Seekers After Mature Faith E. Glenn Hinson, 1968 Seekers After Mature Faith E. Glenn Hinson, 1970 From Our Christian Heritage C. Douglas Weaver, 1997 Weaver has retrieved from obscurity the rich treasures of Christian tradition from the 1st through 20th centuries and made them meaningfully accessible for preachers teachers worship and study leaders students devotional readers and persons interested in the history of the church Eat the Bible Micah E. Chung, 2024-07-19 People love their metaphors for the Bible The Bible is a sword a mirror a script a score a cathedral a rule book a user s manual a lamp a love letter But how did metaphor which in the eighteenth century was seen as a deceptive rhetorical trick become such a prominent tool for speaking of Scripture And how does one judge between a good metaphor and a bad one This book explores the theological use of metaphor to describe the nature and interpretation of Scripture It interrogates three such models the Bible as musical score Anthony Thiselton the Bible as theo dramatic script Kevin Vanhoozer and the Bible as light John Feinberg seeking to evaluate their faithfulness to Scripture and church tradition their fittingness to the current culture and their fruitfulness for understanding and practicing the biblical text The author then proposes and explores what he considers a better model one drawn from the Bible itself namely that of Scripture as food

Imagining Judeo-Christian America K. Healan Gaston, 2019-11-15 Judeo Christian is a remarkably easy term to look right through Judaism and Christianity obviously share tenets texts and beliefs that have strongly influenced American democracy In this ambitious book however K Healan Gaston challenges the myth of a monolithic Judeo Christian America She demonstrates that the idea is not only a recent and deliberate construct but also a potentially dangerous one From the time of its widespread adoption in the 1930s the ostensible inclusiveness of Judeo Christian terminology concealed efforts to promote particular conceptions of religion secularism and politics Gaston also shows that this new language originally rooted in arguments over the nature of democracy that intensified in the early Cold War years later became a marker in the culture wars that continue today She argues that the debate on what constituted Judeo Christian and American identity has shaped the country's religious and political culture much more extensively than previously recognized Union Catalog of the Graduate Theological Union Graduate Theological Union. Library, 1972 Perspectives on Trust in the History of Philosophy David J. Collins, Iris Vidmar Jovanovic, Mark Alfano, 2023-11-20 What is the importance of trust for human social life What role does trust play in morality in political arrangements and in our attempts to gain knowledge and understand the world When should we trust others and when is withholding trust or mistrusting others warranted While philosophers have recently turned their attention to such questions they have generally overlooked what important thinkers throughout the history of philosophy have said on the topic of trust Edited by David Collins Iris Vidmar Jovanovic and Mark Alfano

Perspectives on Trust in the History of Philosophy brings together examinations of the views on trust that can be found in several major philosophers from the ancient world up to the twentieth century and from across the globe With a focus on the moral and social dimensions of trust this collection includes perspectives from Chinese Indian and African philosophies and the contributors examine how thinkers such as Confucius Aristotle Hobbes Hume Smith Kant Nietzsche L gstrup and Murdoch have thought about trust and trustworthiness This book demonstrates that good philosophical work on trust must be historically informed A History of North-Western Europe Robin Briggs, 2025-06-17 Concentrates solely on North Western Europe examines the crucial structural changes that shaped the modern world The History of North Western Europe provides a broad account of the regions included in the modern states of France Germany the Netherlands Belgium Austria and Great Britain Offering a rigorous yet accessible analytical narrative of the centuries between the fall of the Roman Empire and the First World War noted historian Robin Briggs examines the many forms of structural change that helped to create a distinctive North Western European society Organized chronologically into fourteen substantial chapters the text covers major events and eras such as the Protestant Reformation the rise of the fiscal military state and the scientific and industrial revolutions that combined to undermine traditional authority structures and generate new understandings of the world The author also offers insights into the origins and development of the urban and industrial society that ultimately transformed the globe Topics include the Carolingian dynasty the rule of feudal lords and popes the bubonic plague the Renaissance the Enlightenment the Napoleonic wars the Revolutions of 1848 the growth of nationalism and instability preceding the Great War and much more Stimulates readers to reflect in new ways on how the past is crucial to understanding the present Combines a coherent narrative with strong analyses of crucial developments at every stage of North Western European history Explores the upheavals that shaped the social religious economic and political landscape of the region Discusses how European naval military religious and economic power was projected worldwide The History of North Western Europe From Late Antiquity to the First World War is an excellent textbook for undergraduate students in European History courses as well as a valuable resource for general readers looking for a wide ranging historical account of the countries of the region The History of the Study of Landforms Or The Development of Geomorphology

Richard J. Chorley, Robert Percy Beckinsale, Antony J. Dunn, 1973 A volume which is devoted to the study of the life and work of the world's most famous geomorphologists William Morris Davis 1850-1934 Political Fiction and the Historical Imagination Lee Horsley, 1990-06-18 This study gives insights into the process of imagining history and argues the case for a humanistic approach It shows how writers have brought alive in their work an individual struggle to comprehend some of the most important political phenomena to the 20th century Divining History Jayne Svenungsson, 2016-08-01 For millennia messianic visions of redemption have inspired men and women to turn against unjust and oppressive orders Yet these very same traditions are regularly decried as antecedents to the violent and authoritarian ideologies of modernity Informed in equal parts by theology and historical theory this book offers a provocative exploration of this double edged legacy Author Jayne Svenungsson rigorously pursues a middle path between utopian arrogance and an enervated postmodernism assessing the impact of Jewish and Christian theologies of history on subsequent thinkers and in the process identifying a web of spiritual and intellectual motifs extending from ancient Jewish prophets to contemporary radicals such as Giorgio Agamben and Slavoj Žižek Centuries of Holiness Richard Valantasis, 2005-02-18 Richard Valantasis brings us a guide to the spiritual life for the smart seeker who wants to be fully attuned to God interactive with other believers connected to the wider world in which humans live engaged with the physical universe committed to service to the poor and disenfranchised and finally postmodern Adopting a literary device first used in the fourth century by the Desert Father Evagrius Pontikos Richard Valantasis offers a century of spiritual texts a hundred short essays from 800 to 900 words on a hundred spiritual themes Believing that tradition is the action of the Holy Spirit making available the wisdom of the past in a new idiom and a time Valantasis moves from the premodern spiritual world of the Christian tradition to the postmodern realities of our current world and back again Sample entries Conversion Sanctification Incarnate Living Discernment Divine Indwelling Union with God Ennui Progress Holy Dying Habitual Prayer Thorns and Impediments Praying the Bodies Spiritual Direction Emotional Ecology Seeing Double The Body Transparent Temptation Consolations The Devil Visions of Deification Humility
