Cuentos de la selva Horacio Quiroga, 2018-03-19 Una selva llena de animales y algo que otro humano donde unos viven situaciones emocionantes y a veces peligrosas pero siempre contadas por Horacio Quiroga con grandes dosis de humor. Los lectores más jóvenes se divertirán leyendo cómo se las ingeniaron los yacarés para salvar su río frente a la amenaza del hombre o por qué los flamencos se sostienen siempre sobre una pata y se emocionan con la historia del pequeño coat que sacrificó su libertad para vivir con unos niños o con la tortuga que salvó la vida de un hombre cargándolo sobre su caparazón. Porque estos Cuentos de la selva son ante todo un canto a la naturaleza y a la solidaridad.

De la selva y otros cuentos Horacio Quiroga, 1999 Horacio Quiroga was a master storyteller author of Latin American fiction. This book is an anthology.

Bookbird, 1995 La lectura para el desarrollo infantil Marcela Magdaleno, 2001-09 BOOK FOR GETTING MORE KNOWLEDGE AND FUN THROUGH READING HABITS IN CHILDREN SELF HELP EDUCATIONAL Postcolonial Approaches to Latin American Children's Literature Ann González, 2018-01-31 In this volume González explores how the effects of a traumatic colonial experience are represented to Latin American children today almost two centuries after the dismantling of colonialism. Proper central to this study is the argument that the historical constraints of colonialism, neocolonialism and postcolonialism have generated certain repeating themes and literary strategies in children's literature throughout the Spanish-speaking Americas. From the outset of Spanish domination fundamental tensions emerged between the colonizers and native groups that still exist to this day. Rather than a felicitous mixing of these two opposing groups, the mestizo is caught between contrasting worldviews, contending explanations of reality and different values, beliefs and epistemologies that are different ways of seeing and knowing. Postcolonial subjects experience these contending cultural beliefs and practices as a double bind, a no-win situation in which they feel pressured by mutually exclusive expectations and imperatives. Latin American mestizos therefore are inevitably conflicted. Despite the vastness of the geography in question and the innumerable variations in regional histories, oral traditions and natural settings, these contradictory demands create a pervasive dynamic that penetrates the very fabric of society, showing up intentionally or not in the stories passed from generation to generation as well as in new stories written or adapted for Spanish-speaking children. The goal of this study therefore is to examine a variety of children's texts from the region to determine how national and hemispheric perceptions of reality identity and values are passed to the next generation This book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Latin American literary and cultural studies children s literature postcolonial studies and comparative literature
