Libya - the Dream Or Nightmare Paul E. Cooper,2011-08-29      Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling Mark Minett,2020-12-22 Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling reveals an Altman barely glimpsed in previous critical accounts of the filmmaker This re examination of his seminal work during the Hollywood Renaissance or New Hollywood period of the early 1970s including M A S H Brewster McCloud McCabe Mrs Miller Images The Long Goodbye Thieves Like Us California Split and Nashville sheds new light on both the films and the filmmaker reframing Altman as a complex pragmatic innovator whose work exceeds but is also grounded in the norms of classical Hollywood storytelling rather than someone who rejected those norms in favor of modernist art cinema Its findings and approach hold important implications for the study of cinematic authorship Largely avoiding thematic exegesis it employs an historical poetics approach robust functionalist frameworks archival research and formal and statistical analysis to demystify the essential features of the standard account of Altman s filmmaking history and profile lax narrative form heavy reliance on the zoom sound design replete with overlapping dialogue improvisational infidelity to the screenplay and a desire to subvert based in his time in the training grounds of industrial filmmaking and filmed television The book provides a clear example of how a filmmaker might work collaboratively and pragmatically within and across media institutions to elaborate upon their sanctioned practices and aims We misunderstand Altman s work and the creative work of Hollywood filmmakers in general when we insist on describing innovation as opposition to institutional norms and on describing those norms as simply assimilating innovation      Children's Book Review Index ,1985      The Last Seven K.
