Voices From Uganda, 1995-07-01 In African Voices children as well as adults speak directly and often with divesting clarity of their former homes the horrors of civil war and oppression and the difficulties of building new lives in exile These writings are an important source of information but through their courage and optimism they also bring new insights and perspectives into our homes and classrooms Voices from Uganda is an important and moving addition to the series Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues
