Adoptive Families in a Diverse Society Katarina Wegar, 2006 Adoptive Families in a Diverse Society brings together twenty one prominent scholars to explore the experience practice and policy of adoption in North America While much existing literature tends to stress the potential problems inherent in non biological kinship the essays in this volume consider adoptive family life in a broad and balanced context Bringing new perspectives to the topics of kinship identity and belonging this path breaking book expands more than our understandings of adoptive family life it urges us to rethink the limits and possibilities of diversity and assimilation in American society New York Magazine ,1995-04-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1995-03-27 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine ,1995-04-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Gender Struggles Constance L. Mui, Julien S. Murphy, 2002 Contemporary feminist theory and postmodernism have left significant marks on how we think about practical matters most notably the old and new forms of gender struggles that many women confront in their daily lives The essays collected in Gender Struggles are designed to highlight those influences by addressing the following questions What is practical feminism in a postmodern world How does rethinking the nature and boundaries of philosophy affect the way we understand practical issues that we confront daily What new forms of freedom autonomy subjectivity social welfare motherhood public and private space and political resistance have emerged from this new philosophical sense Together the sixteen essays in this volume represent many different voices of feminists who boldly take up familiar everyday concerns from unorthodox vantage points within new conceptual and theoretical frameworks The essays in Gender Struggles address a wide range of issues in gender struggles from the more familiar ones that for the last thirty years have been the mainstay of feminist scholarship such as motherhood beauty and sexual violence to new topics inspired by post industrialization and multiculturalism such as the welfare state cyberspace hate speech and queer politics and finally to topics that traditionally have not been seen as appropriate subjects for philosophizing such as adoption care work and the home Incorporating the latest most cutting edge material on feminism this volume aims at reaching a broad spectrum of readers by connecting postmodern feminist theory with concrete issues that are practical and relevant to their daily lives and experiences Jet ,1995-03-27 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news

The Ethics of Transracial Adoption Hawley Fogg-Davis,2018-10-18 Transracial adoption is one of the most contentious issues in adoption politics and in the politics of race more generally Some who support transracial adoption use a theory of colorblindness while many who oppose it draw a causal connection between race and culture and argue that a black child s racial and cultural interests are best served by black adoptive parents Hawley Fogg Davis carves out a middle ground between these positions She believes that race should not be a barrier to adoption but neither should it be absent from the minds of prospective adopters and adoption practitioners Fogg Davis s argument in favor of transracial adoption is based on the moral and legal principle of nondiscrimination and a theory of race consciousness she terms racial navigation Challenging the notion that children get their racial identity from their parents she argues that children through the process of racial navigation should cultivate their self identification in dialogue with others The Ethics of Transracial Adoption explores new ground in the transracial adoption debate by examining the relationship between personal and public conceptions of race and racism before during and after adoption New York Magazine ,1995-04-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Amazons in America Keira V. Williams,2019-03-06 With this remarkable study historian Keira V Williams shows how fictional matriarchies produced for specific audiences in successive eras and across multiple media constitute prescriptive solution oriented thought experiments directed at contemporary social issues In the process Amazons in America uncovers a rich tradition of matriarchal popular culture in the United States Beginning with late nineteenth century anthropological studies which theorized a universal prehistoric matriarchy Williams explores how representations of women centered societies reveal changing ideas of gender and power over the course of the twentieth century and into the present day She examines a deep archive of cultural artifacts both familiar and obscure including L Frank Baum s The Wizard of Oz series Progressive era fiction like Charlotte Perkins Gilman s utopian novel Herland the original 1940s Wonder Woman comics midcentury films featuring nuclear families and feminist science fiction novels from the 1970s that invented prehistoric and futuristic matriarchal societies While such texts have at times served as sites of feminist theory Williams unpacks their cyclical nature and in doing so pinpoints some of the premises that have historically hindered gender equality in the United States Williams also delves into popular works from the twenty first century such as Tyler Perry's Madea franchise and DC Comics Warner Bros globally successful film Wonder Woman which attest to the ongoing presence of matriarchal ideas and their capacity for combating patriarchy and white nationalism with visions of rebellion and liberation. Amazons in America provides an indispensable critique of how anxieties and fantasies about women in power are culturally expressed ultimately informing a broader discussion about how to nurture a stable equitable society.

Divas on Screen Mia Mask, 2010-10-01 This insightful study places African American women's stardom in historical and industrial contexts by examining the star personae of five African American women: Dorothy Dandridge, Pam Grier, Whoopi Goldberg, Oprah Winfrey, and Halle Berry. Interpreting each woman's celebrity as predicated on a brand of charismatic authority, Mia Mask shows how these female stars have ultimately complicated the conventional discursive practices through which blackness and womanhood have been represented in commercial cinema, independent film, and network television. Mask examines the function of these stars in seminal yet underanalyzed films. She considers Dandridge's status as a sexual commodity in films such as Tamango, revealing the contradictory discourses regarding race and sexuality in segregation era American culture. Grier's feminist camp performances in sexploitation pictures Women in Cages and The Big Doll House and her subsequent blaxploitation vehicles Coffy and Foxy Brown highlight a similar tension between representing African American women as both objectified stereotypes and powerful self-defining icons. Mask reads Goldberg's transforming habits in Sister Act and The Associate as representative of her unruly comedic routines, while Winfrey's daily television performance as self-made self-help guru echoes Horatio Alger narratives of success. Finally, Mask analyzes Berry's meteoric success by acknowledging the ways in which Dandridge's career made Berry's possible.
