Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05

One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life's losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts Love and Loss - Volume Two Betty Hibod,2024-11-26 Many books have been written as histories recounting events that shaped the life of a group society nation or civilization or as biographies recounting events and achievements relating to one person s life and work Many books have been written putting forth ideas philosophies and words of wisdom to live by Some of these we call holy books or scripture Fewer books have been written like this one which go behind the scenes of history lay bare the feelings behind the philosophies and document the painful and joyful inner path along which historical events and philosophical ideas emerge This book is intensely even shockingly personal not clinical or abstract or detached It is an intimate detailed sensual and sometimes disturbing account of a life lived on the cusp that bridges time and eternity Its focus is narrow it does not reveal much at all about anyone s visible public life or accomplishments but it explores in great depth the invisible contents of minds hearts and souls The scriptures and scriptural commentaries of most religions describe a path to salvation or bliss and provide instructions or guideposts for moving along the path but they are still only theoretical hypothetical mythical or metaphorical accounts This book seeks to show how the theories and hypotheses play out pragmatically in real time and space how the myths come alive in flesh and spirit how the metaphors become the very things they symbolize How does daily life look from inside someone in the throes of awakening How does she know who or what she is How is her destiny revealed How do seemingly ordinary mundane events become miracles This book begins to answer those questions Philosophy for the Brokenhearted: Thinking Through Grief, Loss, and Letting Go Taylor Emerson,2025-06-21 Grief is not a detour from life it is part of the path In Philosophy for the Brokenhearted readers are invited into a thoughtful compassionate exploration of what it means to live with grief loss and the slow tender work of letting go Blending timeless philosophical insights with emotional depth and poetic clarity this book offers thirty reflections each around 1 000 words designed to walk beside you in the quiet hours of mourning and transformation Drawing from the wisdom of thinkers such as Kierkegaard Nietzsche Arendt and Weil as well as the lived experience of emotional rupture this book does not offer platitudes or prescriptions Instead it makes space for grief in all its complexity its rage its silence its love its longing and gently asks What now Whether you are grieving a death the end of a relationship a fading identity or a dream that can no longer be lived Philosophy for the Brokenhearted is a companion for the soul in transition It is for those who seek more than closure it is for those who seek meaning With each page it offers not solutions but steadiness Not answers but presence Not the promise of return but the possibility of renewal This is not a book about forgetting It is a book about remembering and becoming Before and After Loss Lisa M. Shulman,2018-12-14 An expert neurologist explores how the mind brain and body respond and heal after her personal experience with profound loss Winner of the Best Book Award Health Death Dying by American Book Fest In Before and After Loss neurologist Dr Lisa M Shulman describes a personal story of loss and her journey to understand the science behind the mind altering experience of grief Part memoir part creative nonfiction part account of scientific discovery this moving book combines Shulman s perspectives as an expert in brain science and a keen observer of behavior with her experience as a clinician a caregiver and a widow Drawing on the latest studies about grief and its effects she explains what scientists know about how the mind brain and body respond and heal following traumatic loss She also traces the interface between the experience of profound loss and the search for emotional restoration Combining the science of emotional trauma with concrete psychological techniques including dream interpretation journaling mindfulness exercises and meditation Shulman s frank and empathetic account will help readers regain their emotional balance by navigating the passage from profound sorrow to healing and growth The Monthly Religious Magazine ,1866 Monthly Religious Magazine Frederic Iterations of Loss Jeffrey Sacks, 2015-02-25. In a series of exquisite close readings of Arabic and Arab Jewish writing, Jeffrey Sacks considers the relation of poetic statement to individual and collective loss, the dispossession of peoples and languages, and singular events of destruction in the nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first centuries. Addressing the work of Mahmoud Darwish, Ahmad Faris al-Shidyaq, Elias Khoury, Edmond Amran El-Maleh, Shimon Ballas, and Taha Husayn, Sacks demonstrates the reiterated incursion of loss into the time of life, losses that language declines to mourn. Language occurs as the iteration of loss, confounding its domestication in the form of the monolingual state in the Arabic nineteenth century's fallout. Reading the late lyric poetry of the Palestinian poet Mahmoud Darwish in relation to the destruction of Palestine in 1948, Sacks reconsiders the nineteenth-century Arabic nahda and its relation to colonialism, philology, and the European Enlightenment. He argues that this event is one of catastrophic loss, wherein the past suddenly appears as if it belonged to another time. Reading al-Shidyaq's al-Saq al-ala al-saq 1855 and the legacies to which it points in post-1948 writing in Arabic

Hebrew and French Sacks underlines a displacement and relocation of the Arabic word adab and its practice offering a novel contribution to Arabic and Middle East Studies critical theory poetics aesthetics and comparative literature Drawing on writings of Jacques Derrida Walter Benjamin Avital Ronell Judith Butler Theodor Adorno and Edward W Said Iterations of Loss shows that language interrupts its pacification as an event of aesthetic coherency to suggest that literary comparison does not privilege a renewed giving of sense but gives place to a new sense of relation GriefShare Loss of a Spouse: Navigating the Pain of Grief GriefShare, 2025-08-15 Help is here after the death of your spouse Be reassured that the intense and confusing emotions you re experiencing right now are normal And you re in the right place to find comfort and direction Loss of a Spouse Navigating the Pain of Grief by GriefShare is filled with relatable stories guidance from grief professionals practical exercises and strengthening Bible verses to help you cope with the unique challenges and feelings that arise after the death of your spouse In this book you ll discover What to expect in the days ahead How to deal with emotions such as loneliness and anxiety How to adjust to the changes and new responsibilities How to make decisions about your spouse s belongings Ways to preserve memories How God can comfort and guide you For even more support join a Loss of a Spouse 2 hour seminar meeting near you or online which uses this same book Recovering May Sarton, 2014-12-16 An affecting diary of one year s hardships and healing by one of the twentieth century s most extraordinary memoirists For decades readers have celebrated May Sarton s journals for their candid look at relationships success and failure communion with nature and the curious stages of aging In Recovering Sarton focuses on her sixty sixth year one marked by the turmoil of a mastectomy the end of a treasured relationship and the loneliness that visits a life of chosen solitude Each deeply felt entry in the journal written between 1978 and 1979 is laced with poignancy and honesty as she grapples with a cold reception for her latest novel the sad descent of a close friend into senility and other struggles Despite the trials of this one painful year Sarton writes of her progression toward a hard won renewal achieved through good friendships the levity provided by her cherished dog and peaceful days in her garden A candid account of Sarton s revival from personal darkness back into light Recovering is another stunning entry in the author s irrepressible oeuvre
