Seeds Of Change Reflections S:

Seeds of Change Priscilla Leder, 2010-09-01 Barbara Kingsolver's books have sold millions of copies. The Poisonwood Bible was nominated for the Pulitzer Prize and her work is studied in courses ranging from English as a second language classes to seminars in doctoral programs. Yet until now there has been relatively little scholarly analysis of her writings. Seeds of Change: Critical Essays on Barbara Kingsolver edited by Priscilla V Leder is the first collection of essays examining the full range of Kingsolver's literary output. The articles in this new volume provide analysis, context, and commentary on all of Kingsolver's novels, her poetry, her two essay collections, and her full-length nonfiction memoir Animal Vegetable Miracle: A Year of Food Life. Professor Leder begins Seeds of Change with a brief critical biography that traces Kingsolver's development as a writer. Leder also includes an overview of the scholarship on Kingsolver's oeuvre. Organized by subject matter, the 14 essays in the book are divided into three sections that deal with recurrent themes in Kingsolver's compositions: identity, social justice, and ecology. The pieces in this ground-breaking volume draw upon contemporary critical approaches: ecocritical, postcolonial, feminist, and disability studies to extend established lines of inquiry into Kingsolver's writing and to take them in new directions. By comparing Kingsolver with earlier writers such as Joseph Conrad and Henry David Thoreau, the contributors place her canon in literary context and locate her in cultural contexts by revealing how she reworks traditional narratives such as the Western myth. They also address the more controversial aspects of her writings, examining her political advocacy and her relationship to her reader, in addition to exploring her vision of a more just and harmonious world. Fully indexed with a comprehensive works-cited section, Seeds of Change gives scholars and students important insight and analysis which will deepen and broaden their understanding and experience of Barbara Kingsolver's work. Women's Higher Education in Comparative Perspective G.P. Kelly, S. Slaughter, 1991 Focuses on women's access to higher education but also discusses women in the academic workforce. Passionate Women Paul Ropp, Paola Zamperini, Harriet Zurndorfer, 2021-07-26 This is a collection of original essays which focuses on the causes, meanings, and significance of female suicides in Ming and Qing China. It is the first attempt in English language scholarship to revise earlier views of female self-destruction that had been shaped by the May Fourth Movement and anti-Confucian critiques of Chinese culture and to consider the matter of female suicide in the wider context of more recent scholarship on women and gender relations in late imperial China. The essays also reveal the world of tensions, conflicting demands, and expectations and a variety of means by which both women and men made moral sense of their lives in late imperial China. The volume closes with an extensive bibliography of relevant and important Chinese, Japanese, and Western publications related to female suicide in late imperial China. True to Her Word Weijing Lu, 2008 This book is a comprehensive study of faithful maidenhood in late imperial China from the vantage points of state policy, local history, scholarly debate, and the faithful maiden's own subjective point of view. Precious Records Susan Mann, 1997 Most analyses of gender in High Qing times have focused on literature and on the writings of the elite this book broadens the scope of inquiry to include women's work in the farm household courtesan entertainment and women's participation in ritual observances and religion In dealing with literature it shows how women's poetry can serve the historian as well as the literary critic drawing on one of the first anthologies of women's writing compiled by a woman to examine not only literary sensibilities and intimate emotions but also political judgments moral values and social relations Flowering in the Shadows Marsha Smith Weidner, 1990-01-01 For well over a thousand years Chinese and Japanese women created commissioned collected and used paintings yet until recently this fact has scarcely been acknowledged in the study of East Asian art by Westerners Lost Bodies: Prostitution and Masculinity in

Chinese Fiction Paola Zamperini, 2010-06-28 This important contribution to the study of early modern Chinese fiction and representation of gender relations focuses on literary representations of the prostitute produced in the Ming and Qing periods Following her heavily symbolic body the present work maps this fictional heroine's journey from innocence to sex work and beyond This crucial angle allows the author to paint a picture of gender identity sexuality and desire that is at once unitary and multi layered and that comes to illuminate some of the major themes in the construction of Chinese modernity

The Inner Quarters Patricia Buckley Ebrey, 1993-12 Opening up questions about women's lives about gender about why we read history at all and how we write it Patricia Buckley Ebrey has made The Inner Quarters a place we need to enter from the Foreword Men and Women in Qing China Edwards, 2021-09-13 Men and Women in Qing China is an analysis of Chinese prescriptions of gender as represented in Cao Xueqin's famous eighteenth century Chinese novel of manners The Red Chamber Dream or The Story of the Stone Drawing on feminist literary critical methods it examines Qing notions of masculinity and femininity including themes such as bisexuality motherhood virginity and purity and gender and power Its central aim is to challenge the common assumption that the novel represents some form of early Chinese feminism by examining the text in conjunction with historical data The book will be especially important to those interested in issues of gender in China the history of Chinese literary criticism and the application of feminist theory to the Asian text

Cass, 1999-12-01 Grannies geishas warriors mystics recluses and predators_ these are the dangerous women of traditional China Through her exploration of the myth and history of the Ming Victoria B Cass brings their world brilliantly to life In a culture that is resoundingly patriarchal these women are a vivid counterpoint Violating state sponsored orthodoxies the granny mocks and mimics the geisha charms with her intellect the warrior rules in icy superiority Using new and freshly interpreted sources the author leads us confidently into this surprising world bolstering her erudite and engaging text with stunning color and black and white art of the period Feminism and the Body Londa L.
