese tradition which provides the most significant motivation to participate this study In this book we have selected three main cases namely Chinese medicine Fengshui and Ethnobotany to examine the effect of PSP The aim of our collective study is not merely on theoretical construction of PSP but also to consider the various applications of PSP especially for re interpreting and demonstrating the variety of local knowledge from traditional China which seems to be a genuine contribution to the international enterprise of philosophy of science particularly made by Chinese scholars

Diversity And Difference In Early Childhood Education: Issues For Theory And Practice Robinson, Kerry,Jones Diaz, Criss,2005-12-01 Early childhood professionals are often required to work with children and families from a range of diverse backgrounds This book gives an overview of relevant social theories such as post structuralism cultural studies post colonialism feminist perspectives and queer theory

Discourse : Event : Practice Franka Schäfer,2025-10-14 With Discourse Event Practice the author presents a dynamic theoretical program for a discourse theoretically informed sociology of practice oriented toward the concept of the event She outlines the sociological relationship between the concepts of discourse event and practice diagnoses their distorted relationship and explains the dynamization of dichotomous conceptions as the guiding principle of her argumentation Through a reconstruction of the discourse theoretical foundations the practical theoretical conditions the situation of the method discussion and the starting point of sociological protest research she forms the basis of the research program and marks the question of the association of discourses and practices as a gap which is elucidated using the example of protest research The core of the book is a nuanced examination of the concept of event developed from the influence of Foucault as a primary basis for transformation and translated into a concept of event that ensures a relationship between discourse and practice that overcomes dichotomies within a post structuralist materialism In addition the potential of the program lies in the expansion of practice studies to include an explicit perspective on power and domination illustrated through an analysis of the practices of resistance as exemplified by the Yippie Festival of Life
