 globalization proceeds at an ever increasing and more unrelenting pace relations among the world s religions are taking on both a new visibility and a new urgency Christian theologians and others intent on innovative formulations in the theology of religions are making interreligious dialogue with non Christians a priority One way to promote creative scholarship in this quest is to tap into interdisciplinary resources and the author of this volume is uniquely qualified to do so since he holds graduate degrees in both theology and cultural anthropology Aaron Thomas Raverty's Refuge in Crestone: A Sanctuary for Interreligious Dialogue elucidates how the praxis of interreligious dialogue as outlined in key Vatican documents in the Catholic Church could be better served by attending to the qualitative ethnographic methods of sociocultural anthropology Because the material behavioral and cognitive aspects of dialogue as revealed in daily life common social and political action religious experience and theological exchange are embedded in culture they are amenable to ethnographic analysis Using the unique multi religious Colorado site of Crestone and its environs as a fieldwork laboratory and self described Refuge for World Truths the ethnographic data gleaned from this project exemplify the creative interdisciplinary contributions of anthropology to theologizing It seeks to demonstrate using an empirical multi religious community as its focus how anthropology can support interreligious dialogue The results of such dialogue could not only assist the scholarly community by helping theologians arrive at new formulations in the burgeoning area of the theology of religions but might also serve the more practical goal of promoting peace as an alternative to violence in today's complex and sorely troubled world

A Place More Void Paul Kingsbury, Anna J. Secor, 2021-02 A Place More Void takes its name from a scene in William Shakespeare's The Tragedy of Julius Caesar wherein an elderly soothsayer has a final chance to warn Caesar about the Ides of March Worried that he won't be able to deliver his message because of the crowded alleyways the soothsayer devises a plan to find and intercept Caesar in a place more void It is precisely such an elusive place that this volume makes space for by theorizing and empirically exploring the many yet widely neglected ways in which the void permeates geographical thinking This collection presents geography's most in depth and sustained engagements with the void to date demonstrating the extent to which related themes such as gaps cracks lacks and emptiness perforate geography's fundamental concepts practices and passions Arranged in four parts around the themes of Holes Absences Edges and Voids the contributions demonstrate the fecundity of the void for thinking across a wide range of phenomena from archives to alien abductions caves to cryptids and vortexes to vanishing points A Place More Void gathers established and emerging scholars who engage a wide range of geographical issues and who express themselves not only through archival literary and socio scientific investigations but also through social and spatial theory political manifesto poetry and performance art Gaia Matrix Peter William Champoux,1999
