Loss Change And Bereavement In Palliative Care Hardcover:

Loss, Change And Bereavement In Palliative Care Firth, Pam, Luff, Gill, Oliviere, David, 2004-12-01 This text brings together contemporary thinking on loss and bereavement. It draws on international research practice and individual stories from people struggling to understand the meaning of loss including work with bereaved children, parents, families and adults.

Loss, Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care Pam Firth, Gill Luff, David Oliviere, 2005 This text brings together contemporary thinking on loss and bereavement. It draws on international research practice and individual stories from people struggling to understand the meaning of loss including work with bereaved children, parents, families and adults.

Art Therapy and Cancer Care Diane Waller, Caryl Sibbett, 2005-07 Inspired by the experiences of art therapists who have pioneered work with people with cancer, this text looks at the work in its institutional context, demonstrating the importance for the art therapy service of being understood, supported and valued at managerial level.

Compassion-Based Approaches in Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, Andy H. Y. Ho, 2022-12-20 Compassion Based Approaches in Loss and Grief introduces clinicians to a wide array of strategies and frameworks for engaging clients throughout the loss experience, particularly when those experiences have a protracted course. In the book, clinicians and researchers from around the world and from a variety of fields explore ways to cultivate compassion and how to implement compassion-based clinical practices specifically designed to address loss, grief and bereavement. Students, scholars and mental health and healthcare professionals will come away from this important book with a deepened understanding of compassion-based approaches and strategies for enhancing distress tolerance, maintaining focus and identifying the clinical interventions best suited to clients' needs.

Living with Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2002 As this book shows us, when a loved one dies, we search for meaning in our own lives while struggling to hold onto memories of a precious life lost. O says Senator John Breaux in his introduction to this book. The 29 chapters of this book address the struggles, concerns and issues faced by the bereaved and those who care for them.

Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan, Second Edition Carolyn Ambler Walter, Judith L. M. McCoyd, 2015-09-11 Praise for the First Edition: This book represents a significant advance because it looks at the issues from a bio-psychosocial perspective. To a social worker who has worked mainly in a medical and nursing environment, this is a great step forward. Bereavement Care Offers valued sensitivities, knowledge and insights and most importantly, age-appropriate interventions for a range of significant losses. Counselors will want to keep this indispensable work close at hand.

Kenneth J. Doka PhD, Author: Counseling Individuals With Life-Threatening Illness. This unique text for undergraduate and master's level social work and counseling courses on loss, grief and bereavement is distinguished by its biopsychosocial perspective and developmental framework. The book addresses grieving patterns and intervention strategies according to the life trajectory and provides clinical intervention tools and strategies for coping according to the developmental stage of an individual. It incorporates losses beyond death loss with special focus on losses related to

Kasl-Godley,2010-11-04 A practical overview of clinical issues related to end of life care including grief and bereavement The needs of individuals with life limiting or terminal illness and those caring for them are well documented However meeting these needs can be challenging particularly in the absence of a well established evidence base about how best to help In this informative guide editors Sara Qualls and Julia Kasl Godley have brought together a notable team of international contributors to produce a clear structure offering mental health professionals a framework for developing the competencies needed to work with end of life care issues challenges concerns and opportunities Part of the Wiley Series in Clinical Geropsychology this thorough and up to date guide answers complex questions often asked by patients their families and caregivers and helping professionals as well including How does dying occur and how does it vary across illnesses What are the spiritual issues that are visible in end of life care How are families engaged in end of life care and what services and support can mental health clinicians provide them How should providers address mental disorders that appear at the end of life What are the tools and strategies involved in advanced care planning and how do they play out during end of life care Sensitively addressing the issues that arise in the clinical care of the actively dying this timely book is filled with clinical illustrations guidance tips for practice and encouragement Written to equip mental health professionals with the information they need to guide families and others caring for the needs of individuals with life threatening and terminal illnesses End of Life Issues Grief and Bereavement presents a rich resource for caregivers for the psychological sociocultural interpersonal and spiritual aspects of care at the end of life Palliative Care: A Practical Guide for the Health Professional Kathryn Boog,Claire Tester,2007-10-23

This book encourages health professionals to reconceptualise their practice in the light of the fact that their patients are deteriorating and dying supporting them in their dichotomous role which involves affirming that person s life whilst acknowledging that that life is ending Professionals are encouraged to think laterally to be creative in their use of their core skills and to use their life skills and experience to change the focus of their interventions By making these changes those involved with caring for the dying will be able to address issues related to burnout and feeling de skilled The authors share their considerable experience with the reader what works for both patient and carer professional when working in this field By providing workable solutions they empower those in disempowering situations such as when working with terminally ill children and adults The book is truly holistic and client centred in its approach upholding the philosophy of palliative care Aimed at all who interact with children and adults who have a life limiting condition or who are dying Offers practical examples of approaches to dilemmas and emotional issues commonly face by those working in palliative care Encourages professionals to think laterally to be creative in their use of core skills and to use their life skills and experience to change the focus of their interventions Moves the emphasis away from the medical model to the emotional and spiritual influences on quality of life Offers clear workable guidelines and demonstrates practical solutions based on proven theory and experience to problems encountered on a day to day basis by patients and those coming into contact with them Care, Loss and the End of Life ,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 This inter and multi disciplinary volume examines various experiences of loss whether we encounter it in the form of lost loved ones lost relationships lost opportunities or the loss of capabilities as we age Loss is something we can experience personally as part of a family and as part of a community whose collective experiences of loss occasions more public displays of commemoration We are constantly challenged to find ways of coping and surviving in the face of different types of loss Due in part to the complexities of the concept itself and the resistance many individuals feel toward discussing painful subjects it is often difficult to engage in the sort of robust inter disciplinary dialogue that is needed to explore fully the links between living suffering dying and surviving loss Thus this volume is profoundly interdisciplinary as it explores how loss can be expressed through cognitive affective somatic behavioral interpersonal and spiritual grief responses Non-Death Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris,2019-10-16 Non Death Loss and Grief offers an inclusive perspective on loss and grief exploring recent research clinical applications and current thinking on non death losses and the unique features of the grieving process that accompany them The book places an overarching focus on the losses that we encounter in everyday life and the role of these loss experiences in shaping us as we continue living A main emphasis is the importance of having words to accurately express these living losses such as loss of communication with a loved one due to disease or trauma which are often not acknowledged for the depth of their impact Chapters showcase a wide range of contributions from international leaders in the field and explore individual perspectives on loss as well as experiences that are more interpersonal and sociopolitical in nature Illustrated by case studies and clinical examples throughout this is a highly relevant text for clinicians looking to enhance their support of those living with ongoing loss and grief
